REF	AGENDA ITEM	ACTION
	consensus was that MPC should aim to input an article every month – to start with the April edition. 15/150, 15/160, 16/06: A proposal for moving the K6 phone box is awaited, AK to contact the resident. 15/161, 16/06: It was acknowledged that approaches to Blackbushe/Farnborough regarding air traffic noise nuisance is not strictly the responsibility of MPC. This is being dealt with at a higher level. C.Cllr DS is on the Airport Committee and would take it up on MPC's behalf. DS to provide RD with the requisite information for C.Cllr DS. 15/162, 16/06: It was confirmed that the litter bins had not been ordered and it was agreed that AW would provide details of what is required to RD who would order the bins, which would then be installed by AW. 15/163, 16/06: It was agreed that RD would contact Thompson Broadbent to secure compensation for telephone poles on the village green, Hound Green. 15/167, 16/06: DS to draft wording for a plaque confirming that work in refurbishing the bus shelters in Hazeley Green had been completed & by whom. 15/167, 16/06: DS reported on HDC's Licencing Committee's discussion, of Lowde Feste. Management of the event is to be strengthened and improved. There is no prospect of it's being extended from 1 to 1 1/2 days. 15/167, 16/06: RD confirmed that he could find no trace of a spreadsheet to monitor items such as electricity shutdowns on the village green having been drafted by the former clerk and RD was asked to prepare one. 16/13: JH to report on Strawberry Fields rumours. No further action from developer, public meeting provisionally booked for 27/28 January was not held. Delete. 16/13: Contingency plan to cover the eventuality of a Clerk's departure. RD to draft a Contingency Plan. 16/13: A memorial plaque to the former Clerk is to be affixed to one of the planned benches on Hound Green DS to draft wording etc.	DS/RD RD/AW RD DS RD/JH RD DS
16/23	Council to discuss The Lanterns: land sale, fencing & drainage – it was confirmed that the precise position of the proposed fence had been agreed and that buyer was aware that any decision as to whether the ditch could be piped rests with the Environment Agency. (iii) The sale documents were then signed on behalf of MPC by JH & RA. The Notice of Intended Disposal of Open Space land was also agreed. RD is to send both documents to HCC solicitors.	RD
16/24	Council to discuss Hound Green : furniture – it was agreed to amend the order submitted to HDC to read (i) 1 educational panel, (ii) 2 Chunky Chainsaw carved bench/tables (iii) 2 rustic football side. It was agreed to secure quotes for the provision of 2 crossings over the ditch for access by pushchairs etc, comprising railway sleepers with handrails. RD was also asked to enquire what is happening about the provision of bird/bat boxes.	RD BA RD
16/25	Council to discuss Glebe Wood: lease – covered under Matters Arising.
16/26	Council to discuss Audit Provision – RD outlined the proposed audit regime changes effective from 2017. The arrangements for procuring an Internal Auditor will be unchanged. Smaller parishes (>£25k income/expenditure) will not be subject to having to submit an Annual Return to External Audit. The selection of an External Auditor will be made by a Sector Led Body (SLD) (set up by NALC), unless a PC opts out. It was agreed to opt in, when asked.
