INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the 5th Jane Austen Regency Week, a week-long celebration of the time Jane Austen spent living and writing in the local area. Her house in Chawton village is known to many, but less well recognised is her link with Alton. Jane regularly made the two mile journey into Alton to shop, visit friends, use her brother's bank, attend church services and concerts, and generally avail herself of the town's facilities.

Alton is a friendly community that enjoys many interesting and entertaining town centre events each year. This year it is pleasing to report that Alton Town Council are restarting our carnival as part of our Queen's Jubilee celebrations. If you need somewhere to stay, there are quite a few hotels and guest houses (listed on our website), as well as a good number of hostelries!

We invite you to read through this programme to find out about the many and varied events taking place during this week. Below are some pictures of past events to give you a flavour of what goes on.

HARP CONCERT

Event: Harp concert with Mike Parker

Venue: Jane Austen's House Museum,
Chawton, Hampshire GU34 1SD

Time: 7pm

Detail: The harp is perhaps one of the most iconic images of music-making in the period of Austen's works. Here is chance to hear the instruments Jane would have been envisioning as she wrote, and to explore the 'domestic' repertoire her harpist characters would have been familiar with, along with a little harp history, and perhaps, just a little scandal!

Info: www.jane-austens-house-museum.org.uk

Tickets: £12 / £10 concessions

CHORAL EVENSONG

Event: Church service with Regency music
'Madding Crowd'/St Lawrence choir

Venue: St. Lawrence Church, Church Street,
Alton, Hampshire. GU34 2BW

Time: 6.30pm (Doors open 6.15pm)

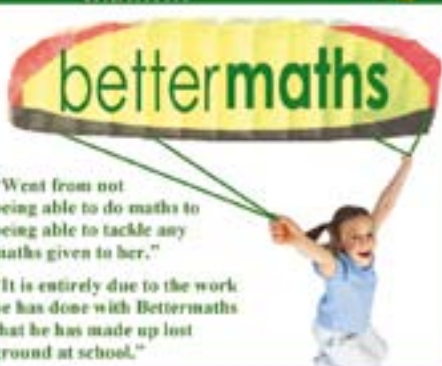

Detail: Enter into the spirit of the event and if you wish, dress in a regency costume. The 'Madding Crowd' are running a workshop during Sunday afternoon in the church hall (refreshments supplied). Anyone who can sing in tune and read a bit of music can take part. Madding Crowd use instruments and those who play strings (violin, cello, viola), clarinet, bassoon, flute etc are very welcome to take part.

KATIE HALSEY TALK

Event: Talk: 'A Fine Pair of Eyes'; sight & insight into Jane Austen's novels, plus a book launch

Venue: Chawton House Library, Chawton, Hampshire. GU34 1SJ

Time: 6.30pm Drinks reception

Detail: When Mr Darcy meditates on the pleasure bestowed by "a pair of fine eyes" in Pride and Prejudice, he does so because eyes are so very expressive. Dr Katie Halsey explores the relationship between the physical eye and the eyes of the mind in Austen's novels. The event is also the launch of Katie's new book: Jane Austen & her Readers, 1786 - 1945.
