News from St. Nicholas Church

A very Happy New Year to everyone.

Morning Prayers will be held in St. Nicholas on Tuesday 8th January at 9.30am lasting about half an hour.

Craft Fair: The Church had a stall at the Craft Fair which was held in the Village Hall on 9th December. We had a very successful day selling jams, cards, Christmas bunting and other decorations etc. Christine King joined us and sold her calendars with scenes of Boughton Malherbe which are also for sale in the Village Shop.

Carol Service: We held our Carol Service on 14th December this year and the Church looked lovely with the decorations lit by candlelight. There were not as many people present this year and we are wondering if it was because of the earlier date - we would be grateful for some feed back on this. Thank you to all the people who read a lesson during the service and to the Choir who were struggling with colds and sore throats. We served mulled wine and mince pies after the service. Thanks also to the ladies who helped to decorate and clean the Church - these events would not be so enjoyable if it wasn't for the background workers.

Carol Singing: The Carol Singing evening was on 18th December, organised this year by Carol Hulm we spent a happy evening visiting the Old Rectory, March Farm, The Who'd a Thought It and the Kings Head. We were very strong group this year with about 20 people joining us. Thank you to Beverley Hone for playing her guitar, Carol Hulm on her squeezebox and John Moore on his harmonica. We were collecting for Demelza House Children's Hospice and raised £112. The Church choir will be singing at Chilston Park Hotel on Christmas Eve for which they receive a cheque from the management, so the Hospice will receive a worthwhile cheque again this year.

The Crib Service was held at 4pm on Christmas Eve at St. Nicholas lead by Sally Alexander. The Posada Family returned to Church after its journey around the Parish, staying a night in the home of a child throughout December until Christmas Eve.

Village Coffee Morning will be held on 9th January 10.30-12.00. Do come and join us it was lovely to see two new faces at the last gathering

The new Kitchen and Toilet at St. Nicholas are well under way and we were able to serve the mulled wine and mince pies from the kitchen after the Carol Service. We are all very excited by the fact that our dream is almost a reality - we now have running water both hot and cold and a sink which is wonderful. There is still quite a lot to do with cupboards for storage to be made and then there will be plenty of sorting out of china we have accumulated for the Cream teas, finding a place for everything and deciding how to order the Chapel when it can then be returned to a Chapel.

A Ploughman's Lunch is planned for 23rd January to be held at Ferndown, Woodcock Lane, Grafty Green, 12.00-2.00pm. Entrance will be £7.50, which will include Soup and crusty bread, a Ploughman's and a Sweet. Tickets will be available from Sylvia Close and Rob at the Village shop.

Grafty Green Christmas Quiz

Once again the Christmas quiz was well supported, and a great success. Due to everyone's generosity we made over £1200 which, in these difficult times, was quite amazing. This will be donated to the Village Hall and St Nicholas Church. Thank you to everyone who helped on the night and also those that organised various fund raising events throughout the year. A big thank you to Nail for being such an expert quizmaster and for keeping everyone in order and our appreciation goes to all those people who donated Raffle prizes.

Grafty Green Village Hall News

As we embark on a new year, everything that happened before Christmas now seems a long time ago. However this is the first opportunity I've had to offer two important "thank you"s.

Firstly our thanks go to Teegan Jezard and her helpers, who organised a wonderful craft fare in the Hall and then donated the pitch fees plus raffle & refreshment income, to Hall funds. Secondly, many thanks to the organisers of the Christmas quiz, which also was a fantastic evening and resulted in another significant donation to our coffers.

You are entitled to ask what we do with the income we receive. Well, of course, much is inevitably paid over to water, electricity and insurance companies (although we've managed to reduce our outgoings to all three of these over the last year). Any balance we put towards maintaining and improving the Hall. Many of you will have noted the new chairs, bought last summer, and next time you visit you will benefit from the heaters we've now installed in both toilets. The cold and damp in the toilets during winter months has been a source of concern for a long time and I'm delighted that the fund-raising efforts of so many local people has, at last, enabled us to do something about it. The quiz organisers have this year decided that they would like their contribution to be put towards a really good, carved oak, "Village Hall" sign to replace the plastic one we presently have – so look out for that this year.

The other thing that an improving cash-flow enables us to do is to put on bigger and better events – and there's one coming up on Saturday 9th Feb! I can promise you good food and great entertainment in the French style! Do come if you can, and – if you feel like donning a beret or stripy top, you will not be alone! French fever will be growing over the next month, so "ne miss out pas!" as we French speakers say. Tickets will be available soon from Robert Turner (Tel. 850325), Sarah Cutbill (850774) or Rob at the village shop, priced at 18 Euros (or £15, if you insist).

Thank You And A Happy New Year To The Residents Of Grafty Green From Mary O'Connell

I am taking advantage of the opportunity afforded by the publication of the January edition of the parish magazine to express my gratitude for the considerations that so many of you have shown me in the form of cards, phone calls and messages over the past few weeks. They have all meant so much to me.

I wish I could send each of you a personal message of thanks, but I hope that you understand that my current circumstances mean that I have a very limited amount of energy. But please, each of you take this message as a big THANK YOU that is meant just for you.

Finally, I would like to say a special thank you to Steve without whom I might still be incarcerated in Maidstone Hospital. I spent eight days in the hospital and was no wiser at the end of the eighth day than at the beginning of the first as to the reason for my current condition. My incapacitation became intolerable when I felt that I had lost control of my own life and so I made the decision to leave. The trip back home in Steve's car was one of the most wonderful journeys of my life. Thank you Steve.

Once again a heartfelt thanks to you all and my sincere wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.

Mary O'Connell

News from Ulcombe Village School

An Incredible Christmas and a Wonderful New Year

December has been full of incident and activity as we have worked steadily towards our Christmas celebrations. We have reached the end of Term 2, which has seen the children focus on 'Celebrations' in their learning. We have learnt about a wide variety of celebrations and how some of them have changed over time.

Read on to find out more about the activities that have taken place for Christmas, including the FUS Christmas Fayre, the children's Christmas Dinner, Christmas play and the Christmas Service, which takes place this afternoon.

The term has certainly been a long one and it has shown in the number of coughs, colds and tummy upsets that children (and adults) have picked up during the last week or so. We hope everyone will be back, fit and healthy for the new term on Monday 7th January 2013!

Ulcombe Celebrates Christmas

Several events have taken place in Ulcombe as we enjoy the festive season. In school we have enjoyed our FUS Christmas Fayre, the Nativity with The Supersonic Lamb, our Christmas Dinner and the school Christmas Party. The children have thoroughly enjoyed all of the different activities they have been able to take part in. Thank you to all of parents, friends and staff who have worked hard to make these events such a success in the various ways.

The Supersonic Lamb was performed wonderfully well by all of the children, with acting and singing which brought to life an entertaining story. Governors joined children and staff for our school Christmas Lunch again this year, and everyone enjoyed a lovely lunch as well as Christmas crackers and music during our meal.

We ended the term with our Christmas Service and we were pleased that so many people were able to join us at All Saints Parish Church during the afternoon. Well done to all of the children who helped us to celebrate Christmas, with each of the classes doing their bit. Thanks to everyone who walked up Ulcombe Hill with the children before the service.

Friends of Ulcombe School

The FUS Christmas Fayre took place on Friday 14th December from 6.30pm. Father Christmas joined us again this year, and proved to be as popular as ever. There was a wide range of items to buy, including hand-made crafts and treats made by the children, as well as games and activities to enjoy. It was fantastic to see so many people there filling the School Hall!

Congratulations to Barn Owls who won a prize for gaining the most number of baubles on their Class Christmas Tree. The Christmas Raffle, for a luxury Christmas Hamper, was won by one of our friends in the village. The Faces of 2012 Competition was won by friends of the school whilst it was a former pupil who won the Sweets in the Jar. Pupils at the school found Santa's Lost Christmas Presents. Congratulations to all of our prize winners, and many thanks to everyone who bought tickets, picked squares, named the daces or earned a bauble. Thanks also to everyone without whose generosity we would not have had prizes to give!

Special thanks go to all of the FUS, their partners and friends for all of their hard work before, during and after the event. In particular we must thank Mrs Arundel and Mrs Tew, the Chair and Vice-Chair of FUS, for all of their hard work in organizing the Fayre with the FUS Committee.

Our thanks also go to FUS for donating advent calendars to each class. Tawny Owls have enjoyed finding a new Christmas joke each day, whilst Barn Owls and Owlets have found a new Christmas image every time. FUS have also very kindly worked with Father Christmas to arrange for a presents to be given to each class. Tawny Owls received a snooker and pool table and some board games, Barn Owls received board games and the whole series of Harry Potter books, whilst Owlets received a water and ball slide and buckets and spades to use in their sand pit. Thank you very much from all of the children.

Charity Corner

This term has seen us raise an awful lot of money for charity once again. We are always amazed at people's generosity and we are very grateful for all the donations that have been made.

Early in the term we took part in BBC's Children In Need and we raised almost £130. This week we are raising money for Demelza Children's Hospice in different ways. Collections after the performances of Thee Supersonic Lamb and today's Christmas Service will be added to money raised by staff who are taking part in a 'Share-a-Card' scheme. The final total is expected to be in excess of £100, which is a wonderful total for our small school.

Very many thanks to everyone who has contributed for this tremendously worthwhile cause.

Choosing a School for September 2013

Do you know anyone who is looking for a school for their child in the future? Children who were born between September 2008 and August 2009 should be starting school during the coming academic year. The deadline for applying for a school place for next September is fast approaching. More information is available in school and online at www.kent.gov.uk.

If you or anyone you know would like to see the school in action, contact the School Office (01622 842903 - office@ulcombe.kent.sch.uk) to arrange a visit.

And Finally...

Thank you to everyone who has supported the school during 2012, which has been an incredible year. With the Queen's Diamond Jubilee, Olympics and Paralympics there have been plenty of national events to participate in. I would also like to pass on thanks for the kind wishes that have been passed on to my wife and I following the birth of our first daughter. It has certainly made a remarkable year even more special in the Hampton household!

Very best wishes for 2013,

Yoga Classes Grafty Green Village Hall

The yoga classes will start again for 2013

Wednesday evenings 7 to 8.30 on January 9th and Thursday mornings 9.30 to 11 on January 10th

in Grafty Green Village Hall.

Yoga is an ancient system of physical and mental development that is known to develop suppleness, strength and stamina and to concentrate the mind. Practicing yoga enables all the body's muscles to be worked but avoiding over-training specific muscle groups; posture, balance, agility and grace can all be achieved through yoga. If you would like to enroll and experience the effects of yoga contact me by calling 850381 or email grafityyoga@gmail.com.

I have a web site: www.yogawithsusan.co.uk which gives more details about yoga and the classes.

Maidstone Borough Council news release:

27th December 2012

Ref: LS/121212

Who'd A Thought It! Bottle Banks in Grafty Green

New glass recycling containers have been installed at the 'Who'd A Thought It' Public House, Headcorn Road, Grafty Green.

Glass bottles and jars need to be colour sorted into the correct container: green, brown and clear. Blue glass can be recycled with green.

Every household in the UK uses on average 331 bottles and jars each year. Recycling just two glass bottles saves enough energy to boil the water for five cups of tea!

Cabinet Member for the Environment, Councillor Marion Ring said: "It is great news that we have more recycling containers for more material to be recycled. This will save valuable resources, and increase the amount of waste recycled."

For more information on your recycling services and a full list of all recycling sites across the borough, please visit www.maidstone.gov.uk, email customerservices@maidstone.gov.uk or call 01622 602600.

Music Notes, January 2013

Well, you may have had your fill of Christmas concerts in December, but Christmas doesn't end until twelfth night, and so there is still the opportunity for more in January. Beyond that it is a bit more difficult to find concerts in January, as many choirs and orchestras are now in "purdah" working on their next event following a Christmas performance. However, if you are prepared to make a bit of a journey, you can still find music in Kent (though not by searching the internet!). Here is the result of my investigations:

- Sunday 6th Jan., 7.30pm at the United reformed church, Week Street, Maidstone – Maidstone choral union have a twelfth night concert. Free entry, with a retiring collection.
- Friday 18th Jan., 7.30pm at Sutton Valence School - Sutton Valence Music Society sponsor a concert by Rosalind Ventris on the viola. Tickets at the door only.
- Saturday 19th Jan, 7.30 in Canterbury Cathedral - Canterbury choral Society perform Moteverdi's Vespers. Tickets 01227 787787
- Saturday 26th Jan, at Gravesend Methodist Church, there is the opportunity not just to listen, but to join Gravesham Choral Society in an "instant" performance of Britten's Rejoice in the lamb and Poulenc's Gloria. Rehearsal at 3.00pm if you wish to participate; performance at 7.30pm. Tickets 01474 816684

My suggestions for the stop-at-homes this month are the New Year's Day Concert from Vienna on 1st Jan on BBC 1 (time tbc) and the six part series on the history of Western music from Gregorian chant to Gershwin presented by Howard Goodall on BBC 2, starting on 25th January.

Grafty Gourmet

A dish so simple, yet so mouth wateringly spectacular to eat. The flavour and colour of the chorizo are infused with the chicken and potatoes whilst roasting. This dish really does not need to be served with any thing else. Simply serve and enjoy.

Spanish Chicken with Chorizo

Serves: 4 - 6

2 tablespoons of olive oil
12 chicken thighs (bone in with skin)
750 gms chorizo sausage - cut into 2cm chunks
1 kg of new potatoes - halved
2 red onions - roughly chopped
2 teaspoon(s) dried oregano
zest of 1 orange
30 cherry tomatoes - sliced half way through (not cut in half)

Method

1. Preheat the oven to 220°C. Put the oil in the bottom of 2 roasting tins, (1 tablespoon in each).
2. Rub the skin of the chicken in the oil, then turn skin-side up, 6 pieces in each tin. Divide the chorizo sausages and the new potatoes between the 2 tins. Sprinkle the onion and the oregano over, then grate the orange zest over the contents of the 2 tins.
3. Cook for 45 minutes, but half way through, swap the top tray with the bottom tray in the oven and add the tomatoes. Baste the contents with the orange coloured juices.

ABOUT GOOGLE CHROME - (3rd Article on the Cloud)

If you are a Google person, and use Google mail and Google Chrome, then sharing your information has been made easy.

There are many features available to you from Google, which can be seen in the menu items visible at the top of the screen when you have Google Chrome installed.

Google Chrome is a browser that combines a minimal design with sophisticated technology to make the web faster, safer, and easier

You can easily find Google Chrome to install by using search in your browser, select Google Chrome and follow the instructions to install

Once installed you will need to Sign-in to get access to all the features, you will need to select a username and password.

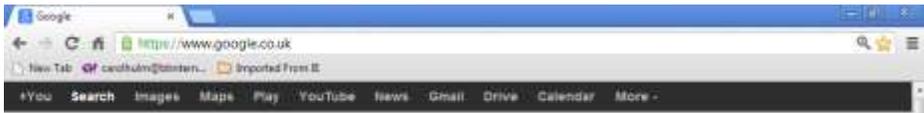

You can look at all the features and select them to be easily accessible every time you log in and you can customise your Google page.

When you select a new tab at the top of the screen, you will see the most recent web sites that you have accessed on the main screen, making it easy to locate sites that you use regularly

You are still able to save your "favourites", but they are called "bookmarks" in Google. There is also a bookmark manager to help you organise things. To find the Bookmark manager, you will need to right-click on the toolbar at the top of the window, just under the address line, the menu should allow you to select Bookmark Manager, which will then display your bookmarks in a folder management view. You can also import your favourites from other browsers that you have used in the past.

On the home page of Google Chrome, you will see a menu bar, just under the address bar. This is where you can share information, or view what other people have shared with you. You will also see a few other quick links to commonly used websites. See below for a quick guide on each of these items.

Menu Item	Description
+You	This is where you can set up a public profile and sign up for Google+ and where you can add people to share information with. For more details about this, select +You and then scroll to the bottom and select About Google+. There you will see what it is all about.
Search	This will take you to the standard Google Search page
Images	This is where you can search for images or upload your own images
Maps	This will take you to Google maps, where you can select any map that you need around the world
Play	This is where you can Shop for Music, Books, Magazines, Movies and Apps for mobile devices
YouTube	This will take you to YouTube where you can search and view the vast library of YouTube videos
News	This is a link to the latest News items, you can change the country and you can search other areas of interest
Gmail	This will take you to your Google mail account, but you don't have to use Google mail, if you have a different account. When you sign-up for Google Chrome you can select to use a different email address and can sign-in with this if you want to keep your existing email address.
Drive	This is where you can share your documents, by uploading them and where you can see documents that have been shared with you by others.
Calendar	This is where you can add events or meetings and invite other people to your events and share the calendar with them.
More	There are many more features that you can select, for example: Translate, Blogger, Photos and Video. Also there are further features in Even More, which will take you to a page of all available features for you to select.

The January Night Sky

The Sun is in the constellation of Sagittarius at beginning of January, and moves into Capricornus .

New Moon occurs on Friday 11th January, and Full Moon is on Sunday 27th January when in Cancer.

Mercury can be seen low in the southwest in early evening in the constellation of Capricornus. We will have to wait until later in the month before we can see this elusive planet in the evening sky.

Venus rises in the southeast just before sunrise and is still a bright object in the early morning sky.

Mars is briefly visible low in the east at sunrise in the constellation of Capricornus..

Jupiter is again well placed for viewing in the evenings this month. It is high in the southeast at dusk and shines all night, setting in the west at dawn. Though a telescope you should be able to see the dark and light bands together with the Great Red Spot.

It may also be possible to see, even through binoculars, Jupiter's four major moons.

Saturn is rising in the southeast in the early hours of the morning, and is well up in the southern sky at dawn. Relative to the stars it is moving very slowly westwards near the constellation of Libra. Through a telescope you should be able to see the famous rings together with many of its moons.

The Quadrantid meteor shower produces a good display during the first week of January. They appear to radiate from a point in the now disused constellation of Quadrans Muralis, between the bright star Vega and the "handle" of the Plough. This point is low in the north at midnight, and climbs high in the east by dawn. The best time to see the meteors is expected to be in the early hours of Friday 4th January.

Last month I gave you the latest information on NASA's Curiosity Rover, and promised to keep you informed. NASA scientists have just announced that there are plans to launch another mission to Mars following the success of the Rover. The vehicle, which will be built from spare parts left over from the one-ton Curiosity, with a planned launch in 2020.

Not too religious!

"I expected it to be more religious and I was relieved that it wasn't." This comment was made by one of last year's brides about the Len Valley Churches' Marriage Day which she and her partner had attended Her summing up was, "Very useful!"

Planning a wedding can be fraught. Couples have many questions about church weddings. Who will arrange the flowers? Shall we have the choir? Who will conduct the service? The marriage day is an opportunity to meet those who can answer such questions.

This year's Marriage Day will be held in Lenham Community Centre on Saturday February 9th from 9.30am to 3.30pm. Couples planning a wedding in this year or even in 2014 are invited to attend. Informality is the keynote and experience shows that couples appreciate meeting others preparing for their big day.

It would be helpful if couples planning to attend would notify the church office on 01622 850604.

Christian message January 2013

“Can I play?”

When I was a boy, there was a group of boys along the street that hung out together and did exciting things that I wanted to be part of. Like build go-karts (no motors in those days!) which were death traps of splintering wood and old pram wheels that went down our local hills at an impressive speed. So I plucked up courage one day and said “can I join in?” The short answer (if I had realised it) was “no.” The long answer was “you can join our club if you .....” And I was set a series of tasks that were impossible to complete. You can probably remember such situations yourself.

I worry that our faith or churches sometimes seem to be a bit like that unofficial lad’s club. Difficult to join, and a bit exclusive unless you know the right people, or the right things to do.

Of course it shouldn’t be like that. To be a church member is to be a member of God’s family: loved by God and precious to him. That’s something that’s open to everyone. Something that God really wants for us all and that he’d do anything to achieve. That’s why Jesus – God’s Son – came and lived and died here.

I was talking with some people the other day. They asked if they could come to a service at church. The fact that they asked the question means we haven’t got it right and we can be seen as a private club. If so, on behalf of all our churches, I’m sorry. God’s promise is that everyone is important and everyone has their own special part to play in the world and that we all may receive his help to live in the best possible way – and that no-one is excluded. Everyone is welcome.

It’s sometimes said that church is the only “club” that should exist for its non-members. I believe that’s true and I hope that it’s true for our churches in the Len Valley area.

We hope that the new glass doors in two of our churches (as well as work ongoing or planned in them all) show our desire to be open, welcoming and inviting. So yes, you can come in, you are welcome to join us on any and all occasions, and we hope you will.

Happy New Year!

Further than Africa.....

An article in November's Malherbe Monthly mentioned that the proceeds of the sale of St Nicholas church Harvest Festival had been given to TEAR Fund which was described as an African charity.

In 1969 Sir Cliff Richard organised 2 concerts in the Albert Hall to raise money for TEAR fund. A Church of England clergyman, Rev George Hoffman was the founder of the charity. Now, nearly 45 years on, it is one of the leading relief and development organisations in the world and its head office is still in Teddington. TEAR Fund works with other Christian agencies and churches across the world to tackle the cause and effects of poverty.

Whether it's flooding in Pakistan or an earthquake in Haiti one of TEAR Fund's fully trained and equipped disaster relief teams is soon on the spot. Other areas of work include helping the victims of human trafficking; AIDS education and practical schemes to help farmers reduce the impact of climate change. This is a charity well worth supporting.
