

68 When You and I Were Young, Maggie

INTRO: [C//] / [G7////] [C////]

I [C] wandered [C7] today to the [F] hill, Maggie
To [C] watch the scene [G] below [G7]
The [C] creek and the [C7] rusty old [F] mill, Maggie
As [C] we sat [G7] long, long [C] ago [C7]
The [F] green grove is gone from the [C] hill, Maggie
Where [G] first the [D7] daisies [G] sprung [G7]
The [C] creaking old [C7] mill is [F] still, Maggie
Since [C] you and [G7] I were [C] young [G7]

CHORUS:

And [F] now we are aged and [C] grey, Maggie
And the [G] trials of life nearly [G] done [G7]
Let us [C] sing of the days that are [F] gone, Maggie...
When [C] you and [G7] I... were [C] young [G7]

A [C] city so [C7] silent and [F] lone, Maggie
Where the [C] young and the gay and the [G] best [G7]
In [C] polished white [C7] mansions of [F] stone, Maggie
Have [C] each found a [G7] place of [C] rest [C7]
Is [F] built where the birds used to [C] play, Maggie
And [G] join in the [D7] songs that were [G] sung [G7]
For we [C] sang as [C7] gay as [F] they, Maggie
When [C] you and [G7] I were [C] young [G7]

CHORUS:

And [F] now we are aged and [C] grey, Maggie
And the [G] trials of life nearly [G] done [G7]
Let us [C] sing of the days that are [F] gone, Maggie...
When [C] you and [G7] I... were [C] young [G7]

They [C] say I am [C7] feeble with [F] age, Maggie
My steps [C] are less sprightly than [G] then [G7]
My [C] face is a [C7] well-written [F] page, Maggie
But [C] time [G7] alone was the [C] pen
They [F] say we are aged and [C] grey, Maggie
As [G] spray by the [D7] white breakers [G] flung [G7]
But to [C] me you're as [C7] fair as you [F] were, Maggie
When [C] you and [G] I were [C] young [G7]

CHORUS:

And [F] now we are aged and [C] grey, Maggie
And the [G] trials of life nearly [G] done [G7]
Let us [C] sing of the days that are [F] gone, Maggie...
When [C] you and [G7] I... were [C] young [G7]

PLAY SLOWLY TO THE END

When [C] you and [G7] I... were [C] young [G7!] C!]
