

COUGHTON WITH SAMBOURNE CEMETERY TIDY WEEKEND. 11th & 12th April 2026 10am to 2pm

Grave News – The Cemetery Needs You...

Hello, you lovely humans (and any friendly ghouls),

(Because ghosts, sadly, refuse to mow the lawn)

The jungle formerly known as Coughton & Sambourne Cemetery is attempting a takeover, and we need brave volunteers to help restore order before the bushes become sentient.

What evil we're fighting:

- Trimming bushes (they've grown ideas above their station)
- Sweeping leaves (they multiply when you're not looking)
- Cutting grass (currently winning the battle)
- General sprucing (even zombies like neat pathways)

Weapons supplied:

- Tools galore (no pitchforks... probably)
- Endless tea & coffee

Biscuits — the true reason we're all coming (Generously provided by the legendary Gail Laband)

What we ask of you:

- Turn up with arms and legs (preferably attached)
- Stay for an hour... or longer if you're enjoying yourself

Leave smug, slightly muddy, and full of biscuits

No experience needed — just enthusiasm and a willingness to laugh at the grass while cutting it.

Join us!

Let's transform Sambourne & Coughton Cemetery from haunted forest vibes to peaceful resting place with controlled shrubbery.

See you there (alive, ideally)
