

RwK Andrews There were many other Robsons in this parish. One was "Cate of the city of London" returning with money to the North & buying in 1732 a house with a barn containing three rooms in length which seems to mean an old building on sides, three bays long.
John Robson Tailor died in 1748. This 15th sounds like Manor House Studholme of Gomisdale, a family which had owned a moiety of Gomisdale from the time of Edward III. 17 & 18 century names. Herid. Barnes Burlin Siddle. Hodgson. Norman comes late in the 17 century 1692 <sup>9 years</sup>
An old saying. Propetty, propetty sticks and propalty, propalty a