

THE CALL OF THE CURLEW

Ninebanks Hall

Wednesday 7th October

Bar from 7pm. Talk starts at 7.30pm

Donations to Ninebanks Hall roof fund. All welcome

The North Pennines is one of the last breeding strongholds of the Eurasian Curlew. At this evening event Janet Fairclough (RSPB) and Malcom Green will evoke the curlew through both science and culture. Exploring it's natural history and conservation with stories of both fact and fiction about this extraordinary bird.
