- Thanks, given to the Clerk for his work for the past year
- The Council is nearly full with 10 members and just 1 vacancy
- Return to in-person meetings from virtual
- Successful bid to the Local Communities Grant £5k for Wildlife Jubilee Project
- Many highways' issues raised and resolved during the year
- Continuing to pursue broadband for Fledborough
- Commented on several planning applications
- Continue to attend several partnership meetings, eg South East Forum
- Progressed a lease agreement for Reptile Gardens
- Both allotment plots are tenanted and well looked after
- Working with Notts CC to achieve the 50mph zone on the A57
- Replaced Ragnall Bench
- All playparks maintained to a high standard beyond ROSPA minimum with the fortnightly Play Ground Inspector and remedial works undertaken by Ashworth Diggers
- All audits passed with no issues and financial figures at NALC best practice levels
- Thanks, given to the Project Manager of the Wildlife project

Cllr Atkinson and the rest of the Council gave thanks to Cllr Barden for her efforts as Chairman.
