Church News

Letter from the Rectory

As I write this it is a glorious evening after a sunny day, a couple of days before the Prime Minister is due to make an announcement about whether or not restrictions will be lifted on June 21st. Sitting here at the Rectory, looking out across the Corvedale, it could be difficult to believe that there is anything wrong, or that as a nation we continue to face pandemic-related uncertainty. And yet, as we know, the latest variant in the virus brings rising case numbers in some parts of the country and in many parts of the world the situation is far more uncertain than it is here.

If you look at the church service pattern for the month you will notice that on July 18th we have a group service at Abdon, something we would normally do on the fifth Sunday of the month when there is one. This date for a group service was selected because it is the Sunday nearest to St Margaret's Day and Abdon Church is dedicated to St Margaret. There were, in fact, several saints called Margaret and we are not certain to which of them the church is dedicated – July 20th is the feast day of St Margaret of Antioch. Looking at the lives of several of the saints named Margaret one of the things that strikes me is the uncertainty of the times in which they lived, a reminder that for most of history people have lived in what could be described as uncertain times – much more so than the periods of prolonged stability throughout society. If we look just at our own lives, and not on a global or national level, we still find periods of uncertainty – as we await the outcome of exams or interviews, as we wonder what to do in the next stage of our lives or careers, or when accidents or illness take things in ways we did not want or plan to go and in many other ways too.

Whilst there are those who think that faith in God means that people of faith are somehow immune from the uncertainties of life, this is not the case. Christians, or people of other faiths, are just as likely to face uncertain times in life as anyone else. What is perhaps different is that through faith in God we know that there are certainties to which we can hold on - God's love for his people is unchanging and constant. It doesn't necessarily change what happens to us, but it can change how we see it and how we feel about it. Writing to the church in Corinth, St Paul wrote what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal (2 Corinthians 4, 18). Just as the love of God was there for the early Christians living with the ever-present threat of persecution for their beliefs, so it is there for us - in all the ups, downs, certainties and uncertainties of the times in which we find ourselves.

Rev'd John Beesley

Munslow Fête - Saturday 14th August

We are planning and hoping to hold the Munslow fete in the gardens of Munslow House (The Old Rectory) on the afternoon of Saturday 14th August from 2.30pm.

Assuming there are no restrictions by then we want this to be a big community celebration after the past 18 months. There will be teas, tombola, plant and produce stalls as well as grass skittles. It would be wonderful if some readers would like to volunteer to setup and run other stalls.

Whilst proceeds from most stalls will go towards Munslow church running costs we are happy for you to run a stall for a different charity.

Please contact me if you would like to run a stall or generally assist in the setting up and clearing up of the fete.

Caring for God's Acre in Munslow

On May 18th the Task Force and local volunteers had an excellent working day in Munslow, most of the heavy labour being in the Burial Ground. It was the one fine day, in what was otherwise a very damp week, so the scythers and rakers were able to achieve amazing results in a relatively short time. There was still evidence of spring, with a growing patch of cowslips and a spread of blue Centaurea that is colonising an area near the war graves.

Other wildlife in evidence too, a toad and a slow worm just out of hibernation, with its recently cast skin proving its arrival. The sound of a green woodpecker was much enjoyed.

As always, a big 'thank you' to all who help us to care for this natural oasis in the centre of the village. Our next gathering will be on Tuesday, August 17th, to mow the long grass.

Shropshire's Mayflower Children

Hot off the press, Shropshire's Mayflower Children by Donald Harris, beautifully illustrated, is now available at £19.50. The book contains all Harris's research about the four young children from the Corvedale, Elinor, Jasper, Richard and Mary More, who were banished to America in 1620 by their father, a landed gentleman, when he discovered that his wife had been having a longstanding liaison with a local yeoman 'of meane parentage'.

George

Well, I've been here a week now and the accommodation is quite good, I was rather sad at leaving my mum and siblings behind and the ride in the car in that cage affair was very frightening, but mum and her friend made a big fuss of me when we arrived and by evening I was beginning to feel at home.

Of course, as we kittens know we can be rather over active and mischievous as the following few days were to prove. mum's ankles are beginning to resemble pin cushions and sometimes she shouts but I'm not sure if she's hurting or enjoying herself. Apparently, she used to enjoy eating her breakfast in peace while reading or doing a crossword, I'm afraid I soon put paid to that, she was dusting before eight this morning. Something unheard of she says, I think she is hoping for a nap after lunch - we'll see about that...

I've had a few little accidents (oh, not what you think) I can use my dirt box like a pro! No, I mean knocking things off the windowsills like photo frames for instance and earlier this morning the telephone came crashing to the floor! I didn't think I'd touched it.

Anyway, I'm quite tired now having been quite active this morning so I'll go and have a nap, on mum's chair of course!

Corvedale Book Group

How to be both by Ali Smith

A much praised and prize-winning book from 2014/15 How to be both is a thought provoking read. It reminded me of the T.S. Eliot quote from the first stanzas of Burnt Norton.

*Time present and time past
Are both perhaps present in time future,
And time future contained in time past.
If all time is eternally present
All time is unredeemable.*

How to be both was published in two versions - one starting with the story of Georgia, a teenager whose mother has recently died, and the other beginning with a disembodied spirit observing a boy looking at a painting in an art gallery.

The edition we received from the library began with 'George' and moved on to the life of the 15th century artist Francesco del Cossa. The essence of the story is about how time collides and elides, how it is multi-layered and how the present has an impact on the past and the past on the present: how you cannot have one without the other.

'George' is an introspective teenager, pedantic about grammar, who lives with her mother and father and younger brother Henry. Her mother is a writer with a history of being able to subvert internet documents with challenging statements and images. She believes she is being watched by the intelligence services. Sadly, she suddenly dies, and we see the family unravel as her husband takes to drink, Henry is lost, and George struggles to understand the simultaneous presence and absence of her mother in her life. George undergoes a number of counselling sessions with Mrs Rock, the school counsellor, which give her space to progress through her emotions.

Shortly before her death, the mother took the children to Ferrara to see a picture she had read about by the artist Francesco del Cossa whose work came to light when a letter was discovered in which he asked the Duke for an increase in wages for creating three fresco panels (Spring, Summer and Autumn) in the 'Room of the Months' in Palazzo Shifanoia. Del Cossa paints from life and his works are both blatantly sexual, challenging of the system and allegorical in nature. He has relationships with other women and with the likeable pickpocket who became his apprentice. George and her mother discuss whether what you see in front of you is the thing that exists, or whether you need the existence of earlier works and history to build and frame that reality. In her mourning George discovers other sides to the mother she thought she knew, including an obsessional relationship with another woman. George has a developing relationship with a school friend, Helena, who helps to bring her out of her grief.

In the other half of the story, the painter is transported to the present and observes the strange world of the 21st century and follows George around as his/her story is revealed. The painter's mother also died early and her father, a brick layer, disguised her as a boy so she could make best use of her obvious artistic talents. We learn of her education, growing independence, commissions and sexual encounters. The two halves of the story weave together.

Only four people attended the group this time, as some had found the disjointed 'stream of consciousness' writing of the first part of the book hard to get on with, and others were enjoying birthdays, contact with friends or making the most of the sunshine. It is not an easy read as the narrative is not smooth and the sentence construction challenging. Georgia and her mother, and the painter emerge though as viable characters and the questions they ask about their lives, about time and about the nature of sexuality and relationships are thought provoking.

When we meet on Thursday 8th July we will be discussing Sight, Jessie Greengross's debut novel about the importance of mothers and motherhood.

Cath Burley

Munslow Parish Community Speed Watch (CSW)

New Volunteers: I am happy to report that several more residents along the B4368 have said that they are interested in volunteering for Speed Watch training. I'm sure that Mark Booth, our West Mercia Police liaison officer, will do his best to organise training asap.

CSW Sessions: Unfortunately, we are still recording too many speeding drivers including two vehicles with a horse trailer and a coach. Most of the speeding vehicles recorded were small commercial vehicles. Recently, a resident and her dog were almost knocked down in the road as they were crossing by The Swan in Aston Munslow. The road was empty and suddenly a speeding vehicle appeared from around the bend. I'm sure that all too many of us are familiar with similar experiences along the B4368 so the Munslow Parish CSW team will continue to do its bit to raise road safety awareness amongst all the drivers and riders.

West Mercia Police Speed Awareness Campaign: During July and August, a couple of weeks will be dedicated to this campaign. To support our Munslow Parish CSW team, Mark has offered to arrange for a police colleague to join our sessions. Also, we can expect an increased presence of West Mercia Police Road Safety Awareness teams patrolling Shropshire roads during this campaign.

Noise: Excessive noise from some motorbikes, as riders test the performance of their machines along the B4368, continues to be an ongoing concern for residents and holiday makers in the Corvedale. Any incidents which we hear about are passed on to Mark Booth.

NPCC National Seatbelt & Mobile Phone Campaign: Plans for how our CSW team can be involved with this initiative are still to be confirmed.

The Corvedale KitchenChocolate Orange Loaf*Ingredients

150g	soft unsalted butter plus some extra for greasing	½ tsp	bicarbonate of soda
2 tbsp	golden syrup	25g	best quality cocoa powder, sifted
175g	dark muscovado sugar	2	eggs
150g	plain flour		zest of 2 regular oranges and juice of 1

You will need

A 900g (2lb) loaf tin

Method

1. Preheat oven to 170°C / gas mark 3. Grease and line your loaf tin with baking parchment.
2. Beat the already soft butter with the syrup and the sugar until you have a fairly smooth coffee Americano cream, though the sugar will always have a bit of grit about it (wet mixture).
3. Mix the flour, bicarbonate of soda and cocoa powder and beat 1 tablespoon of the dry ingredients into the wet mixture.
4. Beat 1 egg into the wet mixture, followed by 2 tablespoons of the dry ingredients, the remaining egg and then the last of the dry mix.
5. Whilst still beating the mix, add the orange zest and gradually add the juice (if the batter looks dimpled, don't worry, it isn't curdled!).
6. Pour the mix into the lined loaf tin and bake for 45 mins but check after 40 mins. The cake tester shouldn't come out entirely clean as the cake is meant to be a little moist.
7. Leave to cool in the tin and then turn out on a wire rack.

Footpath Maintenance Group

We are right out of stock for stiles and steps at the moment, but for April we had just enough to put in a dog friendly stile at Munslow, our very first! Hopefully, we'll be able to do more. The stile in the field off the track at Rowe Lane is now complete and it is possible to walk from Munslow through to the little nature reserve off Rowe Lane. From Munslow, leaving Greenyard, follow the footpath east across the Millichope estate, cross the lane at Beambridge and down to the B4368. Take care crossing this busy road! The path is straight across the field, over a footbridge, then diagonally left across a couple of fields to come out onto the BOAT (Byway Open to All Traffic) at Rowe Lane. Turn right down the track a short distance to the ford and immediately after the ford a footpath goes left and takes you passed the reserve. If you're a birder, take binoculars as the birds are usually a little distance away, near the water.

We were also able to help our Footpaths Officer from Shropshire Council to replace a couple of footbridges at Brookhampton (one more to do there) and in May we repaired a footbridge SE of Munslow near Brook House, on a footpath that goes on towards Baucott Farm. Many of the boards needed to be replaced, also the steps at each end and a post at the south end to enable walkers to get on and off the bridge.

The Corvedale Three Castles Walk is our 'flagship' route, as assisting John Farley in setting up this walk (nearly 20 years ago!) is how our group began. Recently, there was a problem on a 'permissive' stretch of the route which passes through Honeydene Farm near Diddlebury. Over time, new buildings have been erected and the walk seemed to fizzle out somewhere in the farmyard, making it unsafe for both walkers and the farm. With the consent of the landowner, we re-routed the path to avoid the farmyard altogether, so it now goes along a field following the ditch, crosses a brand new 14-foot sleeper type footbridge (extremely heavy work!) to pick up the bridleway across the corner of the next field.

While we await a delivery of stock for replacement stiles, we will spend our time attempting to clear the explosion of growth around existing stiles. Happy walking!

Corvedale School

Following an extraordinary general meeting for parents of children attending the Corvedale Centre for Children (CCfC), a decision was made to transfer control of the setting to the school. The Corvedale Centre for Children's registration was suspended by Ofsted following an inspection back in April and has been temporarily managed by the school since then.

Everyone who has been involved in the CCfC over the past few decades will be very aware of the fantastic amount of work, time and commitment undertaken by Colin Jones and his staff in order to build up such a reputable and well-loved provision for the community.

The demands of volunteer committee members which manages the setting, has increased quite significantly in recent years and previous committees have been struggling to cope. With a turnover of children through the preschool every year came the demands of recruiting new busy mums and dads onto the committee. This resulted in enormous pressure on staff to maintain the significant challenges of operating the CCfC with little knowledgeable support.

Current temporary provision of the preschool will continue under the management of the school till the end of term. During that time the CCfC staff and committee, school governors, school staff and I will have a lot of planning and actions to carry out to enable us to have a smooth successful handover and relaunch a new preschool setting under the 'umbrella' management of Corvedale Primary School. We at the school, have been given the support from the local authority and Ofsted, to offer preschool provision for 3 and 4-year-olds and for children in the term after their 2nd birthday. We would like to hear from anyone who would like to register for a place at our preschool in September. We welcome enquiries regarding preschool provision which should be made through the school office.

This letter was going to include our plans for the end of term but following the announcement of the delayed end to restrictions we are having to re-evaluate plans and await guidance from the local authority.

For more information on what is going on, to keep up with the latest happenings/news at school, visit the school website - www.corvedaleprimary.co.uk or on Twitter @CorvedaleSchool.

*English poet and Jesuit priest, whose posthumous fame established him among the leading Victorian poets. By 1930 his work was recognised as one of the most original literary accomplishments of his century. It had a marked influence on such leading 20th-century poets as T. S. Eliot, Dylan Thomas, W. H. The Windhover

I caught this morning morning's minion, kingdom of daylight's dauphin, dapple-dawn-drawn Falcon, in his riding
Of the rolling level underneath him steady air, and striding
High there, how he rung upon the rein of a wimpling wing
In his ecstasy! then off, off forth on swing,
As a skate's heel sweeps smooth on a bow-bend: the hurl and gliding
Rebuffed the big wind. My heart in hiding
Stirred for a bird, - the achieve of, the mastery of the thing!
Brute beauty and valour and act, oh, air, pride, plume here
Buckle! AND the fire that breaks from thee then, a billion
Times told lovelier, more dangerous, O my chevalier!
No wonder of it: shéer plód makes plough down sillion
Shine, and blue-bleak embers, ah my dear,
Fall, gall themselves, and gash gold-vergence.

A E Housman (1859 - 1936)

Alfred Edward Housman was an English classical scholar and poet. His cycle of poems, A Shropshire Lad wistfully evoke the dooms and disappointments of youth in the English countryside. Their simplicity and distinctive imagery appealed strongly to Edwardian taste, and to many early 20th-century English composers both before and after the First World War. Through their song-settings, the poems became closely associated with that era, and with Shropshire itself.

Housman was one of the foremost classicists of his age and has been ranked as one of the greatest scholars who ever lived. He established his reputation publishing as a private scholar and, on the strength and quality of his work, was appointed Professor of Latin at University College, London and then at the University of Cambridge. His editions of Juvenal, Manilius and Lucan are still considered authoritative.

Excerpts from

A Shropshire Lad

It nods and curtseys and recovers
When the wind blows above,
The nettle on the graves of lovers
That hanged themselves for love.
The nettle nods, the wind blows over,
The man, he does not move,
The lover of the grave, the lover
That hanged himself for love.
Into my heart an air that kills
From yon far country blows:
What are those blue remembered hills,
What spires, what farms are those?
That is the land of lost content,
I see it shining plain,
The happy highways where I went
And cannot come again.

Meeting at night

The grey sea and the long black land;
And the yellow half-moon large and low;
And the startled little waves that leap
In fiery ringlets from their sleep,
As I gain the cove with pushing prow,
And quench its speed i' the slushy sand.
Then a mile of warm sea-scented beach;
Three fields to cross till a farm appears;
A tap at the pane, the quick sharp scratch
And blue spurt of a lighted match,
And a voice less loud, thro' its joys and fears,
Than the two hearts beating each to each!

Dog fouling

PLEASE CLEAR UP AFTER YOUR DOG.

There has been a notable increase in dog fouling throughout the Corvedale and especially in and around Diddlebury village. Whilst most dog owners are responsible citizens and clear up after their dogs there are obviously some people who are not adhering to the law.

Dog fouling is not only deeply unpleasant, it is dangerous. Whilst rare, contact with dog excrement can cause toxocarasis - a nasty infection that can lead to dizziness, nausea, asthma and even blindness or seizure and can cause salmonella in cattle.

Anyone who fails to clear up after their dog can be issued with a Fixed Penalty Notice of up to £100. If the case goes to court this could cost the owner up to £1,000. The law states that being unaware a dog has fouled or not having a suitable bag is not a reasonable excuse.

Diddlebury & Westhope WI

We're back! After many months of having to keep away from each other, we finally got around to having a really lovely reunion in Joy Williams' garden on a sunny afternoon at the end of May. It was so lovely seeing everyone again and catching up on all that's been going on. We did have a few bits of business to sort out, but once that was out of the way we could just enjoy the lovely cakes and tea in the sunshine.

We decided not to have a meeting in June, but we have organised a meeting on Tuesday 13th July at 7.00pm. We are going to keep things casual for now and have planned a BBQ in Mary Holland's garden. We'll all bring along something for the BBQ and a little something to drink and hopefully the sunshine will shine and we'll all have a lovely evening.

We are still looking to attract new members to our group. We want to try and expand our age demographic further and really need to get young and old alike to come along and enjoy being part of a group of women for the common good of our wider community.

Take a look at the WI website and see what it's like, it's not all just tea and cake, we can do a lot more! If you need any further information, please just get in touch with me.

Mobile Library Service

We had hoped to restart our regular Mobile Library service, and allow borrowers back on board, from the end of June. However, this has been delayed by a month following the delay to lockdown easing and the rise in Covid cases in Shropshire. The service will carry on with Ready Reads until the end of July, the service schedule (with the usual Covid caveat) for the next couple of months is to the right.

Please note these dates may change if Government guidance changes.

Some stops may have changed their timings slightly so please check on the Mobile Library stops map on our website www.shropshire.gov.uk/libraries/mobile-libraries/

Corvedale Past and Present

‘Everybody out, everybody out, just who does he think he is?
Everybody out, everybody out...’

Well, those of you of a certain age will be able to fill in the rest from the words of the comic song that did the rounds in 60s or 70s, all about unions and lightning strikes that were then very much order of the day.

Now then, we know everything that goes around comes around, but a lightning strike in 1163? Yes, it happened and on our doorstep, and it is a truly remarkable tale. What is more it was almost without precedent for that period: I understand that only a very few scattered places in France and Italy saw the same type of thing in 1100s and 1200s AD. The ‘villeins’ rose up and, in the context of the times, it was a very bold move indeed.

This little article is far too short to explain who the ‘villeins’ were, but the association with the modern word ‘villain’ is unfortunate. They comprised easily the biggest group in society and they were effectively serfs ‘owned’ by their lord, though they had some of the lord’s land which they worked to keep themselves and families alive. They had no rights of leaving their own village and were true bondsmen. Their descendants were the rural poor, the copyhold tenants of later ages.

The Prior of Wenlock at the time, one Humbald, was the lord of a lot of the land that today we inhabit around the Brown Clee and in the Corvedale, and, to be brutally honest, you do have to wonder about his motives, and his, and his fellow-monks’ tactics.

The villeins who lived under ‘My Lord Prior’ did have a lot to put up with. In a good year they might harvest 5 grains of wheat for every one sown in the ground. They might have had an ox to plough, a cow and a few sheep, and probably a vegetable patch around their dwellings. They might ‘get by’ till the man of the house died when the Prior would claim his best beast as death duty, which was called, a ‘heriot’.

Wenlock, rather unusually, went further, much further – and claimed a ‘terciar’, a third of all of a man’s possessions. So when poor old Richard of [Cold] Weston ‘shuffled off this mortal’, on The Feast of the Transition of St Milburga (23rd February) in 1379, the sharp-eyed court assessor, as well as going off with a third of all of his stuff, noticed a ploughshare and claimed a third of the metal for ‘My Lord Prior’!

All this sort of thing, not surprisingly, got too much for the poor villeins and in 1163 it all boiled over. The men in the fields threw down their ploughshares and presumably marched on The Priory, as reports of monks being ‘hurt’ appeared (what constituted being ‘hurt’ for a monk, one suspects, may have been somewhat different from the rest of the population!) Whatever really happened, we know that the Prior called in the local ‘knights’ to quell the disturbance. This was serious indeed: the knight was the tank of the day. Nevertheless, the disturbances seemed to go on for a few days before some sort of compromise was thrashed out.

Yet it was shocking. Such a thing was unheard of, and as far as I know did not occur again in England until the Peasants’ Revolt over 200 years later when the disturbances were on a huge scale and threatened the whole structure of the country (the phrase of course came much later the peasants did not know they were revolting!).

To come back to 1163 – how do we know these remarkable events took place? When the dust had settled the monks of Wenlock wrote a letter to their Cluniac ‘mother house’ in France. ‘We would rather die than give in to them’, was the sentiment the monks expressed when they had a little time to let their better side come to the fore. And the name of the French mother house? La Charité sur Loire. You may think that somewhat ironic: I, of course, could not possibly comment.

Peter Cornah.

PS: It is of course ‘Everybody out, everybody out, you can’t treat a union man like this!’

The following payments were approved: Clerk's Salary April £156.87, Clerk's expenses April £30.15, HMRC £39.00, K Adam (auditor) £100.00, TWM £4,824.65.

Highways: The post for the VAS sign has still not been installed. The Highways Report is still under review by Shropshire Council.

Other Matters: The Chair had written to Doug Scarrett to thank him for his contributions to the Parish Council.

There has been a complaint about rubbish outside the Crown Garage and efforts would be made to contact the owner and ask for the area to be tidied, otherwise the issue could be referred to Shropshire Council.

The Chair had received a report from Mrs Anne Donnelly about the successful cleaning of God's Acre.

Vacancy for Clerk: The Chair, Cllr Povey and Cllr Dobson will form a committee to recruit a new Clerk, who will be expected to start on 1st July 2021.

MUNSLOW PARISH COUNCIL*Minutes of the meeting held on Thursday 3rd June 2021

Co-Option: Mr Graham Williams expressed an interest in becoming a councillor. Members unanimously approved his co-option, and Mr Williams joined the council.

Reports: The Chair had taken the relevant forms to the bank for updating the signatories. There would be a meeting of the South Shropshire ALC on 7th June. She and one other Member would attend.

Cllr Motley outlined her new role as Cabinet member for SC with responsibility for Communities, Tourism, Place. Following concerns expressed by residents it was agreed that the Chair and Clerk would arrange a meeting of representatives from the Corvedale councils about noise from motorbikes and speeding.

Church Fete: The Chair suggested that the PC may like to have a table at the upcoming Church fete. She felt this would help raise the profile of the PC and give residents the opportunity to raise issues with Councillors. It was agreed that this should be on the July agenda for agreeing details.

Facebook: It was agreed that the PC should set up their own Facebook page. This would be done by Ed Povey and the new Clerk.

Parish Councils (continued)DIDDLEBURY PARISH COUNCIL*Summary of the draft Minutes of Diddlebury Parish Council's Annual General Meeting, Annual Parish Meeting and ordinary business meeting all held on Wednesday 19th May 2021 at Diddlebury Village Hall

Present: Cllr D Hedgley, Cllrs O'Boyle, G Neden, R Povall, A Watson, T Pardoe, A Rattu and R Morgan.

In Attendance: The Clerk, Unitary Cllr Cecilia Motley and four members of the public.

Apologies were received and accepted from Cllr S Povall.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Cllr D Hedgley was nominated for and accepted the office of Chairman and Cllr Robert Povall was nominated for and accepted the role of Vice-Chairman for the year 2021/2022. The Chairman thanked former councillors Mervyn Thomas, Selina Thomas, Kath Worthington and Mike Woodhouse for their hard work and support over their years of service: Mervyn Thomas, it was noted, had been a councillor for over 40 years. The Chairman then welcomed new councillors, Geoff Neden, Richard Morgan, Tim Pardoe and Anil Rattu to the parish council. Acceptance of Office forms were completed and DPI forms were distributed. Appointments were made to the various sub-committees, Mrs Sue Hackett was appointed as DPC's auditor for the year 2021/2022 and meeting dates up to May 2022 were approved.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

Due to the on-going Covid-19 problems it was felt prudent that this year those giving reports to the APM would not read them out: paper copies were available at the meeting and all reports are on the website for the public to peruse. These comprise reports from the Chairman, Cllr Cecilia Motley, Diddlebury Village Hall

Committee, Westhope Village Hall Committee, the Parish Plan Steering Group, Ms S Thompson - website manager, Diddlebury Charities and the Flood Action Group. The Chairman briefly highlighted points in each report and thanked everyone for submitting their reports.

ORDINARY BUSINESS MEETING

Declarations of Interest: None.

Minutes of the Parish Council Meeting of 28th April 2021 were approved by councillors and signed by the Chairman. Seven matters arising were dealt with.

Reports: The Chairman said the newly constituted council will review and revise DPC's Standing Orders and consider adopting an Unreasonably Persistent & Vexatious Complaints Procedure. DPC also needs to discuss exceptional sites for affordable homes in the parish and these matters will be Agenda items in the next few months.

Unitary Cllr Motley thanked everyone who had voted for her: she has now represented the Corvedale parishes since 2009. The Leader of SC lost his seat in the elections and the new Leader is, for the first time, a woman, Cllr Lezley Picton, who holds a rural seat north of Shrewsbury. Cllr Motley spoke warmly of the Leader's skills and interest in rural matters. The Chairman welcomed Cllr Motley back as DPC's representative and looked forward to continue working with her.

Planning: One application was considered - 21/00564/FUL - application for conversion of Dutch Barn into storage and garage spaces for Barns A & B at Hales Barns, Diddlebury, including revised access arrangements, to include the formation of a new stretch of driveway (amended description).

DPC supported the application but with provisos that regard be paid to the Flood Action Group's concerns about potential flooding risks and that the Pinstones Lane access to the site should be available for large vehicles and emergency vehicles as it is not felt they will be able to use the proposed sole access to the site.

Communications and Correspondence: Five items of correspondence were considered. Cllr Motley is to be approached about the report from Connecting Shropshire which indicates there will be no improvements in the foreseeable future for broadband delivery to the Corvedale.

Audit for 2020/2021: The Auditor's report for 2020/2021 was read and noted by the councillors. No adverse comments or recommendations had been made. Ms Thompson was thanked for displaying all relevant documents on DPC's website in an accessible form. Councillors then considered the 10 forms comprising the Annual Governance & Accountability Return and voted as necessary on the various sections requiring their specific approval.

Finance: The Finance Report for May 2021 was considered by members and cheques totalling £1,262.18 were approved. After their payment DPC holds £23,737.55 in its account. Cllr O'Boyle verified the bank statement/cash book reconciliation.

Any Other Business: Members were reminded that four places had been booked on a forthcoming Code of Conduct Zoom seminar.

Next meetings: Wednesday 23rd June, commencing 7.30pm at Westhope Village Hall and Wednesday 28th July commencing at 7.30pm at Diddlebury Village Hall.

*Parish Councils (continued)ABDON AND HEATH PARISH COUNCIL*Minutes of the Annual Parish Meeting held on Tuesday 18th May at 7:30pm at Abdon Village Hall

Public Invited to Speak on Any Issues: H Audin said highways are a concern and asked if the Parish Council could help. She has been reporting holes online but to no effect. Cllr Motley said 'My Shropshire' had been cancelled: the current website is called 'Fix my Street'. Drains must be dug out because otherwise the roads are being damaged. There has been a change of seats at the council so hopefully that will help. Money was removed from highways budget to support adult social care. Highways is the No 1 priority of new council. The way some current repairs are done is wasting time and money.

Declaration of Interest: None.

Minutes of the meeting held on 18 March 2021 were read by Chair and unanimously agreed as a correct record.

Matters Arising: Cllrs Trim and Price were thanked for repairs to notice boards. Permission must initially be sought from the Caravan and Camping club for sites, after which they then seek permission from Shropshire Council planning department.

Reports: Cllr Motley said the Leader of the Shropshire Council had lost his seat. The new Leader is Lezley Picton.

Finance Balance £4,870.71.

Highways; including funding distribution: (already discussed under 'Public issues') H Audin suggested a petition to campaign for more repairs to be done. This was agreed: the Clerk will draft a petition and Cllrs will circulate it within their areas. Jayne Madeley (clerk of Ditton Priors) will be contacted about the state of road from Abdon to Ditton.

Correspondence: A resident reported that a kerb had been added at the Upper House driveway which prevents water entering the ditch from the road. Cllr Trim will investigate and respond to clerk. There had been an issue with the website but H Audin has rectified this. Notices are added to the website regularly. Cllr Price presented letter from Cobblers Dingle asking for the Parish Council's support in discussions with the Environment Agency, Currently the house is not considered to be at high risk of flooding. There was a general discussion about the role of the Parish Council in environmental issues. The Clerk will draft a letter to the Environmental Agency asking them to review the flooding status.

Items of Consideration for the next meeting (for dissemination of information only) Condition of roads, drains, Upper House ditch, Cobblers Dingle flood letter.

Date of Next Meeting: The next meeting will be on Thurs 12th August 2021 at 7:30pm.
