4. Vote in new treasurer

Proposed – SJ

Seconded – HM

That DH takes over the role of FRA Treasurer. Carried 4/4

5. Chair's Report

- Chair thanked both Andrew Armstrong and Sharon Jordan for their work as secretary and treasurer.
- Bank validation has been completed
- BS, GB (no longer a member of the FRA Committee) and NB (no longer a member of the FRA Committee) are the current signatories on the bank account. This needs to be updated with DH added and GB and NB to be removed. (BS to action)
- Debit Card – This can not be applied for online and requires a signed application to be handed into the bank

6. Maintenance Committee Report

DH has an upcoming meeting with John Jeys to discuss maintenance of Fernwood Central.

John Jeys monthly maintenance update - Noted.

7. FRA Open Hollowdyke Lane Action Group (OHLAG)

DH raised concerns on the impact of Hollowdyke Lane being closed to traffic and comments made by several residents on Facebook, that Hollowdyke Lane should be reopened.

Proposed - DH

Seconded – HM

That the FRA should look at the setting up of an action group to lobby for the road to reopened. DH believes that the FRA would be best placed to organise this group and subsequently, once agreed by the group, to liaise with the various stakeholders.

Initial discussion ideas included:

- Liaising with Newark and Sherwood District Council, Nottinghamshire County Council and VIA East Midlands
- Congestion on the B6326 due to accidents on the A1
- Speed restriction on Hollowdyke Lane
- The possible need for traffic lights at the end of Hollowdyke Lane

DH agreed to chair future OHLAG meetings

Carried 5/5

8. Correspondence
