The Treasurer said he's waiting on a statement from Collier Turf Care for items Tony ordered after the last statement for Topsoil and Seaweed Liquid fertilizer which comes to about £649.98, this will show on the next report.

2) League and Fixture Report:

- a) Club Captain & Age Concern League (A): TM – A few friendlies early in the season to give members a practice before the start. A couple more are planned in September against Castle Acre & Kings Lynn. No date set yet. In the ACL we've won some and lost some, Brad A v Brad B was a draw 4-4. Coral Cup is Next Sun at Watton.
 - b) Fixtures Secretary & Ashill Triples: PW – NTR for the fixtures, played two games in the A3's, lost both.
 - c) Dereham League & Age Concern League (B): TN – In the DL we've played 3, won 2 and lost 1. In the ACL we've played 3 games with 2 wins and a draw. This afternoon we have a game against Gressenhall in the ACL Cup.
 - d) Mid Norfolk League: PH- Played 4 won 1, 2nd leg of the cup to go
- 3) Report on Green: TM – The green is coming on, everyone says it's playing well, especially from visiting teams. Unfortunately, the price of chemicals a fertilizer is increasing. Simon said the prices are stabilizing.
- 4) Fund Raising:
- a) Closed season social events 2023/24 the committee to discuss at the next committee meeting with a view as to what we run and by whom.
 - b) Lottery still drawing income as well as providing winners.

5) Any other business

- a) Internal Post Box – Provided for League Captains to put Rink Fees at home matches or on Drives rather than make a specific journey coming to my house. The box will also accept Lottery payments.
- b) Rosie suggested having one or possibly two of the far benches brought closer to the Pavilion for visiting teams and or spectators to use rather than sitting under the veranda or inside. All agreed.
- c) Rosie also suggested replacing the current tables with fold up tables so that some could be put away to free up space. The Treasurer to source some and price them up. Rosie also mentioned having a shed to store unused chairs in.
