Note: Under 16s using any of the Clubs facilities must at all times be accompanied by a family member, or, by prior arrangements with either the Club Coach plus one other member of the club, or, with the Clubs Safeguarding Officer plus one other member of the club.

Potential new members who are attending for taster sessions before they decide if they would like to join the club can only pay and play in four Monday evening Umbrella games before joining.

They are however eligible to use the clubs equipment and facilities in conjunction with an existing club member, or, by prior arrangement with the clubs coach, for a period of four weeks from their first visit to the club.

Existing and new members are only eligible to play in any competitions, games or matches when their full annual subscription fee has been paid in full.

No full or part refunds of annual membership fees will be considered.
