DEAR READERS ...

It's been strange working on our Autumn magazine with such beautiful Summer weather and before our holidays! We really hope you enjoy this edition.

Katrina and Karen

FROM OUR MINISTERIAL TEAM ...

Dear Friends,

This edition of our Benefice magazine always covers a huge amount. The run from September to November seems to be busy and full of various foci. We start with the beginning of the new academic term, celebrate Harvest around our communities, and move into a time of Remembering as we meet with All Souls Day and Remembrance Sunday. It can seem like a long term, as the nights draw in and we get closer to the festivities that lie ahead.

One of the things that I notice most about this season and the events that we mark is a strong sense of God's presence with us as we journey through life. God is there in our new starts, God is around us in creation, God is with us in tough times and as we remember his eternity in heaven. In September, we are going to be joining with other churches around the country in a prayer weekend, and we would love to pray for the things on your mind. During September, there will be prayer requests sheets around our churches – if you would like us to pray for God's help for you in any situation, do let us know.

We keep all our communities in our church prayers.

With love and prayers,

Katrina, Sue and Jean

As part of our COMMUNITY MINISTRY we have shared in these special services ...

PRAYER written by Temple Guiting School children for the Leavers Service

Loving Father, We praise you for all that it has meant to us to be part of your family, here at Temple Guiting Primary School. We give thanks for our friends, our teachers and all that we have done together. As we Year 6 children prepare to start a new stage in our life's journey, we pray that we will settle happily into our new schools, make new friends and learn new things from new teachers. Above all we ask that we will remember that we are all still a precious part of your family, loved by you, wherever we go and whatever we do. Amen

NEWS FROM THE WIDER CHURCH ...

Congratulations to Archdeacon Jackie

It was announced in early July that Jackie Searle has been appointed as the next Bishop of Crediton in the Exeter Diocese. Jackie has been the Archdeacon of Gloucester (and part of the leadership team of our Diocese) since 2012 and said this about her time here: “My six years in the Diocese of Gloucester have been significant – and to the people of the diocese and particularly Gloucester Archdeaconry I want to say thank you for all we have shared in the service of Christ. It has been a pleasure to serve the communities of this diverse Archdeaconry and I will leave with gratitude for the immense love, faithfulness and commitment that I have encountered time and again in our churches, schools, chaplaincies and communities. I will miss great colleagues here, a superb diocesan and cathedral team, and the many leaders, lay and ordained, with whom I have worked.”

Bishop Rachel encourages us all to "say one thing"

In July, the Bishop of Gloucester launched a social media campaign encouraging people to share one thing that they value in others, which is not about physical appearance.

#say1thing is part of the wider #liedentity campaign, which raises awareness of body image anxiety in young people and the pressures they face through social media to look a certain way.

Bishop Rachel is sharing with young people the message that who you are, is more than how you look. She said, “It’s been amazing spending time with young people in schools as part of the #liedentity campaign. When they each tell me what they value most about someone they love or aspire to be like, it’s never about appearance.

“Yet what happens on social media is completely different. Young people face a barrage of insults about what they look like and they face huge anxiety about the pictures they post, hoping for likes and then often having to deal with terrible insults. We are living in a society where our value is being determined by what we look like, rather than who we are from the inside out.”

We are encouraging all people on social media to change this message by posting a picture of their friends or family and sharing one thing they value about that person with the hashtag #say1thing.

HARVEST CELEBRATION WEEKEND

Bishop Robert, the Bishop of Tewkesbury, will be spending a weekend with us in October, and we are planning a series of fun events around the area. Look out for more details along the lines of:

Saturday 6th October – Church Day Out on the Farm with games, crafts, refreshments and a celebration service.

Sunday 7th October at 11am – Communion with the Bishop at Upper Slaughter Church

Sunday 7th October – Afternoon Tea

Katrina Scott

BIRD'S EYE VIEW ...

If, like me, you are beginning to feel your age and everything seems to take a great deal longer to do, then welcome to the club! The important thing is we are not alone; the sad thing is that we can begin to feel of no use any more. I've been thinking about this very seriously recently and I have come to the conclusion that this isn't true.

In Psalm 139, (well worth sitting down to read and meditate upon), the psalmist writes of his uniqueness in God's eyes and Selwyn Hughes writes this – “this psalm emphasises the fact that every single person born into the universe is unique. You don't have to try to be somebody you are somebody – with a particular life message that no other person in the universe can quite duplicate”.

I thought long and hard about this and realised that God was saying to me, "OK you can no longer run around and do all the things you used to do but God wants to show you that you can do other things".

It is interesting that at this time my morning Bible readings had been about service – how could I still be of service to others? Then I thought, if I can no longer go to people why not invite them to come to me or give me a call! I am available now more than I have been for a long time, could I help people by being a good listener?

In recent months I lost my sister – the last of my near family – and had to make decisions that I found very difficult, things that hurt and made me feel guilty and I needed someone to share this with and pray about with. At a Christian retreat I found this help and it brought me such peace and as my Bible reading said yesterday, "for you have set my heart free". (Psalm 119 verse 32).

God showed me that this was something I could do. I pray that in the future my work for Him might be along these lines.

So, if you need to talk to someone or pray with someone give me a ring, come and have a cup of tea and talk.

This, I believe, is the new ministry that God is leading me to.

Jean Bird (tel: 01451 605086)

NEWS FROM THE PEWS ...

Upper Slaughter

The fund raising weekend earlier in the year raised over £400 which helps with the cost of producing this magazine - thank you to those who were able to help with this.

On a lovely sunny day in July our fete was well supported by many villagers and visitors alike. A big thank you must go to James who was head of operations this year and pulled us all together, also thank you to all those who ran a stall on a hot sunny day.

As harvest time approaches please look out for details of service times and lunch.

Liz Gibson

Cutsdean

It is very sad to report that Linda Wright passed away aged 60 in April after a battle with cancer. Linda was born in Cutsdean and lived here until five years ago when she moved to Moreton in Marsh. A member of the Wright family which has farmed in the village for well over a century, Linda spent much of her working life at the paper mill in Winchcombe and the Fire College in Moreton in Marsh. Our thoughts are with her partner, Brian and cousins David, Janet and Sally.

To happier matters, St. James has held two weddings in recent months, firstly in May when Iris and Mark celebrated their marriage with a small family gathering, and at the end of July when Hannah and Tom from London held their celebration in our Church.

The next planned event in the calendar is the Harvest Festival on Sunday 30th September with the usual cleaning and decorating session the day before on the Saturday.

Mark Evans

Lower Slaughter

As I write this, the Summer is beginning to give way to Autumn, our fields all turning golden, and producing crops in our fields, allotments and orchards – what a blessing from the Lord.

What a Summer it has been; wonderful weather, which has lifted all our spirits, wonderful sport – I am sure many of us have enjoyed the football. Our thoughts in Church now turn to our Harvest Festival, this year on Sunday 21 October at 11.00am when our Church will be wonderfully decorated and we sing our glorious harvest hymns – please do join us. At this service we will collect non-perishable foods for our Food Bank.

On Saturday 24 November we are holding a Film Evening with Fish & Chips Supper. The film “Grease” was 40 this year so let’s all come and enjoy good food, a good film and relive the memories of our youth! Tickets will be on sale in October (adults £12.00, children £6.00) from myself (tel 01451 81294). As the new School year is about to begin we wish all of our young people success, and success also to all those entering the working world.

May everyone enjoy the fruits and mellow days of Autumn.

Guiting Power

The gardens at The Grange were opened by kind permission of Mr and Mrs Dawson for our Open Gardens and it was a lovely day. Our Village Fete was also a great success.

The Cheery Club enjoyed a lovely tea at the home of Ann and Chris Miles.

We are sorry to have lost Freda and Mrs Bartlett. Mrs Bartlett drove from Cheltenham for our early morning services for several years. It is sad that after a long, hard winter they have not been able to enjoy the lovely summer sunshine.

Dorothy Watson

Temple Guiting

What a wonderful Summer we are having, though I must say my brown lawn isn't very attractive!

The Safari Supper was a lovely occasion both socially and financially – we raised over £1,100. Many people put in so much work for it, especially the hosts.

Now we look forward to Autumn. Our Harvest Festival Service followed by Supper is on 29 September when a donation will be given for the charity "There but not there". And then the extremely popular Village Quiz is on 13 October. Book your tickets early for both of these events.

Audrey Mather

Naunton

Once again Summer in Naunton meant another well-attended Spirit of Naunton service in The Black Horse. Since then there has been Nauntonbury (a very successful mini-festival of live music and street food), cricket and boules matches on and near the Recreation Ground and, in the church, there have been more excellent Naunton Music concerts (what a coup to have Sheku Kanneh-Mason within weeks of his having played at the Royal Wedding) and each month (except August) there has been the cinema. The usual Wednesday and Sunday services, Mustard Seeds (on Wednesdays for mothers with babies and toddlers) and the Thursday coffee shop have also continued in the church. The closure of the Village Hall for renovation has limited other village events although by the time you read this it will have re-opened.

At the time of writing, Naunton was looking forward to a Dovecote Day to be held on 18th August, Harvest Festival on 16th September (which again was to be followed by a simple lunch in the church since this had been so well received last year) and the final Naunton Music concert on 28th September to be given by Stile Antico. Plans were also in hand for another talk by Dr Paul Roberts (date to be announced).

As always details of the various events can usually be obtained from Barbara or Bob Steiner on 01451 850897.

Whole School Trip to Bristol Zoo

Last week the whole school went to Bristol Zoo. The first thing that we did was listen to a talk about fruit bats. Did you know that bats actually have very good eye sight? We saw lions, giant tortoises and went into the reptile house. We were lucky enough to see the gorillas at feeding time. One of the gorillas had a baby on its back and it was very cute! We watched the penguins waddling and the seals gliding through the water. It was a great day and we are thankful to Mr Collins who enabled us to go on the school trip. It was a lovely end to the school year.

Jasmine Branch, Pupil at Temple Guiting School

Temple Guiting Church of England School

What a wonderful end to our school year - glorious sunshine and so many things happening.

We were so proud of our amazing Exam results this year:

Year 6 SAT's 94% of our children achieved the expected level in Maths, Writing and reading – a fantastic result that is well above National expectations.

Year 2 SAT's 75% of our children achieved the expected level in Maths, Writing and reading – a good result that is above National expectations.

EYFS 100% of our children achieved Good Levels of Development or greater, a wonderful result!

Sports day

On a very hot and sunny afternoon we ran a packed programme of 72 races in under 2 hours. Great fun was had by all and we watched some very competitive racing across the ages.

School Play –Robin Hood

“An absolute triumph, I felt like I was at the Theatre” said a parent of one of the children involved. A production that was all singing, dancing and super fight scenes. The costumes were so good and the singing even included four different parts in one song. It was a wonderful production and enjoyed by all who came to see it.

A busy but rewarding year for all our school. We look forward to a good rest over the summer holidays and then be fresh and ready to start again in September.

Class 4's recipe for a FRIENDSHIP CAKE ...

A pinch of trust to keep each others secrets
 A teaspoon of happiness so that you're never feeling down.
 Two drops of empathy when times are hard
 One hundred grams of sugar to make sure you're sweet
 A squeeze of fun for all your friends
 A cup of craziness so you're always entertained
 A dash of helpfulness for when you're stuck
 A tablespoon of perseverance for when you need it most
 A ladle of bossiness to keep you straight
 Make sure you boil 20 grams of mischief before adding it in.
 500ml of honesty so you don't feel guilty
 A dusting of responsibility for when you've been trusted
 200g of courage to keep you going
 To finish it off a red respectful cherry.

And that's how you make a friendship cake!

E-Prayers

When people face troubles for themselves, their family or friends, many - churchgoers or not - turn to prayer. There is so much evidence of its power to bring healing and wholeness, although not necessarily a cure, and also of its effectiveness when more people are praying.

From the beginnings of the Christian faith there have been groups that pray for those who ask for this to be done and for other areas of suffering or need.

In these days of pressures on time it is hard to get groups together and a modern alternative is spreading all over the Christian world. It is E-prayers, whereby individuals of faith offer to pray in their own homes for those who ask for it. We are gathering a small group together to do just this.

We are setting up a confidential email system amongst those willing to pray so if you would like prayer for yourself or anyone else email Jean Bird (jaybeepip@aol.com) with a brief indication of who or what you would like to be prayed for. Feedback about any outcomes would be much welcomed. There are also prayer request books/boards in each of our churches.

If you would like to be one of those who pray, please email Jean (address above).

Naunton Village Hall

Naunton Village Hall reopened for business at the end of July following a £250,000 refit that took six months to complete. Originally built in 1937, the hall had served the community well over eight decades but was in need of complete modernisation.

With monies raised over the years from local events such as classic car rallies and food markets together with personal donations, the support of the Parish Council in raising a precept plus grants from Cotswold District Council, Tesco's, the Notgrove Trust, Somerfield Trust and the Garfield Weston Foundation, the Trustees were able to undertake a total renovation of the hall.

Although it retains, virtually, its original foot print the kitchen has been enlarged and completely re-fitted with a range cooker, industrial dishwasher and fridge; there is also the addition of a small meeting room. Insulation throughout, plus a blend of under floor and radiator gas-powered central heating ensures warmth even on the coldest days. There is new flooring throughout the hall and lounge whilst the toilets have been upgraded and modernised. The building has been redecorated throughout and the external walls rendered and painted.

Bookings can be made by contacting Pat Boulton on 01451-850586 or via the website: www.nauntonvillagehall.org.uk

There But Not There (Image reproduced with kind permission of There but Not There)

To commemorate the Centenary of the signing of the Armistice on 11th November 1918 and end of World War One in the UK, the There but Not There project aims to Commemorate the fallen; Educate all generations and to help Heal those who are suffering from injury and the hidden wounds of conflicts by raising funds for the beneficiary charities of Help for Heroes, Project Equinox, Walking with the Wounded, Combat Stress, Royal Foundation and the Commonwealth War Graves Foundation. For more information about the nationwide “There But Not There” project please visit their website at <https://www.therebutnotthere.org.uk> .

On a balmy evening in early July the Temple Guiting There but Not There fund raising campaign in conjunction with the Upper Windrush Local History Society (UWLHS), got under way with a Quiz at the Half Way House. More than 60 people attended the event with prizes on offer from the Half Way House, the Plough at Ford and from Donnington Brewery. Over £1,000.00 has now been raised thus far so well on its way to the target of £1,500.00 with further fundraising events planned between now and November. Donations can still be made via the JustGiving page which can be found at <https://www.justgiving.com/crowdfunding/gerald-omahoney>.

Local events to commemorate the Centenary include a World War 1 Exhibition organised by the UWLHS on 10th and 11th November 2018. For further details visit <http://www.upperwindrushlhs.org.uk> .

There will be a joint Act of Remembrance for the Parishes of Temple Guiting, Guiting Power, Farmcote and Cutsdean at 10.15am in Guiting Power on Sunday 11 November 2018.
