The Chairman read out a statement on behalf of a resident of Church Hill related to two vehicles parked on the A329. Summarised as follows: the resident described a dramatic rise in traffic volume and speeding—particularly by heavy goods vehicles over the past 25 years. Despite a 20mph limit, drivers frequently travel at much higher speeds, sometimes overtaking those obeying the law. The resident feels that authorities at all levels have failed to enforce speed limits or protect villagers and notes two serious past accidents at the bottom of the hill.

Because of this ongoing danger, the resident supports the recent decision by an unknown individual to park two vehicles on Church Hill, as these parked cars have significantly slowed traffic, especially heavy goods vehicles, without causing any issues for careful drivers. Previous traffic-calming measures, such as a chicane, reduced speed limits, and school crossing lights, have not solved the problem. The resident intends to continue supporting the presence of the parked vehicles until an effective, permanent solution is implemented, expressing concern that property damage will increase if speeding continues unchecked.

Another resident read a statement, summarised as follows: Many residents believe the village has a serious speeding problem that must be addressed.

- Recent weeks have shown deep community division over the use of parked vehicles on Church Hill and Stadhampton Road as an informal traffic-calming measure. Some residents support it, while others strongly oppose it, and both vehicles suffered criminal damage.
- Since the A329 became an A-road in the 1970s, traffic—especially heavy goods vehicles—has increased significantly.
- Over the years, the Parish Council has introduced several measures to slow traffic, including chicanes, a speed camera, traffic lights, entrance gates, and a 20mph limit. Despite these efforts, speeding remains a problem.
- Some residents feel nothing more can be done, but recent complaints have prompted renewed police interest, and County Councillor engagement.
- Speeding is not limited to Church Hill or Stadhampton Road; residents report issues on Thame Road, Haseley Road, and the High Street.
- The Parish Council needs to understand the true scale and locations of both real and perceived speeding.
- A proposed Speed Response Plan includes:
 - Speaking with the individual who parked the two cars to understand their motivations.
 - Commissioning a village-wide traffic and speed survey through Oxfordshire County Council (OCC), with findings reported back to residents.
 - Exploring further traffic-calming options such as speed humps or an additional speed camera.
 - Working with Thames Valley Police (TVP) and OCC to recalibrate or replace the existing speed camera.
 - Installing the long-delayed SID (Speed Indicator Device).

- Restarting the Community Speed Watch programme with police support.
 - Requesting TVP to conduct random radar checks to increase enforcement visibility.
 - Bringing together TVP and County Council representatives to review the situation and future options.
 - Considering hiring a traffic consultant, potentially funded through CIL.
- The author believes a thorough study of traffic volume and speed would be a worthwhile investment for the Parish Council.

Several further residents made representations reiterating the points made above and adding the risk to pedestrians when walking along the A329 from speeding vehicles and heavy goods vehicles. Vehicle emissions create air pollution a risk to pedestrians and especially to children walking to school in the village. Vehicles need to travel at a constant speed through the village.

{Post meeting note: The owner of the vehicles submitted the following statement to the Parish Council via email on Tuesday 16 December - 'Two vehicles were parked lawfully on the road while works at my property were underway. Thames Valley Police officers confirmed the vehicles were legally parked before removal. Any traffic calming effect was incidental.'}
