

Shrawley Parish Council

Asset Register as at April 2017

1. Shrawley Village Hall

The Parish Council are the Custodian Trustees of Shrawley Village Hall although full responsibility for controlling and managing the hall lies with the Management Committee. Parish Councillors are not allowed to be members of the Management Committee solely because of their position on the Council but may be appointed as individuals to represent other organisations within the village.

The Title Deeds of the Village Hall are in the safe keeping of Challinors Lyon Clark, Solicitors, Guardian House, Cronehills Linkway, West Bromwich, West Midlands B70 8SW. Current contact Edward Ribchester on 0121 553 3211.

2. Land now known as Millennium Green adjacent to Shrawley Churchyard

The land was gifted to the village following the death of Frederick Horton during 1990 and the earlier death of his wife Ruth Horton in 1980. The Deed of Gift was signed by representatives of the Parish Council on or around 2nd January 1992.

The Title Deeds of this land are in the safe keeping of Challinors Lyon Clark, Solicitors, Guardian House, Cronehills Linkway, West Bromwich, West Midlands B70 8SW. Current contact Edward Ribchester on 0121 553 3211.

3. Memorial Seat and Tree on land now known as Millenium Green

The memorial seat was erected in memory of Ruth Vernon Horton and of her husband Frederick (Rick) of the Wood House, Shrawley and who are both buried in Hanbury churchyard. They were kind and generous friends to the people of Shrawley and their deaths marked the end of an era in the parish.

The memorial was paid for by donations from Shrawley Parish Council, Shrawley & District Royal British Legion, Shrawley Fete Committee and private donations from the parishioners and friends of Shrawley Village. It was dedicated on 3rd October 1993.

The memorial seat and tree are covered under the all risks section of the Parish Council's insurance policy which has a total sum insured of £10,000.

4. Millennium Obelisk

Shrawley commemorated the Millennium with an obelisk and a time capsule containing articles appropriate to the date. The obelisk is covered under the all risks section of the Parish Council's insurance policy which has a total sum insured of £10,000.

5. Village Barbecue

The barbecue was acquired in July 2012 for use within Shrawley and neighbouring parishes through the Malvern Hills District Council's Ward Councillor award scheme at a cost of £447.75 plus VAT. It is covered under the all risks section of the Parish Council's insurance policy which has a total sum insured of £10,000.

6. Parish Council notice board affixed to the outside wall of the Village Hall.

7. The Minute Book from 1894 to 1934 is lodged in the Worcestershire County Records Office. The following books are also lodged with the records office;

1. Minutes Book (Red) No 2 from May 1935 to May 1977
2. Minutes Book (Black) No 3 from May 1977 to November 2000
3. Minutes Book (Blue) No 4 from January 2001 to October 2015

It should be noted that the Parish Council owns no office equipment or clerical supplies with the Clerk being recompensed for using their own.

8. The Red Telephone Kiosk located opposite the Old Rose & Crown Public House, WR6
6TD £4,000.
9. 2 x Litter bins along the B4196 between Glazenbridge & New Inn £800.00