

Cleveland Bowls League

Instruction for new Website Nov 2023

The Cleveland League now has its own website, it has the same functionality as the old website, but has a slightly different format.

To get onto the website use the following link. NOTE, you must type this link into the browser address bar, NOT a google search box. :- bit.ly/clev2024

Depending on whether you use Windows or a tablet the screens are slightly different.

First the Windows Example.

The following screen will be displayed. Click on the “save and Close” button at the bottom of the cookie box.

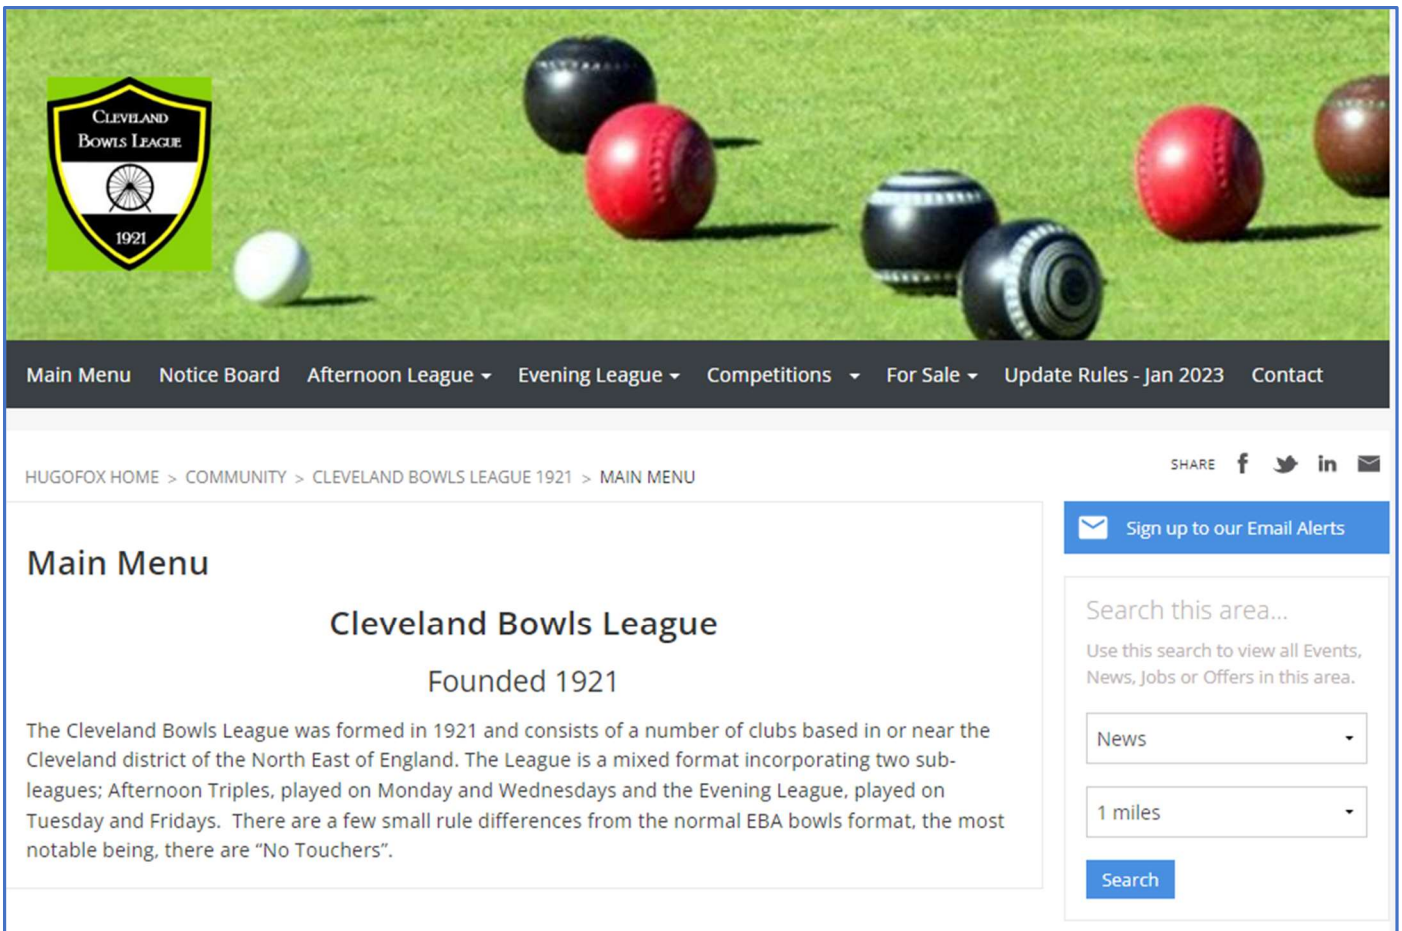

The screenshot shows the Cleveland Bowls League website with a blue cookie consent overlay on the left. The overlay contains the following text:

- Cookies
We use essential cookies to make our site work. We'd also like to set analytics cookies that help us make improvements by measuring how you use the site. These will be set only if you accept.
For more detailed information about the cookies we use, see our cookies page.
- Essential Cookies
Essential cookies enable core functionality such as security, network management, and accessibility. For example, the selections you make here about which cookies to accept are stored in a cookie.
You may disable these by changing your browser settings, but this may affect how the website functions.
- Analytics Cookies
We'd like to set Google Analytics cookies to help us improve our website by collecting and reporting information on how you use it. The cookies collect information in a way that does not directly identify you.
- Third Party Cookies
Third party cookies are ones planted by other websites while using this site. This may occur (for example) where a Twitter or Facebook feed is embedded with a page. Selecting to turn these off will hide such content.

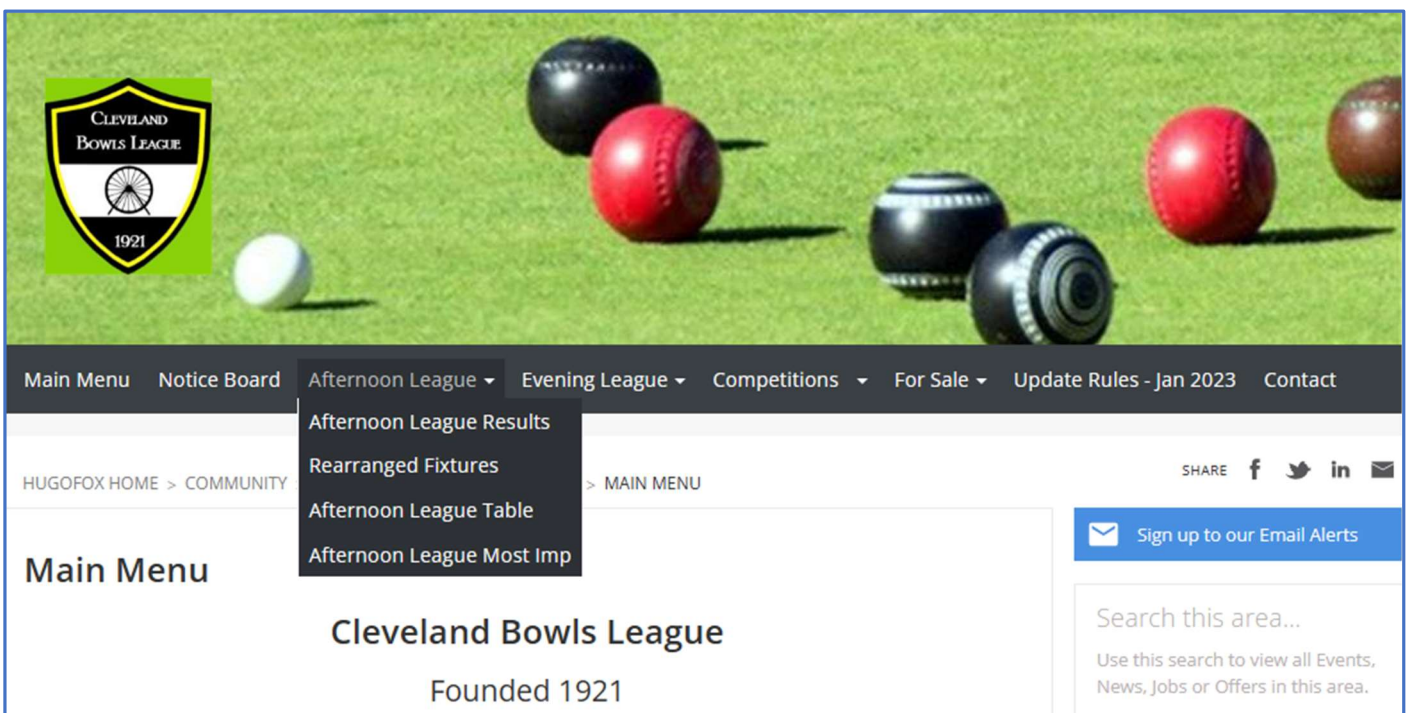

At the bottom of the overlay is a "Save and close" button. The background website shows a navigation menu with items like "Notice Board", "Afternoon League", "Evening League", "Competitions", "For Sale", "Update Rules - Jan 2023", and "Contact". The main content area features a "Main Menu" section for the "Cleveland Bowls League" (Founded 1921) and a search bar on the right with a "Sign up to our Email Alerts" button.

You will now have the full home screen of the Cleveland website, as shown below.

If you move your cursor over the options on the black bar at the top, you will see the sub menus for each item.

In the screen below, my cursor is on “Afternoon League”, this shows that afternoon league has 4 sub screens. If you wanted to input an afternoon team match result, just click on “Afternoon League Results” and you will go to the page to input your result.

The first of two additions to the new web site is “Notice Board” this page will show anything new that will be happening.

The other new option is the “For Sale” pages, this is split into “Selling” and “Items For Sale”. Going into the “For Sale” Page will give you all the instructions you require for buying or selling bowling items. See screen Below.

The screenshot shows a website page with a dark navigation bar at the top containing links: Main Menu, Notice Board, Afternoon League, Evening League, Competitions, For Sale, Update Rules - Jan 2023, and Contact. Below the navigation bar is a breadcrumb trail: HUGOFOX HOME > COMMUNITY > CLEVELAND BOWLS LEAGUE 1921 > FOR SALE. On the right side, there are social media share icons (Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Email) and a blue button that says 'Sign up to our Email Alerts'. The main content area is titled 'For Sale' and contains two sections: 'SELLING AN ITEM:' and 'TO BUY AN ITEM:'. The 'SELLING AN ITEM:' section includes a paragraph of instructions and a bulleted list of steps. The 'TO BUY AN ITEM:' section includes a paragraph of instructions and a bulleted list of steps. On the right side of the main content area, there is a search box with the text 'Search this area...' and a subtext 'Use this search to view all Events, News, Jobs or Offers in this area.' Below the search box are two dropdown menus: one for 'News' and one for '1 miles', followed by a blue 'Search' button.

Main Menu

Cleveland Bowls League

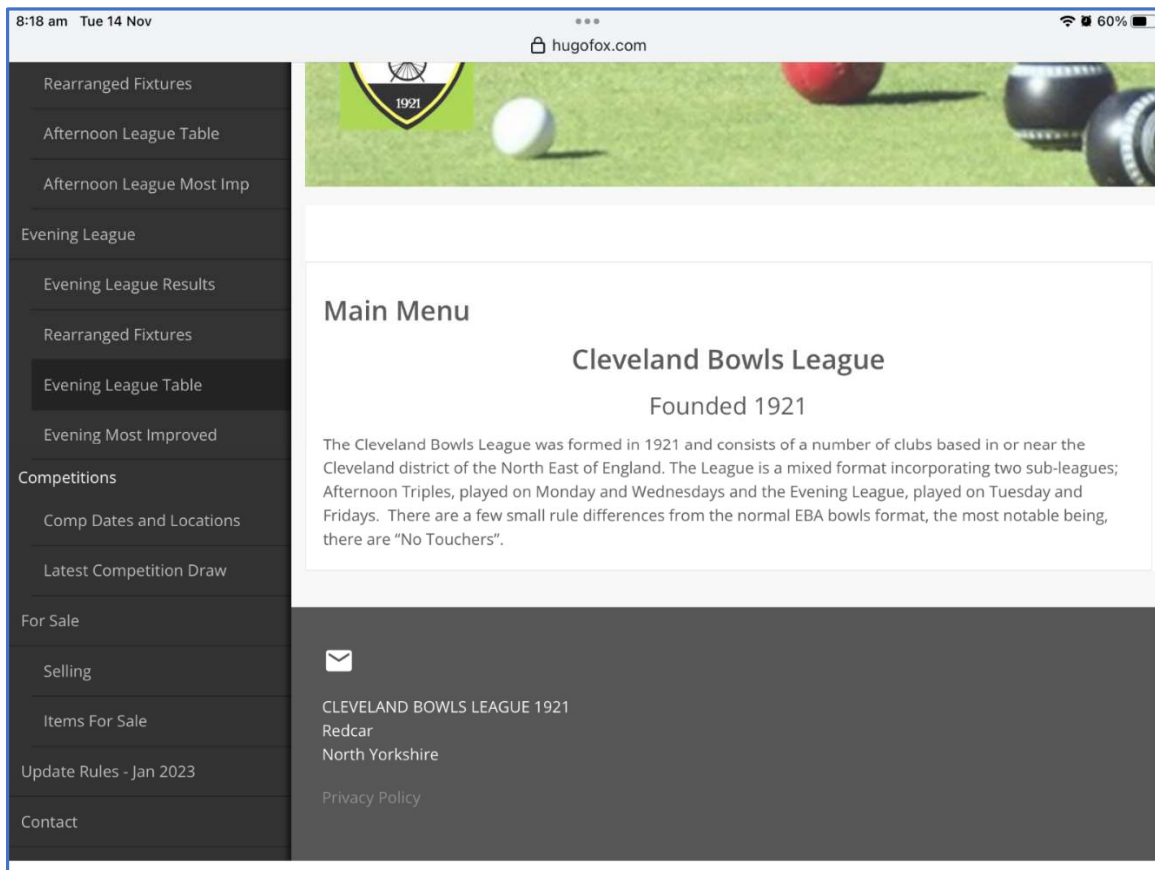

Founded 1921

The Cleveland Bowls League was formed in 1921 and consists of a number of clubs based in or near the Cleveland district of the North East of England. The League is a mixed format incorporating two sub-leagues; Afternoon Triples, played on Monday and Wednesdays and the Evening League, played on Tuesday and Fridays. There are a few small rule differences from the normal EBA bowls format, the most notable being, there are "No Touchers".

If you tap on the 3 horizontal lines in the top left, under the Hugo Fox name, you will see the menu bar, with the main menu items and the sub menu items. If you wanted to input an afternoon team match result, just tap on "Afternoon League Results" and you will go to the page to input your result

. NOTE on some tablets you may need to scroll down to get to the full menu, as shown below.

The first of two additions to the new web site is “Notice Board” this page will show anything new that will be happening.

The other new option is the “For Sale” pages, this is split into “Selling” and “Items For Sale”. Going into the “For Sale” Page will give you all the instructions you require for buying or selling bowling items. See screen Below.
