Borough Councillor Carr:

Spring Hill:

Planning – application behind chapel, there was no objection but the Parish Council, it is believed that this will need to go to Development control committee after the election and reviewed by the highway safety team there has also been support from school for the application.

Land next to the Bourne Vally Inn there are additional changes to the plan but these are fundamental to the current boundaries.

There is a planned visit with the Managing Director of Vitacress 13th May to understand the wider business, to understand any issues with the rivulet and to build relationships.

On the 5th May there are elections, there will be considerable changes and moves and there has also been some resignations
