

Little Milton Parish Council

The Parish Council are deeply saddened to hear the news of the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. For those in the parish who wish to pay their respect, the church in Little Milton is open and is co-ordinating a Book of Condolence for those who wish to make an entry. An online book of condolence is also available on the Royal Family's site at <https://www.royal.uk/>.

Civic meetings, including Parish Council meetings, will be postponed until after the State funeral. The postponed date for the September Little Milton Parish Council meeting will be published in due course.
