Coquetdale Song

Verse
I have many friends from the Coquet valley many of them born there too
I could name quite a few
But is it the right thing to do?

Chorus
Wrestling in the summer
Rugby in the Winter
And whatever else they get up to Fishing in the night time
Shooting in the day
Dancing in the streets of Rothbury
What else can I say

Verse
Farmers in the Valley
And the hills roundabout
Visit Rothbury shopping
And have a glass of stout
Plenty of activity
both day and night
Tourists and locals go to town
And maybe start a fight

Chorus

Verse
The beauty of the scenery is there to behold
I think it permeates
nearly every soul
How can you not be happy in the Valley of the Coquet Working and playing at the Turks Head

Chorus

Written and Song By Donald Aynsley
At the Wiles of Wannie, Coquet & Beyond
11th July "026