Bewdley Town Trail

Made rich by manufacturing and the trading of rope and pewter, by the seventeenth century Bewdley had become a busy inland port shipping goods to Bristol, Gloucester and the Severn estuary. Now it's better known for its beautiful riverside location, independent shops, markets, cosy pubs and historic buildings, as well as hosting a busy calendar of events and festivals throughout the year.

A vibrant modern market town today, Bewdley's roots reach back to medieval times with unique royal connections.
