Wigsley unveils WW1 Commemorative Plaque

The culmination of 18 months work, Wigsley unveiled a commemorative plaque last December dedicated to the memory of Wigsley's World War 1 airfield and the airmen based there.

The granite plaque has been donated by the Airfields of Britain Conservation Trust, the first national airfield charity that honours WW1 Home Defence fighter stations and landing grounds. The Trust wanted to recognise the first Wigsley Airfield and the contribution it made to the war effort.

Learning that Wigsley had a WW1 Airfield came as a complete surprise to many as Wigsley is better known for its WW2 airfield. There is nothing remaining of the WW1 airfield and there's no-one alive who can remember it.

However, thanks to one of our residents Gordon Goldacre, who takes a keen interest in this subject, we know the airfield was a grass field located on Harby Road and that No 33 squadron of the Royal Flying Corps (later Royal Air Force) was based there along with those early bi-planes.

Clive Thompson, Chairman of Wigsley Parish unveiling the new commemorative plaque

We also know of its strategic importance not only as a Home Defence landing ground but as a training base because the topography of the surrounding area resembled that of the war zone in Northern France.

Our thanks go to Airfields of Britain Conservation Trust for dedicating the granite plaque, Gordon Goldacre for sharing his research and insight and Paul Hore for transporting the plaque to and from the stand manufacturers and helping install it.

Harby History Group – Louise Herrick 703662-harbyhistory@outlook.com

Happy New Year to you all! Please make your New Year Resolution to come to one of our meetings in 2019! It's an easy resolution to keep!

In November, member speaker, John Herrick, gave a presentation with slides entitled "Genealogy-or Surprise, Surprise!" His talk was about his personal search for his family tree. John gave useful tips about the best sources for finding out information. Genealogy websites were useful for tallying up your tree with the research other related people may have done with theirs. Church records were good as you could often find a whole group of family records for births, deaths and marriages as families often used to live in clusters. Armed forces records went into a large amount of detail as John found out the height, hair colour and the placement of a scar on a grandfather he had only ever seen a black and white photo of. DNA tests are also useful for finding out about your heritage. John told us some of the highlights of his research and details of interesting individuals. There were sad stories about the man who was sent to St John's Asylum with shell shock who wrote to his wife every week for years and she wrote to him weekly too. Neither received the others' letters. They were all found in a medical office years later. There was the lady who went to look after her daughter in America who had just had a baby, but never made it because her ride was a ship called Titanic. Her handbag was found though and auctioned off. There were also great stories of being related to royalty and closer to home, a long lost 6th cousin living in Harby. John's top tips were never to assume there in no connection if someone says, are you related to ...?" and the importance of spelling names correctly. The latter preventing John for some time finding a whole new family in Canada, including a half-brother.

Coming up: -

30 January- Chesterfield Canal-West Stockwith to Chesterfield. Returning guest speaker Graeme Wade.

27 February- The Jacobites. Member speaker Harold Paine.

27 March- RAF Ingham Heritage Group. Guest speaker Geoff Burton talks about the restoration work they are doing at the home of the Polish Bomber Squadron to enable the site to become a visitor centre.

Meetings are on the last Wednesday of the month in the village hall lounge and unless specified start at 7:30 pm. £2 entry. Everyone is welcome. Please phone me if you want more information or even just a bit of encouragement to attend. New members welcome on a regular or casual basis.

Dear friends,

The New Year isn't quite so new now, but I do want to wish everyone a good 2019. As time passes, what goes through our minds? The comedian David Baddiel tweeted this New Year thought just how much harder is putting on my socks going to get?

Well the passing of time and growing in maturity brings its challenges but it is to be welcomed. In our group of East Trent churches and villages, our hearts have been broken by the loss of young lives and young and old have come together to support each other.

In February, we celebrate the culmination of Christmas when we remember the occasion when Mary and Joseph took the six week old Jesus to the temple, to give thanks to God for him. They were met by Anna and Simeon, who were both well on in years and who rejoiced to see the baby.

This is a beautiful picture of young and old coming together and recognising God's presence and God at work. It didn't mean that everything was going to be easy; Simeon tells Mary that her heart will be broken as he thinks about what will happen to Jesus when he grows into a young man. Letting God in on our lives doesn't make everything cosy and nice, in fact it can bring more challenges, but it does bring purpose, strength and joy. Simeon said now I can die happy, because I've seen the child Jesus and I know that God is keeping his promises.

So as we face this year with all its heartaches, national uncertainty and possibly sock related problems, let's determine to work together, to support each other, to welcome strangers and to let God in.

If you want to read the story of Simeon and Anna, Mary, Joseph and Jesus, it's in the Bible, in Luke's Gospel chapter 2, verses 22 to 40.

If you want to hear more about it and join in the candle lighting service, do come to church on February 3rd.

God bless you all

Rev'd Mandy.

The Resurrection of Harby Christmas Quiz -2018

Rose and Jayne had met up on other business when one said to the other 'I really miss the quiz'. They decided there and then to investigate the possibilities and subsequently the date was set for 8th December. A 'keep the date' was included in the Trio that week and the work began, neither of them had actually been in charge of running a quiz before.

A poster was designed and Jayne put up copies everywhere she could think of. Another advert was placed in the December Trio too.

Rose started gathering questions and put together 100 and then it was suggested that she should have 'rounds' if only to facilitate the marking! We did have a few but the majority were either random or pot luck.

Jayne was also in charge of catering. Ticket sales were slow but steady and because this was a new venture they didn't know what to expect. As the deadline for ordering the pies dawned they had sold 54 tickets. They were disappointed with this but decided to go ahead. As long as they covered the cost of the hall and refreshments they were ok.

However, there was a flurry of very late requests and the number shot up to 78!

This was incredible but quite wearing on the nerves. Jayne was on the phone most mornings of the run-up calming Rose down as she had received yet another request for 6 tickets! Couple this with Rose's bout of amnesia concerning previously ordered tickets and things got very fraught. Jayne was a steady rock through all of this.

On the night, things ran fairly smoothly thanks to the sterling efforts of Caroline and Natalie who took over the raffle and then helped with the serving of the refreshments. Terry also got involved marking all the answer papers and collating the results which are posted below. Congratulations to the winners "The Thunderbirds"

All in all it was a very enjoyable evening and a good time was had by all. The magnificent profit of £400 was shared equally between Jayne and Rose for their charities namely Breast Cancer Care and DIPG, which is researching a rare, inoperable, and incurable virus affecting the brain of small children.

Thank you to everyone who helped by taking part, providing raffle prizes, posters and tickets and tidying up at the end. We enjoyed putting on the quiz and feel there are others out there who could do the same.

THE ALLOTMENTEERS – Carol Dallamore

The weather has not been too severe to date giving the Allotmenters chance to get down to the plot and start preparing the beds for 2019's fruit and vegetables.

Across the world the idea of an allotment has varied over the centuries. In the UK it mainly seems to have taken off after the industrial revolution when there was a migration of the people to cities. Crowded housing, lack of work and no money resulted in many starving. Local councils and churches started to organize land around the towns into plots for people to use grow food. Depending on the size, they would be allowed to keep chickens, goats, pigs even sheep. The produce was banned from being used as a commercial gain but could be swapped with neighbours for variety. A 1732 engraving of Birmingham shows the city surrounded by allotments and apparently some of these still remain in use today.

Our Allotments in Harby were originally charity plots for which we now pay a small rent and do a lot of maintenance around them ourselves. Across the country the rents can be more costly but may include the provision of water, general ground maintenance, security and general rubbish removal.

In Sweden, allotments were first made available in the 1860's. Many are still used as an escape from cramped city housing having a small lodge built on the land as a Summer House. These allow families to enjoy fresh air and relaxation whilst also producing fresh food for the table. Apparently Lenin, in 1917 as he traveled from exile in Switzerland back to Russia met Anna Lindhagen, a social-democrat leader who extolled the virtues of allotments. She took him to visit allotment gardens at Barnagen. Unimpressed he reckoned that to poke around in the soil was to prepare the ground for political laziness in the class struggle and that workers should better devote themselves to the proletarian revolution (Wikipedia).

Well, I can say that after digging over a bed or two one does sit for a while and open the flask of tea but as for political laziness and class struggle? Our discussions mainly concern the weather, carrot fly, alium rust and Cabbage Whites to name a few! So, back to the seed catalogues and search for drought resistant varieties or will that jinx this year's Summer?

Thorney, Harby & Wigsley Voluntary Car Scheme

The Car Scheme continues to remain very busy and since April 2018 we have already completed 184 trips. We have 73 people in the six villages we cover (Thorney, Harby, Wigsley, N & S Clifton and Spalford) who have registered as users of our scheme. We also have 15 volunteer drivers, mainly from Thorney and Harby who have been kind enough to cover all the transport requests I have received. The border of the main area we cover is Lincoln, Newark and up as far as Gainsborough. On the odd occasion we can go further for a one off trip eg Nottingham Hospitals, Grantham but this is dependent on driver availability and their willingness to give up much more of their day. A few drivers have been willing to drive late into the evening and this has proved very popular with people going out to socialise with family or friends. Please note evening/night trips are restricted to within our local area and requests of this sort need to be booked at least a couple of days in advance. A new element to our scheme is that we also have some drivers with updated CRB (police checks) which enable them to drive unaccompanied children (aged 14 yrs+). Any such trip must be pre booked via their parent and arrangements for collection, drop off and payment agreed with me in advance. This service has already proved useful to parents with children of secondary school age who perhaps struggle to find a way to bring your child home if they have been attending an after school activity. Please note children aged 14+ yrs cannot register for the scheme themselves, it must be done through a parent who is already registered. For more information on this or any aspect of our service, please just contact me on our mobile phone: 07717-17-88-00 or email:thwvcs@gmail.com. If you haven't already registered (free of charge) for our scheme please go to our website at: thwvcs.co.uk or just phone me. I would also be really pleased to hear from anyone who would be interested in becoming a volunteer driver, even on a very occasional basis. We are coping with the increased demand for trips but having some more volunteers would be a real help. We will be holding our TH&W Annual meeting in Harby Village Hall on Monday, April 1st at 7pm. (The date is genuine and not an April Fools Day joke!) All are welcome to attend even if you are just interested to find out more about the scheme or how to become a volunteer driver. We will be offering free refreshments and a finger buffet after the meeting (which will not take long) to give people a chance to socialise together and meet our volunteer drivers. I hope to see lots of you there.

Harby Parish Council Update

Clerk

Christmas is now over for another year and the party season is just a distant memory.

The Parish Council are planning the changes that Parish Council elections in May 2019 may bring. I will continue talking about the elections, as being on the Parish Council is a great way of representing your community and understanding how both local government and national government works. Are you interested in getting more involved in your community? Why not come along to the next Parish Council meeting and see what may be involved?

Annual Walk About

You may have seen the Parish Councillors and the Clerk walking around the village on a Hot/cold/wet/dry/foggy/sunny Sunday morning in November. We find this a very useful opportunity to look at the condition of the assets (bins/noticeboards etc) that the Parish Council are responsible for, but also to look at the condition of the Roads/Footways, grassed areas and highway drainage that others are responsible for. All work identified has been reported to the relevant authority. With the current financial constraints, it is unclear when the works identified may be carried out, but we will continue to monitor the situation and raise with our County/District Councillor as may be necessary. Please don't forget that if you spot anything you can report this yourself at either <https://forms.nottinghamshire.gov.uk/MyServices> or <https://www.newark-sherwooddc.gov.uk/> - alternatively just let one of the Parish Councillors or the Clerk know and we will report it for you.

Grass Cutting

The tender for the new contract has been accepted from Continental Landscapes again as this offered us the lowest price. We have entered into a 3 year contract so that the Parish Council can be certain of the costs for this period. We hope that Continental Landscapes will continue to work with the Parish Council and provide the best service possible to you, the residents. We have also asked them to undertake some maintenance work to the unofficial bus stop on Wigsley Road, so that they can maintain the grass and the brambles better in the future.

Parish Precept

The Parish Council have reviewed their budget for the year 2019/20 and have advised Newark & Sherwood District Council of this figure. Whilst careful consideration has been given to not increasing this figure more than absolutely necessary the new grass cutting contract has resulted in an increase of 12.5% on the amount requested for the precept. Before you go throwing your arms up in despair, that this is a huge increase and much higher than inflation, this amounts to less than £4.00 per year for a property in Band D, which is less than 8 pence per week. Unfortunately, as the existing precept is very low, even a small monetary increase sounds like a huge percentage – when your Council Tax bill arrives from N&SDC this will only show the percentages which is why the Parish Council think it is important that you know what this actually means in monetary amounts.

The next Ordinary Meeting is at 7:30pm, Thursday 21st February in the Village Hall Committee Room. Please see the notice board or the website nearer the time for the full agenda & previous minutes. Look forward to seeing you there.

FIRE SAFETY IN THE HOME – Steve Hogg

I am sure we have all heard of the tragic events in Collingham just before Christmas when a fire ripped through a house in the early hours of the morning and killed Justine Collison, 33 and her two children Isabella, eight, and Harvey, five. The investigation into what happened that night is ongoing but I would like to take this opportunity to give some advice that will reduce the chance of something similar happening to your family.

Smoke Alarms

Did you know that you are twice as likely to die in a fire if you don't have working smoke alarms?

Smoke alarms are there for the safety of yourself and your loved ones, and by making sure that you have them fitted and working, you are giving yourself more time to escape should there be a fire in your home.

Top smoke alarm safety tips:

- Test smoke alarms at least once a month.
- Make sure that there is a working smoke alarm on every level of your home.
- Never ignore a beeping smoke alarm.

How to take care of your smoke alarms:

You want your smoke alarms to take good care of you in the event of a fire, right? Well, the arrangement works both ways. Smoke alarm maintenance is key, and you should never ignore a beeping smoke alarm. If you find yourself in a situation where your alarm is beeping intermittently, so not in a continuous and steady way, this may mean that your alarm needs a new lease of life. It's best to check what kind of smoke alarms you have installed in your home, because while some may simply require just a change of battery, if you have a 10-year alarm, you will need to replace the whole alarm every 10 years.

As a minimum, we recommend that you have one smoke alarm on each level of your home. They are best placed in hallways and landing areas instead of in kitchens and bathrooms.

The fitting of smoke alarms is the number one way of early detection of fire to reduce the risk to you and your family; however there are many other elements involved in fire safety

Shutting doors

Shutting kitchen and living area doors before bedtime greatly reduces the spread of fire to the rest of the building, and more importantly initially the spread of smoke which is what is likely to kill you in a house fire.

Tumble dryers

If you use your tumble dryer overnight, or know somebody who does – take note now. A build-up of fluff in tumble dryer filters has been known to contribute to fires involving these appliances, and for this reason, it is a good idea not to leave washing drying while you are sleeping or out of the house, as you will have less chance of catching the fire early and calling 999.

For this reason, we would always recommend that you clean tumble dryer filters regularly.

Fire Plan

It is a good idea to have a plan of action in case of fire. Children should be involved in this so they recognise the danger of a fire alarm sounding and what actions they should take if a fire occurs.

Nottingham Fire and Rescue have full details of home fire safety checks on their website on their 'safety in the home' page or they have a Freephone number if people want further advice on 0800 022 3235.

As an alternative if you want to contact me or stop me on the street for a chat please do as I have a lot of experience in these issues and will be able to offer advice.

House fires are extremely rare so people should not be too worried but it is important that you are all aware of what to do to help protect your home and family.
