P. Steggles

Dear Friends,

School's out - and has been for a couple of weeks now!

Although this year the children have had a very disrupted time, with school effectively being 'out' for the last few months and only back 'in' the last two weeks.

Of course, this year, it also seems likely that more people will be 'stay-cationing' than will be jetting off to foreign parts for their holiday.

As far as spiritual refreshment through our churches is concerned, things remain very different from usual – all four have had to remain closed so far for people to meet together for worship.

However, three have now opened for individual prayer; St James's Cardington and St Peter's Rushbury are open by appointment and St Andrew's Hope Bowdler is offering two hours every Wednesday (10:00-11:00am and 7:00-8:00pm) when the church will be open and available to individuals and small family groups for private prayer.

St Edith's at Eaton-under-Heywood has had to delay any opening at all for a while because of repair work on one of the windows, but the PCC is looking to some way of opening up for prayer soon after that is complete.

The question of reopening for services again remains under discussion and changes to the current situation will be shared as soon as they seem feasible in each church's particular circumstances. It will probably be a while yet before our established pattern of services can be resumed.

We continue to publish a weekly reflection on the Sunday readings, with some information about services available locally and nationally and to post some of this on the Benefice Facebook page and through the online Honey pot too. It is also shared by email with the PCC members and other contacts. If you would like to receive this email too, please contact your PCC secretary, details listed elsewhere in the Honey pot, to be added to the contact list.

We look forward to the time when we can meet and worship together,

With my love and blessings,

Sue

This month's copy should be with the editor by

Monday August 10th

Alterations to contact details on the inside cover, or the two Church information sections, need to be with the editorial team before the first day of each month.

Cardington News

Cardington Parish Council Update

In line with the Covid 19 restrictions, unless urgent decisions are required, the Parish Council do not have to hold a meeting. Therefore the July meeting was cancelled.

The Parish Council are pleased to report that Shropshire Council have started to clear gullies, ditches and undertake other work to improve the drainage around the Parish and so avoid repetitive flash flooding and resultant damage to roads.

The Parish Council continue to consider planning applications in the Parish and comment accordingly. As you are aware the Parish Council were issuing the "Smartwater packs" before the Covid19 restrictions were in place. Packs are still available for those properties who have not yet collected them. The collection point will be publicised as soon as restrictions allow.

The next meeting of Cardington Parish Council is planned for Tuesday 1st September to be held in the Village Hall commencing at 8pm and it is hoped that restrictions are lifted to allow this to go ahead. Residents who have any concerns about matters in the Parish, or wish to raise any issues at future meetings are welcome to contact the Clerk,

Ticklerton Village Hall

The ceiling at Ticklerton Village Hall is being replaced. New supporting timbers have been installed, and the insulation will be improved. There will also be new lighting.

...and Hope Bowdler News

Hope Bowdler Handbells have been practising ringing their tone chimes, weather permitting and socially distanced of course!

EATON UNDER HEYWOOD & HOPE BOWDLER PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

Given the relaxations in the Coronavirus lock-down regulations, coupled with various technical difficulties preventing remote platform meetings such as Zoom, the Parish Council held its first meeting since March on the 20th July 2020 in Hope Bowdler Village Hall. The main object of the meeting was to pass various resolutions and dispensations concerning the administration of the council. Matters on which parishioners wish to be heard were deferred to our next meeting.

The Minutes of the July meeting will shortly be published on the parish council's website. The next parish council meeting will be on Monday 21st September 2020, 7.30pm in Ticklerton Village Hall, assuming there has not been a second wave of Corvid 19 resulting in a resumption of the lock down arrangements. Please check our website and notice boards in September for further information.

Our longest serving councillor, Colin Pugh of Saplings Farm, suffered the misfortune of having a half-ton hay bale fall on him, resulting in nasty injuries and a stay in Oswestry hospital. We are pleased to report Cllr. Pugh is now home and recovering well from his injuries.

The agendas for meetings are posted on the notice board in Hope Bowdler and in the bus shelter in Ticklerton and on our website which is www.eatonhopebowdler.co.uk. Also on the website are the contact details for all councillors and the Clerk, information about the parish council's accounts and audits and copies of minutes, agendas, protocols and financial information.

To contact the Parish Council, please call the Clerk, Mrs J de Ruset, at 1, Pipe Aston Barns, Pipe Aston, Ludlow SY8 2HG, tel. 01568 770741 or by email ateatonhopebowdlerpc@gmail.com

Saturday 5th September

Rushbury and District Flower and Produce Show

Due to Covid-19, it will take a different form from usual, and there will be no judging. Shop window displays will be created based on submissions from you, for any of the following:

- anything that you have made/created over the last few months
- anything that you have baked/cooked close to produce show weekend – perhaps something you have enjoyed making and tasting during lockdown
- things that you have grown in your garden this year – either as they are, or created into a display

Bring them along, by appointment, on the afternoon of Friday 4th September. Come and see what everyone has been up to on the afternoon of Saturday 5th September. Entry will be free. If you would like refreshments, then please bring your own picnic tea and enjoy it outside.

You may choose to do this on your own, by family, or with a group of friends or neighbours. Items will be displayed on a table 1 metre square, or 2 metres long, according to the amount you have to display or the number of people involved.

For further information and to make an appointment for delivering your submissions to the Hall on 4th September, please contact Merle Lippitt on 771405.

More details will be made available on the village hall website:

Rare find on Wenlock Edge

I recently spotted an Ornithogalum pyrenaicum - Bath Asparagus over Wenlock Edge. It is very rare in this county and has now been logged and referenced with the UK Ecological Records. Introduced by the Romans, it was once common around Bath, gathered and eaten. Ruth Lole.

FROM THE PARISH REGISTERS:

Funeral

John Valentine (Jimmy) James

On Wednesday 15th July at St Peter's Church Rushbury, followed by interment at the South Shropshire Remembrance Park.

Our love and prayers are with Doreen, Ian and their family at this time.

Notes from St James, Cardington

We are very aware that coming out of lockdown presents us all with difficult decisions about resuming normal life. We are asking neighbours in the parish what their thoughts are about church life from now on, so that these may help clergy to begin to plan worship.

Notes from St Edith's, Eaton-under-Heywood

Everyone at Eaton is sad to learn of Robin's death. Our thoughts and prayers are with Judy and her family. There is still scaffolding in the Church while the glass in the windows is being repaired. Good progress is being made with the replacement of the Village Hall ceiling.

We are all pleased to know that Colin Pugh is back home recovering from his accident.

Eaton PCC meeting under the shade of the yew trees at St Edith's.

July 16th.

Wonderful day for St. Edith's.

George and Rob visited from 'Caring for God's Acre'.

Two species hunt sessions; one morning, one afternoon.

In the morning four adults and six children (two households) arrived. Such excitement, many tiny toads and grasshoppers discovered, carefully caught and returned to the same spot. Basking slow-worms surfaced too.

A list of more than one hundred plants emerged from the session.

Five or six more, at least, added during the afternoon. Finding plants and roots (sniffing) with antiseptic and sedative qualities. Listening to stories of their use and cultivation. In and beyond the Parish.

Very stimulating.

It is my great pleasure (as a newcomer) to CONGRATULATE the Parish and Parishioners for choosing to manage the plot to create such BIODIVERSITY. These are comments and responses from George and Rob, who travel country-wide. It is a matter for PARISH PRIDE. This late-comer is proud to belong.

Anna came from Shrewsbury for the afternoon. She is part of the botany group monitoring/supporting the project at the Crematorium in town.

For Jenny - your poem delighted the guests. All ages. They took time to take a photograph of it. I explained it can be shared but must be acknowledged.

From them to you Thank You.

All noted in the visitors book.

Gratitude to TM and all the Churchyard team.

Comment from them "We are very impressed by the site management".

What else can be said?

PS Towards the end of the afternoon Wendy and Andy descended the footpath and advanced through the Kissing gate. In a very short time they were engaged in the project.

An extremely enthusiastic Rob received an invitation to visit their meadow afterwards.

This he did.

Notes from St Andrew's, Hope Bowdler

The church is open for private prayer on Wednesdays, 10–11am and 7–8pm.

Notes from St Peter's, Rushbury

Rushbury Church is open by appointment for individual private prayer only. Please contact our churchwarden Darren Merrill to make arrangements.

LETTER FROM THE ARCHDEACON FOR AUGUST

It is said we are shaped by our culture. If that is true, then one of the strongest leadership motifs is that of the hero leader. In film we have James Bond, Indiana Jones and Princess Leia; in television we have Doctor Who, Buffy and Danger Mouse: we are surrounded by heroes (I'm a big action film and sci-fi fan). However, so often they are flawed individuals, some like Bond or The Doctor are anti-heroes just staying the right side of the line but edging on many occasions into the ambiguous middle ground, the grey moral no-man's land of society's values. Some like Batgirl or the Green Arrow seem to have turned to the darkness to right the wrongs of society and they are shaped by a deep inner drive and personal angst.

Many of the old heroes like Captain America and Wonder Woman knew which side of the line they stood, firmly in the light righting wrongs with justice, compassion and fairness. We could always tell the good guy or girl because they wore the white hat (The Lone Ranger) while the bad guys always wore black (Darth Vader).

The problem for the Church is that these heroes and anti-heroes always win the day, good always triumphs and the hero wins the applause and adulation. This is extremely seductive for those who seek or feel called to leadership positions, being the saviour raises us to the standard of hero; it places us at the centre of the action. It creates status, position and power but it also creates problems. There is only one saviour in the Christian story and it isn't us.

In Jesus' temptation in the wilderness, Satan offers him the chance to be a super hero, to be adored and feted but instead Jesus chose a different path. He chose the path of servant and constantly refused to be the hero. Not only did he choose a different path, he chastised James and John when they sought power and position and Peter was rebuked for refusing to have his feet washed. Those in religious power consistently found Jesus challenged them for abusing their positions. Jesus' challenge is for the leader to be a servant not a hero, to seek the path of service, generosity, hospitality, compassion and self-giving. Even in the business world it is now widely recognized that the hero leader or heroic CEO is more hindrance than help.

As Jim Collins, the author of Good to Great, says:

Virtually everything our modern culture believes about the type of leadership required to transform our institutions is wrong. It is also dangerous. There is perhaps no more corrosive trend to the health of our organisations than the rise of the celebrity CEO, the rock-star leader whose deepest ambition is first and foremost self-centric.

If you feel a call to leadership in the Church then perhaps you need to stop and ask yourself what is your motivation, do you want to serve or be served? A good friend of mine used to ask prospective ordinands how they'd feel if he asked them to sweep up the leaves on his drive or to help him wash the dishes at their first meeting, he understood that leadership began and ended with servant-heartedness.

So heroic leaders need not apply! What is wanted here and now in our church as we emerge from COVID are servant-hearted leaders who are ambitious for the Kingdom and not for themselves. They are those who point to Jesus as the one who transforms lives and society, they recognise they are only signposts to a Kingdom that is both here and yet to come.

If you feel you are called to leadership that points to Jesus, then the Church needs you!

Patients and carers across all age groups can benefit from this service. Becky Jennings is our Social Prescribing Advisor currently provides help by telephone but in the future, it will be by face to face appointments at the surgery. Becky helps people understand their health and wellbeing needs and supports them in setting realistic goals and developing an action plan to achieve these. She will also enable them to access support and services in their own community and monitors their progress.

Stretton Climate Care - some thoughts

The climate change emergency has not gone away – it continues to get ever more urgent. As individuals are we doing enough to reduce our carbon emissions? After the pandemic our economy must restart greener and leaner. The present Government Renewable Heat Incentive, which over several years will pay for most of the cost of an air source heat pump to replace an oil or gas boiler, has been extended until Spring 2022. During the Covid-19 crisis there is help available towards household energy bills – see Ofgem's website (www.ofgem.gov.uk) for more information. An ever wider range of electric car models is available, with running costs as much as a third of petrol or diesel vehicles, new sales of which could be banned by 2035. A week's holiday in Tenerife for two costs around £1700 – 14 solar P.V. panels, which could halve annual electricity bills and cut CO₂ costs about £4500, equivalent to less than three such holidays! Have you considered corporate membership of the Rotary Club?

Do you belong to a corporation, or any business, non-profit, or government entity and are you interested in helping others? Rotary now offers Corporate Membership – a flexible membership package that can be tailored around your needs aimed at business leaders or those who belong to an organisation who might be interested in joining Rotary, but through pressure of work cannot commit sufficient time for total involvement. We are keen to attract members who want to get involved, share our ethos of commitment and responsibility within the local community and simply want to give something back.

Rotary is one of the world's leading membership and humanitarian service organisations, with 1.2 million members in over 35,000 Rotary clubs in more than 200 countries. Rotary members are People of Action, ready to turn their ideas and vision into lasting change, by creating opportunities, supporting those who need it most and transforming their lives.

Where others see problems, Rotary members see solutions: tapping into their professional skills, expertise and knowledge to make a difference. People of Action use their time, energy and passion to mobilise their communities to get the job done. Closer to home, one of Rotary's other leading commitments is to offer young people the platforms and opportunities for them to unlock their potential, develop their skills and broaden their horizons.

Rotary was formed as a networking organisation and this still plays a part in Rotary life today. Rotary provides the opportunity to expand both personal and professional circles, meet new people and make lasting friendships – all while having fun and making a difference. If you're looking to get involved in volunteering in your community, visit www.rotarygbi.org or contact dereksmith42@hotmail.com to find out more.

News from Rushbury Church of England Primary School

www.rushburyschool.co.uk

We re-opened to all of the children at Rushbury School on Monday 29 June. Many children returned and you can see them pictured in three separate groups, known as 'bubbles'. The children are delighted to be back and it is lovely to hear their laughter and chatter on the playground once more.

Object Lessons for the Year ending May 31st 1900.

1. Earthquakes.	17. The Rose.
2. Wheat.	18. Owl.
3. Tadpoles.	19. Bread.
4. Cotton.	20. The Ancient Britons.
5. Coal.	21. King Alfred.
6. Bee x	22. Poisonous Plants.
7. Soldier.	23. Eggs.
8. Moon & Stars.	24. The Fox.
9. Minerals of England.	25. Carwig.
10. Square & Triangle.	26. Forge.
11. Land.	27. Cuckoo.
12. Sailor.	28. The White Ship.
13. Autumn.	29. Bilbous.
14. Day & Night.	30. White Ship.
15. Spider.	31. Windmill.
16. Pig.

Continuing with our look back through the school log book, we found this review of the Year's object lessons from May 1900.

An object lesson involves using an object or picture to convey information. It was promoted by the Swiss educationist Johan Heinrich Pestalozzi (1746 -1827). Object lessons were very popular in our schools in the Victorian era of the mid- to late-19th Century. While the term object lesson may have fallen out of general use, objects are still useful and interesting prompts for learning today.

Thank you to local company, Banbury Conservatories for the generous donation of new glass and repairs to our school's noticeboard. It looks very smart.

Class 1 had great fun making treasure chests and telling stories.

Josie and Macey both won prizes in this year's Shrewsbury Bookfest book illustration competition. The award ceremony was held online earlier this year and the girls have now received framed pictures of their winning artwork.

Something to make....

How to make a paper plate sunflower:

You need a large piece of paper, paper plate, black paint, yellow paint, pencil or similar, paint brush, green paper, safety scissors, glue.

Paint your plate bright yellow and allow to dry. Cut a long strip of green paper to make a stalk and 2 green leaves.

Glue these to your large piece of paper leaving plenty of space for the paper plate flower head.

When your paint is dry, cut into the rim of your plate at intervals. The dotted lines should give you an idea of how far to cut down.

Then dip the end of a pencil or something similar to make dots in the centre to resemble the sunflower seeds.

Glue the flower head to the top of the stem.

News from Little Acorns of Rushbury

It is lovely to be back at Little Acorns following lockdown. We are spending all of our time outdoors— mostly in Forest School and having a picnic lunch in the woods every day (fortunately the weather has been very kind!).

Little Acorns have produced lots of creative artwork using ash from the bonfire site as well as mud paint, and mark making with quills. We regularly get out the trowels for some digging, looking for treasure, finding worms and making mud castles! The children had a fantastic perfume factory going on too – with real rose petals and coloured water.

We do still have spaces for the Autumn term, so please contact Elaine by e-mail info@littleacornsrushbury.org.uk for more details or visit our website www.littleacornsrushbury.org.uk
