News from St. Nicholas Church

Silent Auction for the Pews - There has been some interest shown in the pews for which we are holding a Silent Auction. It is proposed to receive bids for the auction until 25th May, by which time people will have had time to consider if they are interested or not.

To refresh your memories there is one pew which will seat three persons and one that will seat six persons. If you would like to view them please get in touch with one of the Churchwardens. Their telephone numbers can be found in the front of the magazine and arrangements will be made for you to view the pews, which are in store, before placing your bid.

Morning Prayers will be said in St. Nicholas and All Saints Ulcombe on alternate Tuesdays during May at 9.30am. The next meeting is on the 7th and then the 21st May at St. Nicholas and 14th and 28th at All Saints, Ulcombe.

Village Coffee Morning - This will be held on the Village Hall Grafty Green between 10.30-12.00 noon on 8th May. Please come and support this event.

There is no charge but any donation you may like to give will be sent to a charity at the end of the year. There will be freshly made cheese scones and cakes served with coffee or tea - we hope to see you there.

Jam Jars - Once again we will be very pleased to receive any 1lb or 12oz jam and honey jars, which you may have kept for us. I'm afraid they must be a uniform size as this makes it easier to price the jams accurately. No coffee or pickle jars can be used.

Please ring Joan on 850210 and I can collect. Many thanks.

Joan Davidson

Grafty Green Village Hall News

Overspill car parking arrangements and crowd control contingency plans proved unnecessary for our recent AGM, when a dozen of us (mostly the existing committee) met to review the 20 months since the present committee was formed and to make our strategic plans for the future. But it meant larger servings of the promised wine and nibbles for those who attended - which may have added a rosy glow to our view of past achievements and contributed to the unbridled air of optimism for the future!

We took it as a compliment that there were no banner-waving protesters and considered it a silent vote of confidence in the existing committee that no one new came forward offering to join us. So the committee continues to comprise Richard Pilborough, Robert Turner, Carol Hulm, Sue Burch, Sarah Cutbill, Ann Henderson, Margaret Neaves, Barbara Pearce, Sandra Pilborough, Jacky Simmons and Jacqui Thompson. Votes of thanks were passed to Doreen Walter for her work in keeping the Hall clean and tidy, as well as handling Hall bookings, and to Gary Brooker for his prompt and efficient attention to all our maintenance needs.

HALL IMPROVEMENTS

Most recently, Gary has provided us with a removable shelving system in the kitchen. Deep shelves (stored in the Hall loft) can be attached whenever needed to permanent fittings on the kitchen wall to the left of the window. This is in response to those who have previously served food at Hall events and commented on the lack of surface area on which to lay out plates, etc. We hope the new arrangements help a little.

FUTURE EVENTS

Firstly, please tell all your friends (within and outside the village) about our fabulous comedy night on Thursday 30th May – see the separate advert in this magazine. We need the Hall full of laughter! And please help us assess demand by buying your tickets early. They are available now from Rob at the village shop or from Richard Pilborough, tel. 850484.

Finally, a summer date for your diary. Following the twin successes last year of the Olympic Games and the Grafty Green Jubilee celebration, we thought we'd combine them this year in a day of outdoor fun-and-games. It's 'Grafty Green does the (silly) Olympics!' You won't need to get into training, but you might well want to take part – and even if you only come to spectate, you'll have fun. So do note the date now, it's Saturday 31 August. More details in due course!

BUS SERVICE 59

Grafty Green – Maidstone via Ulcombe and Kingswood

NEW AFTERNOON SERVICE AND SOME TIMING CHANGES

A new timetable, reproduced in Malherbe Monthly, was introduced on Monday 25th March.

Mondays to Fridays

The big change is the re-introduction of an afternoon service to Maidstone, departing from Grafty Green at 13.25.

There are also two timing changes. The 12.20 service from Maidstone now departs ten minutes later at 12.30, and the 17.25 service from Maidstone now departs twenty minutes later at 17.45.

Saturdays

The 09.23 service from Grafty Green now departs at 09.30, bringing it in line with the Monday to Friday departure time.

All buses should or very soon will be easy access vehicles with no entrance steps.

The message remains – USE IT OR YOU MIGHT POSSIBLY LOSE IT

News from Ulcombe Village School

There is not so much to report from the school this month, as the start of April was also the start of the two week long Easter Holiday. However, work still carried on and improvements continued to be made whilst the children were enjoying their chocolate eggs and bunnies. Following significant work on the roof there was internal redecoration of the corridor, the junior cloakroom and toilets and the ceilings in the two junior classrooms to be completed. These have really freshened up the corridor area and prompted us to make a small start in purchasing library furniture. We are very grateful to all of the contractors and sub-contractors, especially our friends at Byford Roofing.

After writing the article for last month's edition, children from Tawny Owls class headed off to PGL Osmington Bay for a long weekend away from home. As in previous years we were joined by our friends from Platts Heath Primary and John Mayne CE Primary Schools. Though the weather was bitterly cold at times, the children had a fantastic time facing challenges and conquering fears. Well done to all of our adventurers.

Term 4 did not end in quite the way we expected, as the Easter Service had to be moved to the school instead of All Saints Parish Church. It was great to be joined by parents and friends despite the last minute change of plan. The change was necessary because of unexpected road works on Ulcombe Hill, that it appears no one had been informed about. We have received a profuse apology from Kent Highways, which they have asked us to share with of all those who were affected.

Supermarket Tokens Needed

Have you got any Sainsbury's Active Kids Vouchers waiting to be handed in to a school or club? If you, or any of your friends and family, have any tokens that you can bring in we would be delighted to receive them. We have benefited in all sorts of ways previously, from our school football kit to athletics equipment. These schemes continue to be of great benefit to us, so thank you very much to all of you who have sent in tokens from the various supermarket schemes in the past. At this moment we are unaware of Tesco's Plans for its 2013 scheme. We will pass on as much information as we can as soon as we have it.

What Do You Have In The Loft?

Children in Years 5 and 6 are creating a model railway again this year as part of a KCC and Hornby competition. Thank you very much to everyone who helped us last year. We will be using some of the items, including track and trains in our model this year. However, we are again asking if anyone would be willing to lend (or even donate) tracks, model trains or accessories to our young engineers? We are particularly keen to receive any model plants including grass, to make our scene look as real as possible. If you think you can help please contact the school at the earliest opportunity.

Looking Ahead

Events in May include Chance 2 Shine cricket coaching for all of the juniors, the National Tests for children in Year 6, National Walk to School Week and class and group photographs for us to look our best for. We will be thinking about the Queen's coronation towards the end of term. The 60th anniversary takes place before we return to school for Term 6.

All of you, our friends from the local community, are warmly invited to our next Ulcombe School Friends' Dinner on Wednesday 12th June. The older children will wait at the tables during the meal, and it will be followed by the children showing off various pieces of work and celebrating everything fathers, grandfathers, uncles, etc do to help us as we prepare for Father's Day on the following Sunday. This will cost £4.50, which includes a small donation to the school. If you would like to book your seat please contact the School Office.

Friends of Ulcombe School

Moving on through the summer, Saturday 22nd June is our Sports Day and Summer Fayre. This year we again plan to run our Sports Day from 11am, with the Summer Fayre following immediately afterwards. As ever, the closely fought races between the children (and adults!) will be followed by our Fayre, which always has a wonderful array of activities, refreshments and stalls.

Phil The Bank remains ever popular and will soon have gone passed £1,000 in terms of money raised for FUS. Thank you to every single one of you who has helped by recycling old clothes, curtains, shoes, handbags and more.

As ever, if you have any questions, or if you would like to offer your time to help in some way, please do not hesitate to get in touch with us in school. We hope to see you at one of the forthcoming events.

Best wishes,

Mr V Hampton, Head Teacher.

Yoga Classes Grafty Green Village Hall

Do you feel that you are being stretched in too many different directions? The family need you, your colleagues at work need you; your friends need you, the chores around the home are mounting up and you end up feeling frayed at the edges. When you experience a yoga practice you begin to experience the rejuvenation effect, shedding the stress and gaining energy and you are then able, somehow, to do more! This all happens in Grafty Green Village Hall.

If you would like to try a practice I am happy for you to dip in, maybe occasionally when the need arises (recharge the batteries); I am flexible in more ways than just physically!

Classes are on Wednesday evening 7 - 8.30 pm 17th April – 22nd May 6 weeks £36 and on Thursday morning 9.30 – 11 am 18th April – 23rd May, 6 weeks £36, not 2nd May but Wednesday morning 1st May 9.30 – 11am.

If you have an inclination to experience just meditation sessions I am happy to take appointments – Sue Burch 850381. For further details, other classes and events see my web www.yogawithsusan.co.uk

'Countryside facing 'warfare', says chairman of National Trust, ..as local communities.. fight vague new legislation' . So ran the leading story in the Daily Telegraph on March 7th, envisioning a future of 'rural communities fighting '.. a succession of housing and wind farm developments' .

Government's pronouncements on housing become daily more confusing. Construction is one area where the government rightly sees an urgent need for reversing that industry's downturn and getting us back to growth.

The new NPPF and Localism Bills must be clearly and rapidly redefined still further, so we can know exactly how Government intends to deal with the nation's massive housing shortage. WKPS' task is to see that this shortage is resolved without compromising the countryside with any more land-grabbing than absolutely necessary.

There are in place large development plans situated immediately around the major towns within our region. Like others, WKPS has to accept that such developments are needed. If we say 'no' to everything, we will rapidly become ignored. We have to strike a balance between much-needed housing and the countryside we wish to protect. Supporting outlying town developments can give us the moral authority to object to any such developments appearing in rural areas.

All authorities have scheduled consultation sessions, to discuss how these large schemes will progress. Those attending include groups from the Church, CPRE, Kent Wildlife, Rural Kent etc. as well as developers, landowners and Parish and Borough Councils. WKPS will be involved with these consultations to ensure our voice is properly heard.

After four years of economic stagnation, there are rumours of 'small green shoots'. Developers are certainly increasing their planning applications. Providing the constraints on lending do not continue to be dissuasive on those seeking new mortgages, these green shoots will translate into a greater number of new building starts. Without the clarification needed on the new legislation, this must be a time of great concern to anyone who cares for the countryside. Without Core Strategies firmly in place, developers can apply for planning permission almost anywhere. The new regulations require authorities to decide applications more rapidly - especially for large developments. Prolonged delay will produce an automatic presumption in favour.

Constant and detailed vigilance must be WKPS' watchword as we enter these new, uncertain times.

New planning rules are coming! Will they mean:

Chaotic house-building? Rampant development?

Little boxes on every hillside? Wind turbines everywhere?

Parish Calendar 2014

Now that spring has at last arrived there are plenty of photo opportunities for pictures for our 2014 calendar. I've already received some lovely ones, - but more will be needed!

People, pets, places, views, flora and fauna - whatever you like, please send to me at christine-king@hotmail.co.uk or leave in my mail box: Gowell Cottage, Boughton Malherbe.

Judy Porter

A familiar face is missing from Grafty Green. It is that of Judy Porter. Her sudden death on April 3rd came as a shock to the community. Three Chimneys had been the home of Les and Judy for many years and there can be few villagers who did not stop to chat with them when out on a walk.

Les died in January 2011 and it was then that I got to know Judy well. After Les' funeral she joined the Bible Study group which meets in my home and we all grew to appreciate her company. In March last year she was confirmed in Ulcombe church by the Bishop of Dover. Judy became a regular member of the St Nicholas cream teas team and helped at the monthly coffee morning.

Judy could not resist dogs and she enjoyed the company of Lassie, Misty and Poppett. The recent winter was hard for her but she continued to work and to smile. A few months ago she joined the Ulcombe Dramatic Amateur Society. She had often spoken about the enjoyment she and her parents derived from acting and decided to resume that interest. As a result many friends will remember her as a platinum blonde in the hilarious production of 'SShh Don't Mention the War!'

Sue Burch has written the following tribute: 'I admired Judy for her spontaneous acts of kindness; nothing was too much trouble and always with a smile. I loved the trust she had in the people that she counted as her friends and they were in abundance. I remember how she took the word of a friend that a pony – that was in Wales – was just right for her – that was enough, she met the horsebox at a service station and the pony came home with her! She was a gentle soul but had nerves of steel, and a character that showed great courage after Les died. I will miss her greatly.' Sue.

Judy's funeral will be at Charing Crematorium on Wednesday 8th May at 2.40.

Grafty Gourmet

This is a great recipe for vegetarians. The parmesan can be substituted for a vegetarian equivalent if required. As usual, a very simple but tasty dish to make and enjoy.

Spinach & Ricotta Gnocchi

|--|--|
| 200g of young spinach | 2 eggs |
| Small handful of parsley leaves – finely chopped | 100g of freshly grated parmesan cheese (use a vegetarian equivalent if vegetarian) |
| 1 x glove of garlic | Freshly grated nutmeg |
| 140g of ricotta cheese | Olive oil & rocket, to serve |
| 85g of plain flour | |

1. Boil the kettle. Place the spinach in a large bowl and pour boiling water over it. Leave for 2 mins until wilted, then drain thoroughly. Leave to cool, then wrap a clean tea towel around the spinach. Hold it over the sink and squeeze out as much water as possible. Finely chop.

2. Place the spinach, parsley, garlic, ricotta, flour, eggs, cheese and a generous grating of nutmeg into a large bowl and season with salt and pepper. Use a fork to stir very thoroughly until everything is completely mixed. Using wet hands, form the mixture into walnut-size balls. Place on a large plate or tray and refrigerate for at least 30 mins.

3. When ready to cook, bring a large pan of water to the boil. Reduce the heat to medium and drop in batches of about 8-10 gnocchi at a time. They will sink to the bottom, and when they rise to the top give them about 1 min more, then remove with a slotted spoon and keep warm while you cook the rest. Serve the gnocchi on warm plates drizzled with olive oil and scattered with rocket and more cheese.

The Friends of All Saints, Ulcombe is to be launched on Friday 17th May at 7. 30 pm in Ulcombe Church. All who are interested in Ulcombe's beautiful church are welcome. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

Windows 8 – Getting Started - 10 Top Tips

There is a lot to get used to in Windows 8, so here are 10 Top Tips for keyboard people to get you started. Once you have mastered navigation in Windows 8 you will soon realise that the applications you been using regularly have not changed very much at all.

1. To find the Start Screen when you are in an application point to the bottom left corner of the screen. A small image of the Start screen will be pop up, click it to return to the Start Screen.
2. Remove any unused icons (known as Tiles in Windows 8) on the Start Screen so you do not have to scroll to find applications you use regularly. Point to the tile that you don't need, right click, then select Unpin from the Start.
3. To add Application Tiles use search to find the application that you use regularly, when you have found it point and right click on it, then select Pin to Start from the menu.

4. To view applications you have already opened point to the top left corner of the screen, when the first application is displayed drag your mouse down the screen, then all applications will be displayed, select the one you want to use.
5. To find features such System Properties, Device Manager, and Control Panel, File Explorer and the Desktop, now called Power User Task Menu point to the bottom left corner of the screen, right-click.

6. You can find and manage your Devices by selecting devices from the Charm Bar – point to the top right corner of the screen in any application and the Charm Bar will appear. The Device Charm is the 4th Charm down.
7. When using Internet Browser, to view any pages you have opened, point to the top of the screen, right click which will display all open web pages.
8. To quickly close applications, point the mouse to the top of the application window, click and hold the mouse button down, then drag to the bottom of the screen
9. The Applications Bar will appear if you Right click the mouse button on part of the Start Screen that is not a Tile or Icon. The Applications bar will appear at the bottom of the screen. Select the button at the right of the bar to show “All Applications”.

10. If you like using the keyboard and would like to know more about Keyboard Shortcuts, search for Windows 8 Keyboard Shortcuts on the internet and you will find quite a few that include the things like Window Key + C will open the Charms.

The May Night Sky

The Sun is in the constellation of Aries at beginning of May, and moves into Taurus towards the end of the month.

New Moon occurs on Thursday 9th May. Full Moon is on Friday 24th May when in Libra.

Mercury rises in the southeast at sunrise in the constellation of Aries, so again we will not be able to see it in the twilight.

Venus rises in the southeast at sunrise in Aries, and sets just after sunset near the constellation of Taurus, so again will not be visible this month.

Mars is rising in the southeast at sunrise with Mercury, so will also not be visible this month.

Jupiter is not so well placed for viewing this month, as it rises at sunrise and sets in the northwest in late evening near Taurus. Through a telescope it may be possible to see the dark and light bands together with the Great Red Spot. It may also be possible to see, even through binoculars, Jupiter's four major moons.

Saturn is rising in the southeast at sunset between the constellations of Libra and Virgo, and is well up in the southern sky before setting at sunrise. Through a telescope you should be able to see the famous rings together with many of its moons.

You may have read recently that scientists, working at the deep underground facility in America, may have glimpsed "dark matter" for the first time. They have recorded signals that could have been caused by dark matter particles, known as "wimps" or weakly interacting massive particles, colliding with normal matter. The tests, which were carried out at the Cryogenic Dark Matter Search in Minnesota, will require further experiment to confirm the results.

While on the subject of dark matter, the Large Hadron Collider at Cern has been shut for two years for a £70 million upgrade in the hope of finding this mysterious and invisible material, which makes up a quarter of the universe and holds galaxies together.

Ulcombe Pre-School

Coffee Morning

A huge thank you goes out to all the people who attended our Easter coffee morning. We are sorry for the confusion over the date, but we had to cancel the original one due to the theft of heating oil at the village hall and we had consequently missed the deadline to put the new date in the newsletter. We managed to raise an amazing £88 which considering the confusion was fantastic, so thank you to everyone involved.

Job vacancy

Ulcombe Pre-School is looking for a Deputy Supervisor to work with the children on Monday and Tuesday mornings. (8.45am-1.15pm) The successful applicant will hold an NVQ level 3 in Child Care and Education or equivalent. If you are interested or know anyone who would be, please contact Melissa on 07720053008 for more details.

Christian message May 2013

I have recently been through a major event. It is almost 37 years since I last was as close to this particular process and almost 25 years since I had the trauma of moving house. It is one of those life experiences that are very common, almost inevitable some would say – but every time it happens it feels like it is the first time anyone has ever been through it. It is a roller coaster of triumphs and setbacks, of joy and trepidation and when it is over it leaves the participants richer and poorer....

My daughter has just been married!

I could write at length about the whole marriage industry, about how it seems that the cost is at times frighteningly exorbitant for the simplest of elements. I remember with a shiver the Wedding Fairs and the worry of ever finding a dress that would be 'the one'. There was a period leading up to the wedding when it felt as if we were trapped in a surreal dream where no matter how hard you try get back to reality the dream simply wouldn't end.

It did end though, and in the most wonderful way. The marriage ceremony seemed to make sense of all the build up. It distilled the essence of the huge step that two young and very much in love people were taking. All of the commercial aspects of the day melted in a gloriously joyous hour. The families and friends witnessed before their eyes a life changing transformation and I was filled with a sense of contentment that this was right and that the Service was the perfect way to unite my daughter and her chosen partner.

Why was it so right? There are facts that made it so. First, the weather was kind. The two days on either side were of torrential rain and freezing snow. My daughter worshipped at All Saints as a girl, she was confirmed from there and, in her own words, she only ever thought that this was, one day, the church in which she would be married. The church looked beautiful adorned with superb flower displays. The hymns and the readings meant something to us all. Finally, it just felt very comfortable being there amongst the people who mean most to us and to them.

There was so much more to it than that, though. The words of the service are profoundly moving and serious. They ask for a physical and a spiritual commitment from the couple – not just for now but for the rest of their lives. Marriage is a gift from God, a way of life given by Him – these sentences take us back to the central purpose. Vows and promises are made that demand total commitment – whatever lies ahead. In return for these solemn words the couple are assured by the blessing -

Let their love for each other be a seal upon their hearts and a crown upon their heads.

Bless them in their work and in their companionship;
awake and asleep,
in joy and in sorrow,
in life and in death.

I left the church uplifted. And just in case you feel like having a look at the words to refresh your memory or if you soon to be married, here is the link to the Marriage Ceremony.

Music Notes, May 2013

My emails recently have been full of news and pictures from The Maidstone Singers, who are currently on tour in Malta. I imagine they will come back inspired to still greater things, so have included their May concert in my monthly recommendations, even though it will be at Hadlow. And if you are prepared to travel just a little, try the Brighton Festival, 4th-26th May, which includes several concerts by the BBC Symphony Orchestra. Details 01273 709709.

My local list is:

- Saturday 11th May, 7.30pm at The Central Theatre, Chatham, the City of Rochester Symphony Orchestra present a concert with a Spanish theme, including a selection from Bizet's Carmen, featuring soprano Katherine Crompton.. Tickets 01634 338338
- Sunday 12th May, 7.30pm at St. Mary's church, Hadlow, The Maidstone Singers perform a selection of choral music including Kodaly's Missa brevis and Britten's Hymn to St. Cecilia. Tickets available at the door.
- Saturday 18th May, 7.30pm at Mote hall, Maidstone, the Maidstone Symphony Orchestra's May Concert features Korngold's violin concerto (soloist Ulf Hoelscher) and Tchaikovsky's Symphony No.4. Tickets 01622 735830
- Saturday 25th May, 7.30pm at All Saints' Church, Maidstone, Maidstone Wind Symphony's concert is entitled "Heritage". It will include a selection of traditional and folk -based music, including works by Percy Grainger and Gustav Holst. Tickets and info : 01580 291056

On the box this month we are promised an hour-long documentary on BBC4 to celebrate the bicentenary of Verdi's birth. Unfortunately date & time are not yet confirmed as I go to press! So instead I will recommend radio 3, 7pm on Friday 10th May, when the programme goes live to the opening concert of the annual Lufthansa Festival of baroque music
