News from St. Nicholas Church – June 2023

What a month May has been. Not sure if we could build up enough enthusiasm or energy to make the most of the King's coronation. Last year we celebrated the Queen's Platinum Jubilee with excitement and awe for her magnificent reign, realising most of us could never experience anything like it again. Then the sadness and emotional reactions to her death, lying-in state and all the pomp and ritual of her funeral. Could we raise our game again so soon?

The answer was a definite 'YES, OF COURSE WE CAN'. With posters and meetings, generosity of time, money and resources, knitted crowns and bunting and an amazing festive lunch and get-together in the church grounds on Sunday 7th, after a special thanksgiving service taken by Rev. Millie Hart in the morning, all expectations were more than realised.

So very many thanks to everyone. Even the beautiful weather played a part.

Usual reminders

The church porch is always open. Make use of the refreshment table and seating and the mini food bank if you are in need. There is a larger food bank in St Mary's church in Lenham, open 10-4pm daily.

The main church building is only open for services, with details on the notice boards. A key can be obtained from the churchwardens at other times. Their details are on the page opposite in the magazine.

Celtic Morning Prayer is said in the side chapel each Monday 9-9.30am. Please contact Rev. John Huggins or the churchwardens if you have any prayer requests. Prayers will be said in morning prayer time or in private if you wish.

Information

Village Coffee Morning is held every Tuesday 11.30am-2pm in the Village Hall, Grafty Green. The Post Office opens there 12.45-2.15 and there are various stalls most weeks, from Pluckley teas, organic meats, eggs, honey, marmalade, cards, to church eco-shop household cleaning products from 'Homethings'. Just drop in and see what is on offer at any time, catch up with friends and enjoy the cakes and homemade treats. All donations are shared equally with the church and a charity chosen by those who come for coffee. This week a balance of £31 was given to help fund a coronation mug for each member of Platts Heath Primary school.

Cream Teas will be making a come-back this summer at St.Nicolas! There will be 4 Sunday afternoon events. They will take place from 2.30-5pm in July and August. The dates are not finalised yet, but we will be posting them as soon as possible.

The funeral took place at St Nicolas church on Monday 22nd May of Gerda Holt, the much-loved Mother, grandmother and Mother-in-law to the Goodwin family. She was well known and appreciated in the church and wider community. We shall miss her friendly presence amongst us. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family at this time.

Craft Group. A note to say how much we enjoyed a visit to the Barchester Care Home in Sutton Valence this week, helping with and admiring some of the skills of the residents.

Finally

Such a beautiful sunny evening, but oh, so cold. Can't wait for some warmth. The flowers and the field crops are thriving, so must not grumble.

Just a thought about the coronation service itself, so impressive. The most poignant moment to see the king without the trappings of velvet robes and priceless gold crown, a humble man in his grandfather's loose linen shirt, vowing to follow his Christian faith and serve this country and people as long as he lives. Something for us to ponder.

Village Hall – June Newsletter

Since last month's newsletter the village hall committee in collaboration with the Church, Platts Heath Primary School and kindly sponsored by the Parish Council helped to host the Coronation Cream Tea in the Churchyard. We were blessed with good weather, the church choir and the school sang beautifully, the children were entertained by Mr Muddles and everyone made it a lovely community event. Thank you for supporting it and a big thank you to all those volunteers who worked so hard and generously gave of their time to make the event such a success.

There are now lots of things to do at the village hall so I thought it would be a good idea to detail all the activities, clubs and societies who hold classes or meetings at the hall, so I have included in this month's newsletter contact details and timings for your information. If you want to get fit, create a masterpiece, learn a new craft, find out if that plant you were not sure about is a weed or a flower, get some cash, post a parcel or simply just come along for a chat over a cup of tea and a bit of cake you will be very welcome.

Finally a date for your diary

Summer Fair Sunday 3rd September

We have pencilled in Sunday 3rd September as the date for the annual summer fair further information will be provided in due course.

Coronation Event

I wish to say a huge thank you to Boughton Malherbe Parish Council, the organisers from St. Nicholas Church and Grafty Green Village Hall and everyone who helped to make the event such a success.

The weather was lovely, the food delicious and being able to socialise outdoors with friends and neighbours was such a delight. A wonderful way to welcome King Charles III.

Grafty Gourmet

I created this dish several years ago for someone special, hence the name. This recipe comprises of Chicken dredged in Cajun spice, served on a bed of pasta and cream sauce, complimented with the bright colours of red and green peppers. Spaghetti, or any pasta of your choice can be used in place of Linguine.

Pollo di Principessa

Serves 2

4oz Linguine Pasta	1 Cup of Double Cream
2 Skinless Boned Chicken Breasts	¼ Teaspoon of Dried Basil
1 Medium Onion, finely chopped	¼ Teaspoon of Salt
1 Red Pepper, sliced	¼ Teaspoon of Ground Black Pepper
1 Green Pepper, sliced	½ Teaspoon of sugar
2 Tablespoons of Butter	2 Cloves of Garlic, crushed
Olive Oil	A Good Squeeze of Fresh Lime Juice
2 teaspoons of Cajun Seasoning	¼ Cup grated Parmesan Cheese

1. Melt half the butter (1 Tablespoon) and add 1 crushed clove of Garlic. Brush the garlic butter over each chicken breast. Then dust the top of each chicken breast with the Cajun spice. Wrap each breast in tin foil and place in a pre-heated oven at 180° for 20 minutes, or until juices run clear from chicken when pierced with a fine skewer.
2. After about 5 minutes, place the Linguine in a saucepan of water and bring to the boil, then simmer for about 12 minutes, until al dente.
3. Whilst the pasta and chicken are cooking, melt the remaining butter with the olive oil in a frying pan and sauté the onion for 2-3 minutes. Then add the sliced red and green peppers and simmer until soft and tender.
4. Add the cream together with 1 clove crushed garlic, basil, salt, black pepper, sugar and lime juice and stir the mixture with the onions and peppers until warmed through.
5. When Linguine is cooked, drain and add to the cream and pepper mix in the frying pan. Stir into the sauce so that the pasta is even coated, and simmer on a very low heat, to keep warm, stirring occasionally.
6. Remove the Chicken breasts from the oven and place on a chopping board. Slice each breast diagonally into strips. Serve an equal mix of the pasta and cream mixture onto plates, and place the sliced chicken breast on top. Sprinkle with grated parmesan cheese.

As Good As It Gets

Friday 9th June

Performance begins 19.30, doors open 19.00

As Good As It Gets (15, 1997) is our members' choice with a well-deserved title for this enjoyable romantic comedy which won two Oscars. So come along to share a superb evening with Jack Nicholson playing Melvin, a bad-tempered author who is catapulted out of his usual grumpy demanding self when his neighbour Simon, a gay artist, leaves his terrier dog Verdell in his care. But is care the right word for Melvin's reaction to this honour? And in the midst of his coping with his predicament, Carol, the only waitress at his local café who will serve him, abandons him when her sick son Spencer needs her. Melvin turns up on her doorstep and Well, come and find out what happens next; you'll be laughing all the way. Directed by James L. Brooks, it's a winner. Running time: 2 hrs 13 mins.

Our film on July 14th is A Man Called Otto starring Tom Hanks. He's another grumpy man – just as compelling and irresistible but oh so different from Jack Nicholson. Mark this down as a 'must' too.

Please get in touch for more information, to join our mailing list or to become a member. Admission: members £4, non-members £5 Annual membership: £6 (over 16's only)

Anniversary

My anniversary for June is 15th, 180 years since the birth of Edvard Grieg (15 June 1843 – 4 September 1907) who was a Norwegian composer and pianist. He is widely considered one of the leading Romantic era composers, and his music is part of the standard classical repertoire worldwide. His use of Norwegian folk music in his own compositions brought the music of Norway to fame, as well as helping to develop a national identity, much as Jean Sibelius did in Finland and Bedřich Smetana in Bohemia.

Grieg is the most celebrated person from the city of Bergen, with numerous statues which depict his image, and many cultural entities named after him: the city's largest concert building (Grieg Hall), its most advanced music school (Grieg Academy) and its professional choir (Edvard Grieg Kor). The Edvard Grieg Museum at Grieg's former home Trolldhaugen is dedicated to his legacy.

Grieg produced a wide range of music, one of the most well-known being "the hall of the mountain King" from the Peer Gynt suite. He didn't like it apparently! In an 1874 letter to his friend Frants Beyer, Grieg expressed his unhappiness with one of the movements in the Peer Gynt incidental music, writing "I have also written something for the scene in the hall of the mountain King – something that I literally can't bear listening to because it absolutely reeks of cow-pies, exaggerated Norwegian nationalism, and trollish self-satisfaction! But I have a hunch that the irony will be discernible."

Portrait of Edvard Grieg. Carte de visite with signature: the portrait was published in The Leisure Hour (1889). An engraving of it was made by T. Johnson and published in The Century (1894).

Our Plant Sale was a great success. It was held in the village hall this year as the green was still too wet underfoot. There was a steady flow of buyers for the plants, and an opportunity to buy eggs, honey and cards, and enjoy coffee and cake with friends all adding to a cheerful atmosphere.

A group of us took the opportunity to take the coach outing to Leonards Lee in the lovely Sussex countryside. We were not disappointed, the Rhododendrons and Azalea were at peak of flowering and we were lucky with the weather, a thoroughly enjoyable day out.

On June 6th we continue our summer visits with an outing to Edible Culture in Faversham. We are aiming to be there by 6.00pm and are being met for a short talk and the shop will be open. Lift share is encouraged and can be arranged through any member of the committee. We look forward to seeing you there.

In our Gardens we can prune spring flowering shrubs, cut down the foliage of bulbs and lift and divide overgrown clumps of bulbs. Summer bedding plants can be planted out in borders and into containers and hanging baskets. A liquid feed can be applied to lawns that will benefit from regular cutting and edging until the growth slows down. There is so much to do but find time to sit and enjoy your efforts.

Enjoy your gardening! Carole Frost.

Christian Message June 2023

Endings and beginnings

This year has been a time of endings and beginnings. You only grow by coming to the end of something and by beginning something else. We have experienced the ending of the shortest term of office for a Prime Minister and the appointment of a new one: the end of the longest reigning monarch and the beginning of the reign of our new King. We saw the lifting of nearly all covid-19 restrictions, and we welcomed the reopening of international borders.

Not all endings are positive, however. We have also seen the end of low inflation resulting in the higher cost of living; the end of peace for some countries and the beginning of war.

Over Easter, Christians commemorate an ending and a beginning. Jesus' closest friends, his disciples, thought that Jesus' dying on the cross to save us from sin, from all of the messed-up parts of our life was the end; however, death was not the end as Christians believe that he rose again from the dead to new life, on Easter morning. This gives us all the promise of a new beginning, full of hope and anticipation.

I finish my time in the Len Valley Benefice mid-July and will begin a new era in a parish nearer to where I live. Sometimes endings bring sweet sorrow as although we are sad to leave, it is really farewell rather than goodbye, and an embracing of what is to come.

Thank you for making my time here such a rich one, full of love and support. I pray that for whatever you may be experiencing in life at the moment, 'whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. (Philippians 4.8).
