F&HDC were informed of the resignation of John Elphick at the January meeting and supplied a Notice of Vacancy which was published on the Parish Council noticeboards and website on 22 February 2021 and circulated to the parish email list.
Deadline for applications to F&HDC for the role of parish councillor was 10 March. On 12 March F&HDC informed the clerk that, as there were fewer than 10 applicants, an election is not required and a councillor may be appointed by co-option.
Applicants have been invited to speak to councillors at the meeting for a maximum of five minutes each. For reasons of privacy, applicants not speaking will be placed in the virtual waiting room.
When all applicants have spoken, all will be placed in the virtual waiting room whilst councillors vote, then applicants will be informed individually of the outcome of the vote.
