REF	AGENDA ITEM	ACTION
	teeth to prevent vehicular access onto the village green, Hound Green JWH raised quote from local contractor for repair of track and installation of dragon teeth posts to prevent vehicular access onto the village green from repaired track. JH explained quote details & that track previously repaired by residents in past, but no longer occurring. JH then left the room. Councillors discussed ownership of the track, legal understanding of liability issues if damage occurs to vehicles or accident, and whether local residents who have access rights to use track could be approached to contribute equally to repair. Councillors decided to approach HALC for guidance on what other Parish Councils do in similar situations. Councillors discussed alternatives to dragon teeth including styles & ditches. All in agreement that posts will be required once track repaired and for Contractor to be asked to provide alternative quotes for different styles. JH returned to the room.	JWH – to approach HALC for advice on local resident contributions to repair track. JH – to forward quote on alternative styles of dragon teeth.
15/89	Council to consider and decide upon projects for the Parish for the forthcoming year KA raised plans for the coming year needing a spreadsheet to plan out ongoing projects with targets, deadlines & status updates. All in agreement. C.Cllr David Simpson raised Small Grant Scheme. Just need details of work and costing to be considered. Councillors discussed working with local Parish Councils on mutually benefit projects such as footpaths. JH – Advised that all work in regards to village green at Hound Green on hold at the moment by Adam Green at Hart DC over concerns of possible sale of land. JH advised have tried to contact Adam Green but unsuccessful to date. Councillors discussed ongoing renovation of BT kiosk, quoted costs, use of volunteers and liability issues. Councillors raised consideration of having it valued & then selling it to raise funds to support other projects in the Parish. Councillors discussed basis of BT Kiosk purchase, high renovation quotes, which are felt unsupportable by the Parish Council, and Parishioner opinions. Councillors decided unanimously to raise consideration in the next issue of Mattingley Matters for the Parishioners to decide. BA – raised consideration of information boards. Councillors discussed use of boards and locations. Councillors to consider project further. JH – Raised that tree work must be done this year.
