NOTE OF MEETING ON MONDAY 5th December 2022

Attendees: [REDACTED]

Apologies for absence: [REDACTED]

Note of meeting on 31st October 2022: These were agreed without amendment.

Policy Document: The policy document was discussed.

Louise asked if me had enough provision for social housing in the document.

This is a question for the consultation

What is a successful model for social housing – It was agreed that Springfield had been successful.

A question was asked about the historic environment and the context in the document was the listed Parkland at Awbridge Danes

It was agreed that development was to be primarily linear to reflect the current character of the village

Action: The Policy document was accepted as a good basis for the consultation

Communications with Awbridge School re travel plan: In response to an email from Jo Lees, Awbridge School had indicated that they have started to look at a travel plan for the school but are still working on it. They had undertaken to share further information when available.

Action: Carry forward to next agenda
