Issue 8: November 2016

Recreation ground consultation: A big thank you to those that managed to attend the consultation last month and to those that helped on the day. Over 60 children, youngsters and adults were able to make it and several volunteers came forward. Work is ongoing and a household survey is being planned for the not too distant future.

It's that time of year again when we should be paying attention to our trees that may be overhanging roads or pathways. To make it easier, here's a link as to who's responsible for what. Just to make sure everyone's safe if there's a storm....

Volunteers

Lengthsmen co-ordinator:

Do you have a few days spare during the year? More than a week but less than two! The Parish Council would like to find a volunteer to co-ordinate the lengthsmen who come and maintain the appearance of the village. Please email the clerk for further details.

Footpath workshop:

Want to learn about Rights of Way or become a path warden? HCC Access Teams will be running workshops next year. More info.
