

Frome Shed Newsletter July 2025

Another impressive community project completed at The Community Garden adjacent to the Food Bank on the Marston Trading Estate (picture above.) Members who worked on this project were Neville Mason, Gerry Hampson, Steve Gray, John Philp and Dave Lee.

The opportunity to snoop round Hidden Gardens lasts just for this weekend, from 11th to 13th July. Get your ticket from Cheese and Grain or Library or Town hall or Park cafe.

Helen Peach has asked if we could make our members aware that at St Mary's Church Hall, every first Saturday of the month they do a cooked breakfast with tea or coffee. You do need to book in advance by calling Pat on 01373 464464 and the cost is £7.50 per person. Any profits made go to St Mary's Church. There are two sittings. First sitting is 09:30am and the second sitting is 10:30am. The picture here is just to give a 'flavour' of the St Mary's breakfasts.

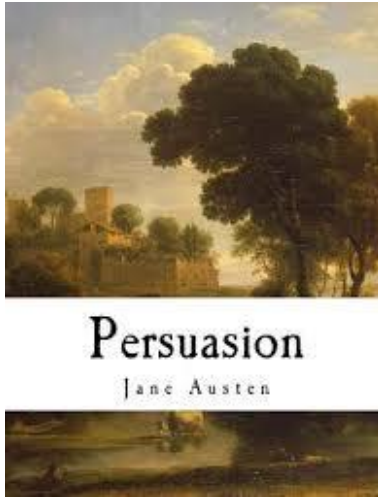

This coming Monday, 14th June, we are having a session on learning basic crochet stitches. This is with a view having a crochet flower making session on 1stSeptember 2024. We will do a reminder about this nearer the time.

The tidying up in the main workshop is continuing so please remember to clearly label anything you bring in. The wooden unit near the water boiler will soon be surplus to requirements as we have another metal shelving unit to replace it. If anyone can give the wooden unit a good home please speak to one of the Trustees.

There are a lot of mixed screws available. They are a bit dirty / rusty but should clean up with some WD40. If you would like some of the screws please help yourself.

On Monday July 21st the book group in the Monday Shed will, fittingly for this anniversary year, be discussing 'Persuasion', the last novel by Jane Austen.

Listen to the whole book for free on Librivox, read very persuasively by Ms Klett
