Details of Organisation/Group's Activities

The Bureau provides free, confidential and impartial advice and information to all residents of the New Forest. We do this from five offices around the New Forest giving advice face-to-face, by phone, email or, more recently, webchat. We also use the information we gain from our interaction with clients to inform research and campaigning work at a national and local level to try and improve practices and policies which impact unfairly on people. Over the last two years we have also lead the New Forest Advice Network, a group of 5 voluntary agencies in the New Forest, with a view to improving access to quality advice for all in the New Forest.

Purpose of grant request and who will benefit from this project

To support our activities. 20 residents of Bramshaw and Copythorne received direct help in the last 12 months and all had access to our web advice and telephone adviceline services

Amount of monies requested £80

Are you meeting part of the cost of the project, if so what proportion Of our £310k core costs, £270k are met by Local Authorities in the New Forest with nearly all councils contributing. We raise the reminder via fundraising and project work.
