UP NATELY Bellarmine Jug Hoard

Arwen James, Finds Liaison Officer

An exciting discovery was made recently on a metal detecting rally held in the parish of Up Nately by the Midweek Searchers Group. While on this rally detectorist Darcy Fear uncovered a patch of soil to discover sherds of pottery and multiple silver coins, he quickly realised he had exposed the top of a vessel containing a hoard.

PHOTOS: Courtesy of the British Museum

Understanding the archaeological importance of what he'd found, Mr Fear carried out best practice and stopped digging, and the rally organiser set up a perimeter around the spot to protect the find. The Portable Antiquities Scheme and the County Archaeologist were contacted, and advice was given that the hoard should be block lifted to retain any important archaeological information. This meant that the vessel was lifted with the contents left inside, along with the soil surrounding the vessel.

Mr Fear then escorted the find up to the British Museum, where the conservation team have been working to excavate, record and conserve the find. It has been found that 344 post medieval silver coins were contained within the vessel, which is a bellarmine jug. The coins date from 1547-1649 and are of four different rulers, Edward VI, Elizabeth I, James I and Charles I.

The hoard is currently passing through the Treasure Act 1996, a legal process in which the hoard will be recorded properly and the coroner will hold an inquest to declare it Treasure. After this it will be offered to the local acquiring museum and to the British Museum for acquisition. If a museum is interested the find will then be valued by the Treasure Valuation Committee, a group of individuals separate to the museums with knowledge and experience of treasure finds. The valuation and coroner's verdict have yet to be reached, and important research continues on this interesting find.

POLICE UPDATE

Dear Residents

I am appealing for any information in relation to the below crimes that have taken place within our parishes since June 1st 2018.

If you can assist please call either crime stoppers on 0800 555111, 101 or my direct contact details, as always all calls received are in strictest confidence.

Between June 3rd and 6th a perimeter fence was cut of a garden of a house in Newnham Green not far from The Old House at Home public house. Between June 11th and 15th again at a house on Newnham Green a shed was broken into and a large amount of fishing related articles were stolen, the house is visible from the roads and I ask if anyone saw anything suspicious to please give us a call. Finally between 1240 and 1250 pm on June 14th 2018 the theft of tools took place at The Conkers Garden centre in Greywell Road, Mapledurwell. If you were in the premises and saw an older man with a younger youth acting suspiciously then please give us a call. The security arrangements have been increased and the detection of theft from within the premises is now far more likely that previously. Store staff are also patrolling the site in plain clothes as well as monitoring CCTV and alarms.

Away from this area in Ellisfield we had a vehicle BJ55 Y** offering 'surplus Teak Furniture' left over from the Chelsea Flower Show, the first question is why come to Ellisfield to cold call and sell your wares rather than reduce the price at the show? I wish to thank everyone that called in to report this vehicle; I have made enquiries and found that they come from Kent to see us.

In nearby Upton Grey they too have seen an increase in suspicious vehicle sightings, thanks to vigilant residents I am aware of very active rural criminals from Bordon and another one from Surrey having been seen in the village at different times. Such sightings are important as we can link offenders if a crime is reported and we gain useful intelligence of their visit, so if you see anything that you deem as suspicious please do give me or 101 a call.

Many thanks as always

Andy

OPEN GARDENS

Jackie and Philippa would like to thank everybody involved in making the Open Gardens such a success. The event could not happen if it wasn't for the contribution and volunteering from so many members of the community.

There was an abundance of delicious cakes baked by many villagers and Rowan Lodge, and whether you helped by serving teas, selling tickets or parking cars we are truly grateful. Not forgetting those who worked tirelessly in preparing their gardens, we hope you are now enjoying the fruits of your labours! A special thank you must go to Colin and Jan for yet again allowing us to use their wonderful barn and opening their showcase garden.

Plus an enormous thank you to Jackie and Philippa for their exhaustive organisation and inspiration.

OWENS FARM REFUSED BY HART

Date of Notice: 20th June 2018

The Planning Authority Refuses Planning Permission for the following reasons:

1. 'The proposed development, in a countryside location outside of the defined settlement boundary of Hook, within an area designated as a Local Gap to maintain the separate identities of Newnham and Hook, would represent inappropriate development which would have a detrimental effect on the character, setting and visual landscape of the countryside, the wider setting of the Newnham Conservation Area and the settlement of Hook...'
2. 'Would result in a high number of private vehicular trips, by reason of the lack of sustainable transport opportunities, which could not be accommodated in the surrounding road network...'
3. Impact on Thames Basin Heaths Special Protection Area.

4. No legally binding obligations re affordable housing, schooling, transport, health services].

Wait to see what happens next – if the developer will go to Appeal.

Special Church Services

Helen O'Sullivan's Ordination

1st July Helen O'Sullivan will be Ordained Deacon at Winchester Cathedral at 10.00 am. Helen will be licensed to the Benefice but will serve here curacy in the United Parish. All parishioners are warmly invited to attend.

There will also be a United Parish Evensong at Newnham at 6.30 pm to welcome The Revd. Helen O'Sullivan to the United Parish. The service will be lead by our Team Rector, Simon, Linda and Helen.

Patronal Services

We have two Patronal services in July. St. Swithun's, Nately Scures will be holding their service in the Barn at Millers Ark at 11am on 15th July, and the service at St. Stephen's, Up Nately will be at 11.00 am on 22nd July. At these services we remember the saints who have lent their names to our churches.

Benefice Services

29th July. There will be two Benefice services on this fifth Sunday of the month – Benefice Holy Communion at Odiham at 10.30 am and Benefice Worship Gathering, a more informal service, at Long Sutton at 6.30pm. This is a wonderful opportunity to worship alongside others from around the Benefice and to meet new people. Sometimes the names are known and it's good to put a face to the name!

Special Notices

Temporary closure of St. Swithun's, Nately Scures. Due to structural repairs about to be carried out to the ceiling, St. Swithun's is closed for the time being. Most services scheduled for St Swithun's will take place at St Nicholas' Newnham with occasional other venues (see 15th July for St Swithun's Patronal service at The Barn at Millers Ark). These will be noted in The Villager so please do check.

A contractor to do the work has been selected and Winchester has approved the faculty (church equivalent of planning permission). We hope the work will be done this autumn, and we all very much look forward to worshipping again in this beautiful church once the work is done. Much is in hand to raise the required funds, and the congregation of st Swithun's is very grateful to all who have been in touch to see how they might be able to help.

Letter from Linda Scard, Associate Minister in the United Parish

In celebration of our churchwardens

Last Saturday morning Lewis and I went to St Francis Church in Valley Park near Chandlers Ford, a church built in 1990/91 and situated adjacent to St Francis C of E Aided Primary School. The church is a "Single Congregation Local Ecumenical Partnership" involving the Church of England, the Methodist Church and the United Reformed Church.

We attended the Archdeacons' Visitation, one of four services held around the Diocese in June to celebrate our churchwardens and all that they contribute to the life and mission of our churches. During the service there's a legal moment when the wardens are admitted to office for the coming year. Lewis has been a churchwarden at All Saints Odiham for a long time and I've always enjoyed going along to support him as the Diocesan registrar and one of the archdeacons asks the wardens to declare their promises and then admits them formally to office. The registrar says:

"My brothers and sisters in Christ: first it is our duty and joy to give praise to Almighty God, to thank him for calling us to serve him and for his blessings upon our parishes and Diocese. Let us seek his grace and guidance in the discharge of the responsibilities entrusted to us, that we may be good stewards in the administration of our church, its people, buildings and fabric, wise in counsel, effective in co-operating with clergy and laity, and zealous in forwarding the witness and service of the church. In the name of Jesus Christ, and in the power of the Spirit, may we glorify the Father in word and deed, and ever promote the well-being of his people."

After the wardens have made their promise and declaration, the archdeacon says:

"I admit you to the Office of Churchwarden and confirm you in your role to serve your Parish, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Our churchwardens take on an interesting and varied role, a role touched by great practicality yet also a call to discipleship, and to leadership with clergy in the life of our parishes. At times it can be a complex role that touches, among other things, the mission of the church, the governance of the local parish as a charity, the oversight of buildings and other resources, employment matters, health and safety, the retention and proper handling of data, the development of worship, and pastoral change. Quite a ministry!

On Saturday morning, once our Diocesan registrar, Sue de Candole had overseen the formal part of admitting the wardens to office, she went on to say that she herself is a churchwarden and so knows firsthand what a wonderful ministry this is. She's often asked how she manages to run a full time registry office for both Winchester and Salisbury Dioceses, as well as fulfil her role as warden for her church. Sue was quick to point out that each church has two wardens (and Odiham three) so this is a shared ministry, which is a joy in itself, and she stressed also the importance of asking others in the church community with the right gifts and skills to help. Wardens don't have to do everything themselves and when asked most people are very happy to help with specific tasks. Our work together caring for the material dimensions of the life and mission of our churches is a deep and wonderful calling. We can make of our service in all of its tasks an offering to God, an outworking of discipleship.

This year in the Benefice we've seen some new wardens elected, who will now work alongside many who've been in office for some time, some for a very long time indeed! To you all, thank you for your willingness to stand and for your service, and may you be blessed in your ministry.

Here and there in our Benefice there are vacancies so some are working without the support of a fellow warden and without the joy that a shared ministry brings. If this is the case in your church, please pray that someone will feel called to the role. At the same time, you may even venture to ask God if it's you.
