

Ashendon Book Club
Sue Lewin

We are a very relaxed group and always welcome new readers from Ashendon and surrounding villages.

We meet at the pub (or at a members home occasionally) and every meeting has around 8-10 members coming along for a chat, others simply enjoy discussing the current read more casually or online.

Our blog <http://ashendonbookgroup.blogspot.co.uk/> has wide readership and gets good feedback.

A list of books read were itemised.

The next meeting is on 25th May and people are invited to attend.
