

Please see the update below from Public Health England for 27 April.

- The Department of Health and Social Care (DHSC) has confirmed that, as of 9am on 26 April, 669,850 tests have concluded, with 29,058 tests carried out on 25 April. 543,413 people have been tested, of whom 152,840 have tested positive. As of 5pm on 25 April, of those hospitalised in the UK who tested positive for coronavirus, 20,732 have sadly died. (At time of writing, GOV.UK page not yet updated with 27 April stats).
- DHSC will publish updated data on this page on a daily basis each afternoon until further notice. And PHE is now hosting a revised dashboard on gov.uk
- The slides to accompany Chris Whitty's presentation at today's Downing Street press conference are available here online
- NHS leaders and organisations across the country are joining a minute's silence at 11am on Tues 28 April for staff who have died with Coronavirus.
- A new PHE weekly national surveillance report has been published. This report summarises the information from the surveillance systems which are used to monitor the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic in England. A blog has also been published
- The latest government updates and guidance for all sectors is available online.
- New guidance on how to work safely in care homes and in domiciliary care have been published today
- New advice to help people, particularly children, stay safe online during the coronavirus outbreak has been published by DCMS
- Guidance for parents and carers on supporting children and young people's mental health and wellbeing during the coronavirus \(COVID-19\) pandemic has been published
- Follow us on Twitter: @PHE_SouthEast