Please add any comments to explain below, particularly if you have selected poor or very poor.

Quatt Malvern Parish Council has been trying to obtain advice from Shropshire Council over a number of highway issues, in particular, a pedestrian crossing over the A442 in Quatt Village.

A highways engineer did visit and said that it would be possible to provide one and the Parish Council confirmed that they would be able to help with funding.

However, we have not been able to get any further progress with designing a scheme or getting a costing from the Highways department.
