
BEXHILL MAYOR'S DIARY – NOVEMBER 2023

Friday 3 November – attended the launch of Bexhill's Poppy Car for the 2023 Remembrance Day appeal for the British Legion.

Monday 6 November – collecting for Remembrance Day at Poppy Car (as a councillor)

Wednesday 8 November – attended first joint leader's meeting with Rother District Council leaders

8 November – chaired Full Council meeting at Town Hall

9 November attended a meeting with Cllr El to finalise work on reviewing the 5 year strategy plan

10 November – attended Armistice Day assembly at Little Common School

10 November – attended British Legion Band concert at Comrade's Club in London Road, Bexhill

12 November – attended Bexhill's Remembrance Day Parade and Service at The War Memorial, Bexhill with other councillors

15 November – attended Extraordinary meeting at Town Hall to debate repairs to roof at 35 Western Road

15 November – chaired Asset Transfer Committee meeting at Town Hall

15 November – as a councillor – attended Community Committee meeting at Town Hall

17 November – invited by Bexhill Rotary Club to attend tea party at St Augustine’s Hall

18 November – joined volunteer-led groups who participate in grassroots activities, and help spread awareness about the vital work of the United Nations at a local level, at today’s Ocean Symposium 2023 event entitled ‘The Tides are Changing, and spoke about the Town Councils work towards a better environment and being. Event was organised by Bexhill’s Community Supporters Group

18 November -attended Lacey Theatre Arts Group’s performance entitled ‘Born to Perform’ at Bexhill’s Izzard Theatre over last Friday and Saturday. They put on a fantastic evening of entertainment with a wide range of singing and dancing from ballet; Irish; modern; music hall and showcasing Hollywood.

25 November - opened Homecall’s Charity Christmas Fayre at Little Common.

25 November - attended Little Common’s Bright Lights Theatre Company for their lively and most enjoyable production of D’Artagnan and The Three Musketeers,

1 December- invited by Heart of Sidley to turn on Sidley Christmas Lights and meet the local businesses who contributed to this excellent event.

2 December – invited by Sidley’s All Saints School PTFA to attend their Christmas Fayre which raised more than £4,000 for pupils of the school.

2 December – attended Bexhill Choral Society’s Carols & Christmas Music event at St Barnabas Church, Sea Road

3 December – attended Bexhill Lions Santa Dash event, at De la Warr Pavilion, to help present prizes and medals to the winners
