

ANDOVER HOCKEY CLUB NEWSLETTER

The season has been much better than we may have thought in August. Seven senior teams out every week, results up and down but never lose sight of the fact that results are not just about winning. It is encouraging to see junior numbers increasing which all bodes well for future years. Wear the club shirt with pride, be good hosts to our visiting teams and play the game in the true spirit of sportsmanship. These are the values we must all uphold. Merry Christmas and a happy New Year to you all. Stay fit and see you all in 2013. Regards Guy Panszczyk AHC Club President.

CONGRATULATIONS

Andover Sports Awards 2012

The ethos behind Andover Sports Awards is to acknowledge and celebrate sporting achievement, coaching excellence and dedication. It provides the community with an ideal opportunity to recognise commitment, performance and excellence in sport.

On the evening of Fri 14 Dec 2012, 15 players and partners proudly represented the Diamonds Vets Hockey Team at the Sports Awards hosted at Andover Leisure Centre. Having been put forward by Andover Hockey Club the team were competing in the category of Senior Team Award sponsored by Barclays Corporate. Successfully making it through the preliminary rounds the team came up against local martial arts club, the Fighting Falcons. The Falcons who's impressive CV listed no less than 22 national awards this year was probably the undoing for the Veterans Hockey team. Nervously awaiting the announcement on the stage in front of an impressive turnout, the vets were beaten by the better team/club on the night. It was truly an honour to represent the club and be nominated and acknowledged for an award alongside some remarkable individuals/teams in the other categories. On behalf of the Diamonds Hockey it is my privilege to thank the club and community for the recognition that the team respectfully appreciate.

So long, Farewell, Auf Wiedersehen... Goodbye Liz Reid.

December is a sad month for Andover Hockey Club as our fond Kiwi departs for her homeland. After 9 fun filled, grazed knee years Liz is heading home to start a new University adventure.

Some fond memories include....

- Her 'love' for fancy dress as Bat Girl
- Rugby banter... (very bad timing having her leaving do with England beating NZ!)
- The endless accent jokes.. yeeeeazzzzzzssssss!!!!
- Out drinking most of the boys at Pub Golf
- Her incredible 'tonking' the ball skills
- Pretty party dresses

It's a great loss to AHC! But Liz is leaving in true goal scoring style, scoring 4 goals and helping the Ladies 2's win 10-1 in their last game before Christmas.

Liz - Lots of luck and love for your new adventure from everyone at AHC. Keep in touch and we hope your saddle sore isn't too bad after cycling round Asia over Christmas.

Vacancies

Andover Hockey Club has vacancies for the positions of Secretary and Archivist. The role of Secretary is very important and one we would like filled ASAP. Anyone who would be interested in filling these roles please contact Chairman Pam Sorensen psorensen@btinternet.com.

100 Club

The AHC 100 club has sold 89 numbers and raised approx £500. 3 draws have taken place so far. You can still buy a number for £9, that's £1 per month for the remaining 9 draws. Please see website for an application form or email Jacqui at robandjacwest@btinternet.com. Thanks

The England Hockey terms of ethics and behaviour

Players

Terms of reference

The content of this Code of Behaviour applies to all Players involved in hockey in England. Clauses in bold are from the Generic Code of Behaviour.

In order to protect the reputation of hockey in England, the code also applies to all those associated with England Hockey who are involved in hockey whilst outside England.

Expected Minimum Standards of Behaviour and Conduct

All such individuals involved in hockey will, at all times:

Respect the spirit of fair play in hockey. This is more than playing within the rules. It also incorporates the concepts of friendship, respect for others and always participating with the right spirit.

Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others.

-Respect umpires, officials, coaches, players and spectators.

Conduct themselves in a manner that takes all reasonable measures to protect their own safety and the safety of others.

-Never participate when under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

Promote the reputation of the sport and take all possible steps to prevent it from being brought into disrepute.

Accept success and failure, victory and defeat, with dignity.

Set a positive example for others, particularly young participants and spectators.

Protect others involved in the game from verbal or physical abuse and threatening or intimidating behaviour.

Never use inappropriate language or gestures.

Abide by the England Hockey Safeguarding and Protecting Young People in Hockey Policy and Procedures and Good Practice Guidelines.

Abide by the England Hockey Equity Policy.

Abide by the England Hockey Anti-doping Rules.

Take personal responsibility to ensure that they are suitably insured for their activities.
