Ladbroke Village Trail

LADBROKE HERITAGE

HERITAGE FUND

Key

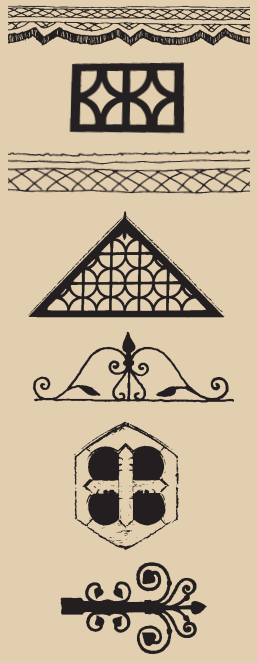
Footpaths

Walking route

100 metres

N

Look out for patterns in thatch, wood and iron.



Ladbroke House
A founder of Ladbroke betting firm once lived here.

LOT BROOK

SOUTHAM ROAD

Southam

Wanted and unwanted routes
The bypass, suggested in 1915, was finally built in 1985 to the delight of villagers. A railway line through Ladbroke in 1850 was thwarted; 170 years later HS2 comes close by.

The Pound
Held stray animals until the fine was paid.

The Forge
Horses waited for the blacksmith under the chestnut tree.

Private

High House
18th century farmhouse.

HEDGES CLOSE

WINDMILL LANE

Footpath to Southham (2 miles)

Millennium Green
Wildlife and recreation space.

The Cottage
Once a shop.

Ladbroke Church
Over 700 years old, with magnificent east window.

Farmyard Field
Site of original Manor House; heavy rain fills the old fish ponds.

The Old School
1876–1979.

SCHOOL LANE

The Croft
16th century farmhouse.

Deppers Bridge and M40

Church Cottage

CHURCH ROAD

Private

The Old Well House
Former village dairy.

BRIDGE LANE

BANBURY ROAD

A423 LADBROKE BYPASS

Ladbroke Hall
Elegant 18th century Manor House, now apartments.

LOT BROOK

Sarah's Cottage

Attwood Cottage

The Bell Inn
Ladbroke's last pub. The Crown and The Swan are now cottages.

Ladbroke Village Hall
Repurposed WW1 hut.

Site of WW2 POW camp
Initially for Italian prisoners, then Germans.

Tollgate Cottage
Site of gate for Banbury to Coventry toll road which opened in 1750.

RADBOURNE LANE

Public footpath to viewpoint (300m)

Banbury