The road has been closed at the bottom of Edingley Hill, apparently for emergency repairs. A diversion sign is at the bottom of Halam Hill, so anyone beyond this does not know. It has now been reported that a sign is at the top of Edingley Hill

Parish Footpaths and rights of way

Edingley PC have been informed that someone is asking for a footpath to be reopened behind the hedge from Halam to Edingley. This appears to date back to 1779 open field system, but does not show up on any newer maps. Wait for further information

Cultersforth to Machin's footpath, most of the stiles have been replaced or repaired, ongoing work
