CONGRATULATIONS

Margaret Lindley, our church organist, fellow member of the Congregation, and friend to many in Kirton, will celebrate her 60th birthday on July 1st. Margaret has played the organ in church for many years, and we would like to take this opportunity to thank her once again, for her dedication and support. Margaret, we send you lots of love, and wish you a very Happy Birthday !

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Jacob Fowles and Ryan Bromley, on their recent marriage, the official part of which took place on Friday, June 22nd, at Worksop Registry Office. Then, at 2pm on Saturday, in the field, behind the 'Homestead', Kirton, celebrant, Julie Beech, conducted a beautiful mock wedding ceremony, in the presence of family and friends, who sat on straw bales, topped with wooden planks. The reception was held in the beautifully decorated marquee on the site, and the village partied and rocked until the early hours. May we wish Jake and Ryan every happiness in their future life together !

BANNS

Emily Drury and Matthew Alcock, of Kirton Court, had their final Banns of marriage read last Sunday at Kirton Church. They will be married at The Holy Rood Church, Ossington, where Emily's parents are both Churchwardens, on July 21st. May we also offer them much happiness in their married life together !

OPEN CHURCHES WEEKEND CELEBRATING MARRIAGE - JULY 7th -8th

As featured in the June newsletter, Laxton will open its doors on Saturday, July 7th , with a display of wedding dresses, photos, flowers, cakes, music playing, tea, coffee ,cake etc (10.30am -5.30pm). On Sunday 8th, Joan Wood will officiate at a 'Songs of Praise' service featuring favourite wedding hymns, at 10.30am

Most churches in the group will be open, including Kirton and Walesby - and most will hold a 'Songs of Praise' service (See the service sheet for times etc)

BEST KEPT VILLAGE COMPETITION

Great news - Kirton has been judged on the first stage of the Best Kept Village competition, and, we have just heard that we are good enough to advance into the next round ! We are now up against three other villages, Linby, Barnby-in-the-Willows and Granby. Well done to everybody - we have done well to get this far ! Now, we need to pretty the village up with flowers for the next phase - judging takes place sometime in the next three weeks! If anyone can help by displaying flowers on their frontages, it would be very helpful (not blocking pavements etc) Good luck Kirton !

HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON TO EVERYBODY
