Then he dragged me off the floor, he told me not to come back no more,

C

G

C

the big, ugly bouncer threw me out the door, and then he kicked me.

2. Now each time he kicked me he couldn't wait to do it again,

C

C

his shoes were so nice, it seemed to take my mind off the pain.

I started seeing stars above, I asked him not to be so rough, he said, "You always hurt the ones you love !" And then he kicked me!

C

C

F

He kicked me in a place where I've never been kicked before, he kicked me so hard I know I won't be dancing anymore, ow !

D

G

C

3. I knew he was a swine when he gave me all the kicks that he had,

C

G

C

he must have felt sorry 'cos he told me that I wasn't so bad.

Then he picked me up off the floor, promised not to hit me no more, he carried me back inside the door, and then he kissed me.

C

C
