News from St. Nicholas Church

Morning Prayers will be at St. Nicholas Church at 9.30am on Tuesday 5th and 19th this month and at All Saints, Ulcombe, at 9.30am on Tuesday 12th and 26th. Prayer requests can be left at any time in the box in the church porch. The porch is always open.

Coffee and cakes (and cheese scones!) will be ready and waiting for all from 10.30 to 12 noon on Wednesday 13th April in the Village Hall in Grafty Green.

Bible Study will begin again at Wierton Villa on Thursdays 10.30am- 12noon during the month. For further details phone Joan Drury on 01622 853766. Details will also be on the Pew sheets.

Lent lunches were popular again this year and more than £200 will be sent to Christian Aid to help in providing support to so many needy people of all faiths and denominations worldwide.

We so enjoyed having Margaret Neaves as part of the Cream Tea team last summer and we send our love and prayers to her family as they mourn her loss, as we all do. A large congregation, spilling out of the church, celebrated her life among us.

Joan Davidson has been in hospital again and we all wish her a speedy recovery.

Village Hall News

www.graftygreenvillagehall.co.uk

Do come along to the Hall on Saturday 30th April when John Collins (unofficial recorder and archivist of village events for decades) will be presenting an evening of photographs old and new. These will include images not only of 'happenings' within the village over the years but also of the local area, showing how it has changed – or not.

If you're a long-term Grafty Greener you may well see yourself on the screen and if you're a relative newcomer it's a great chance to learn a bit about the village and its recent past.

Hot & cold drinks, cakes, biscuits and nibbles will be available in the interval and there will be plenty of opportunity to chat. If you're in contact with former villagers who have moved away, do get in touch with them and invite them back for what should be a great evening of reminiscing.

No charge is being made for this evening and no pre-booking is required -although it would be helpful to gauge numbers if you could let me know you're coming in a quick email to my address below. Seats will be reserved for those who notify me in advance. For others, seats will be available on a first-come first-served basis, and numbers will be limited.

I'll see you there.

Grafty Gourmet

This lamb shank recipe is rich and comforting with its warming spices and thick tomato sauce. It can also be frozen.

Curried Lamb Shanks

200g full-fat natural yogurt
50g ground almonds
1 tsp smoked paprika
4 lamb shanks
3-4 tbsp olive oil
1 large onion, chopped
2 large garlic cloves, chopped

Thumb-size piece of fresh ginger, chopped
3 tbsp curry paste
2 x tins of chopped tomatoes
750ml fresh lamb or chicken stock
Fresh coriander, leaves roughly chopped

1. Mix the yogurt, ground almonds and paprika in a large bowl. Add the lamb shanks and stir to coat. Cover with cling film, then marinate in the fridge for 2 hours or overnight.
2. Preheat the oven to 160°C/ fan140°C. On the hob, Heat 2 tbsp oil in a large flameproof casserole dish, season the marinated lamb shanks, then brown all over, in batches, over a medium-high heat, adding more oil if necessary. Remove and set aside. Wipe out the pan.
3. Place the onion, garlic and ginger in a food processor and turn to a paste. Add 1 tbsp oil to the casserole dish, stir through the onion paste and cook over a low heat for 5 minutes. Stir through the curry paste, increase the heat and cook, stirring, for a couple of minutes.
4. Pour over the tinned tomatoes, return the lamb shanks to the casserole dish and pour over the stock. Bring to the boil, cover with a lid. Then cook in the oven for 2 hours, turning the shanks occasionally if they are not completely covered by the sauce. The meat should be really tender and falling off the bone.
5. Carefully remove the lamb shanks to a bowl and cover with foil to keep warm. Place the casserole dish back on the hob and simmer the sauce for 15 minutes or until thickened. Serve each shank in a bowl with spoonfuls of creamy mashed potato. Spoon over some sauce and sprinkle over the coriander to garnish.

End of Windows 7 – The Facts

Recently people have been asking what they need to do if they still have Windows 7, so here are some facts to help.

In January 2015 Microsoft announced that are exiting "Mainstream support" for Windows 7. However you will still receive critical security updates during "Extended support".

What is the difference between mainstream support and extended support?

Mainstream support is for a minimum of 5 years from the date of a product's general availability. EG, if you buy a new version of Windows and five years later another version is released, you will still have two years of support left for the previous version.

Extended support is for a minimum of 5 years from the date of a product's general availability, which lasts until January 14, 2020.

What does this mean if you are still using Windows 7?

- If you are happy with your computer and it is running as expected, you don't need to do anything.
- If you buy new hardware, a printer or camera, you may need to install a driver from the internet or a supplied disk.
- If you buy a new application it may not be compatible.

If any of the above affects you, you may need to consider upgrading to the latest version of windows, currently Windows 10, which has good feedback to date.

April Music notes

- Saturday 23rd April, 7.30pm at Rochester Cathedral, Gravesham Choral Society and Orchestra perform Elgar's Dream of Gerontius. Tickets 01474 816684. (It's also on at the Barbican in London, 7.00pm on 24th, with the London Symphony Chorus, but why travel to town when you have it here?)
- Also on 23rd April, 7.30pm, but at All Saints' church, Maidstone, Maidstone Wind Symphony's concert has a range of works including Harrison's Dream by Peter Graham, featuring Steven Mead on the euphonium. For further enquiries please contact 01732 366500 or boxoffice@maidstonewindsymphony.org

MBC – no report

KCC: HGV road signs: as soon as you get the go-ahead from the other parishes, please let me know as I will need to submit an application to KCC.

I have responded to the consultation on the MBC Local Plan and will send to you under separate cover.

I wanted to give you early notice too that I will not be standing for re-election at the KCC elections in May 2017. I have really enjoyed working with my parish councils, particularly Boughton Malherbe, who have shown me such kindness and cooperation. In return, I promise that I will get the HGV signage installed before I stand down - just let me know if all parishes are not on board and I will call a meeting.

I'm currently chairing a select committee on grammar schools and social mobility which will receive a lot of attention over the coming months. It has taken up a lot of my time but hopefully will help more children from poorer backgrounds to attend grammar schools.

7. Local Policing/Community

7.1 Police Report

Grafty Green Crime Figures 01 March 2016 – 22 March 2016 . There was one crime to report for this period: 13 March - Burglary on Church Rd

Including the above there were 4 calls to the police involving a loose dog and a house alarm going off, this was investigated but nothing suspect found.

PCSO John Boyd

7.2 Community Warden Report

I will be unable to make it over to the meeting on Wednesday as I am again on early shifts to cover my Supervisor's absence whilst she is on training.

As you may or may not have been aware, it has been a very busy couple of months for me as I have had to 'step up' for a majority of this whilst my supervisor was off with illness and had to manage my twelve colleagues who cover Maidstone and Tonbridge. It has not been ideal for Headcorn or Grafty Green during this period and I apologise that I don't have much to report during this time frame. One positive is that I will be meeting with Chris Wheal later in the week to discuss NHS Health Walk's that may benefit Headcorn and Grafty residents in a social and healthy way. Both Chris and I will be down as walk leaders – although Chris may well be doing this on a more regular basis than me due to my scheduled operational needs.

I am hoping that my 'dual role' will soon simplify itself a bit and can get back into a normal Warden role now that my supervisor is back!

If there is anything you need in the interim then please do not hesitate to get in contact with me – I am around and about and have been linking up with PCSO Boyd quite a bit on a few matters.

Stuart Ellesmere.

'Smokey Paws' are oxygen masks for pets kept on fire engines. 75 kits are needed to cover the whole of Kent, and there are 29 to date with more in the pipeline. All have/are being acquired by sponsorship.

7.4 Speedwatch – now days are getting longer the crew will be operating again shortly.

The Lenham Swimming Club

I am sure that the last thing you are likely to be contemplating at this time of year is swimming in an outdoor pool but, at Lenham Swimming Club, we are already turning our thoughts to the pool in order to prepare for opening again this summer.

Some of the volunteers who joined us in us in 2014 & 2015 have committed to helping at the pool again this year. However, we have inevitably lost some of our 'crew' as circumstances and commitments change. The pool cannot open without help and many of our volunteers do far more than they signed up for.

Are you able to help us continue to provide this community facility? We are hoping to encourage some more volunteers. Would you be willing and able to undertake the Royal Life Saving Society Emergency Response qualification and commit to a voluntary session one evening or a Saturday/Sunday per week during June, July and August? Volunteers must be at least 16 years of age but there is no upper age limit. The qualification is a two-day course which will be held at the pool once it is ready for use (likely to be mid to late May). This would be fully funded. There may be the opportunity to undertake the full pool lifeguard qualification (6 day course). This could potentially create an ideal career opportunity. NPLQ courses take place at a local Leisure Centre during May, June and July 2016. We also need helpers for the front desk to take payments for swims and run the tuck shop.

If you would be interested in finding out more about how you can help please contact me on 01622 859174 / 07981125593 or email me on chills99@btinternet.com for more information. Thank you.

As I was wondering what to write for April, I looked at my diary and found no less than three Annual Meetings listed in one week in the middle of the month! Now, AGMs are not the most popular of events and some people do their best to avoid them. But if you think about it, they are a valuable part of our culture. They make us stop and evaluate what has been going on and what to do in the future. They are also a great safeguard for the finances of an organisation. That is why AGMs are often held in April – the beginning of the new financial year. And this makes me think about Lent and the Church year.

We are all very conscious of the seasons, special events and celebrations. As I write I suspect we are all looking forward to Spring after a rather wet and dreary Winter – though one must admit that the seasons have been a bit awry this year with daffodils in bloom since January!

The Christian church has its special seasons called the Liturgical Year, and I thought it might be of interest to remind ourselves what is celebrated throughout the year. In March we remember the Annunciation when Mary was told by an angel that the Holy Spirit would come upon her and the power of God would overshadow her and she would conceive a child who would be called the Son of God,

Advent comes in late November or early December. It is a time of preparation and anticipation of the birth of Christ.

Christmas is celebrated on the 25th of December by everyone, believers and non-believers alike, though these days it has become for many a secular rather than a Christian festival. It is the time when Christians rejoice in the birth of Christ in a humble stable, celebrated by the shepherds and the angels and all mankind.

Epiphany follows, marking the visit of the wise men from the east who came to worship the new born Christ.

Then comes a quiet period called Ordinary time which lasts until Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent.

Lent is a time of reflection (not unlike our Annual Meetings) and a time of penitence. Many people associate Lent with giving up something like chocolates or alcohol. But it is much more because for six weeks it provides an opportunity to reflect on our Christian lives and what is more, to think in what ways we can demonstrate our Christian faith through service to our fellow men.

After six weeks, comes the excitement of Palm Sunday when we remember Jesus riding into Jerusalem on a humble donkey and being hailed by the crowds with palms in their hands, shouting 'Hosanna. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, Blessed is the King of Israel.'

This did not please the Jewish leaders nor the Roman Governor, Pilate, who saw Jesus as a threat. Just one week later he was arrested, tried, flogged, betrayed by the crowds who had hailed him the week before, found guilty, and condemned to death by crucifixion.

I have often wondered what the next three days would have been like for his disciples and all those who had been with him over the months before. They had had great expectations, but with Jesus crucified (a horrific way to die), they must have felt absolutely desolated, with all their hopes shattered.

But then comes Easter with the glorious news of Christ's resurrection, and his promise of love and forgiveness to all who believe in him.

How difficult it must have been for his followers to comprehend that Jesus had risen from the dead. But he appeared to many of them in bodily form. He met Mary Magdalene in the Garden when she was on her way to his tomb to minister to his body. He appeared several times to the disciples when they were gathered together. He showed them the wounds in his hands and side, asked for food to eat, and on one occasion invited Thomas to touch his wounds. Then he walked along beside two of his followers on their way to Emmaus, and later was with Peter by the Sea of Galilee. There were many other occasions when Jesus appeared to them.

He spent forty days with his followers and just before he left, he instructed them to 'go to all nations and make them my disciples and baptise them in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit', but he told them they must wait in the city until they were armed with power from above.

The waiting time cannot have been easy. His followers were afraid of what the Pharisees might do to them and they had to wait several weeks before they received the power from above that Jesus had promised.

Pentecost (formerly called Whitsun) was the day the Holy Spirit descended on them with a sound like a rushing wind, and flames like tongues of fire. Luke describes what happened in the Acts of the Apostles. Hearing the noise and seeing the flames, crowds from all nations gathered round the disciples and they all heard in their own language the disciples proclaiming the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ. Everyone was amazed and on that day, three thousand people became believers.

This year we will be celebrating Pentecost (Whitsun) on Sunday the 15th of May.

Pentecost marks the beginning of a rapidly growing Christian community, the church, with the promise to everyone 'That God so loved the world that He gave his only Son, that everyone who has faith in him may not perish but have eternal life. It was not to judge the world that God sent his Son into the world but that through him the world might be saved.'

Funeral Services

A lot of effort goes into planning wedding services and the date (of course) is known. It's true that not everyone gets married but everyone dies. The date is not known.

The bridal couple choose the hymns and songs which are important to them. Sadly some funeral services do not include the preferences of the loved one who has died. This is not necessarily due to lack of care by families but an inevitable part of modern life where mourners of the deceased live some distance away and may be unaware of preferences. A recent funeral service in one of the Len Valley churches was arranged, prior to her own death, by a church member. As a result the service was particularly appropriate.

The Church of England has made available a booklet, 'Ideas for my funeral service.' If you would like a copy please ask Millie Hart, Joan Drury, Pamela Cuerden or me and we will give one to you. This booklet can be used by members of all denominations and can be lodged with a Funeral Director or with a family member.

You may also like to know that Church of England clergy and Readers are allowed to conduct services for burials in woodland sites.
