Grafty Green Gardening Club – January meeting news

Grafty Green Gardening Club - Alpines In Landscape Design

Our first meeting of the year will be on January 10th in the Village Hall starting at 7.30. The evening will begin with a short AGM and this will be followed by a talk on Alpines in Landscape Design given by Sarah Morgan.

There will also be an opportunity for members to renew their membership with Doreen Hulm our treasurer and contribute to the raffle if they wish. Visitors are always welcome to come along and enjoy the talk for (£2.00). Coffee, tea and biscuits will be served after the talk to give us all time to catch up with other members and ask further questions of our speaker.

TIP OF THE MONTH FOR JANUARY - Prune trees to shape and give a further prune to the side shoots of Wisteria. Sow Sweet Pea Seeds, these like a good root run so best to sow them in long sweet pea tubes (these can be homemade)!

Heather - Erica carnea 'Springwood White' is a robust, spreading, slightly trailing evergreen shrub which flowers from winter to mid spring, it is covered with spires of white flowers.

VILLAGE HALL NEWS

www.graftygreenvillagehall.co.uk

Well, the year ended with a very lively quiz night in which the questions were so tricky even the quizmaster didn't get all the answers right! However, everyone seemed to have a good time and a healthy profit was made which will enable us to continue to maintain and improve the Hall.

Already we have bought a new urn to replace the one kindly donated some years ago by Bernard Dobson (which has recently resisted all attempts to descale it) and we are now investigating the possibility of installing a scale-inhibiting system at the Hall that could not only prevent a recurrence of the urn problem, but would benefit the ladies and gents toilets, which also suffer badly from the effects of scale.

These things would not be possible without your support, so thank you so much for joining in all our doings last year.

As for 2017, well I can't yet say exactly what form our first event will take (because we're still working on it) but it will probably be another of our famed 'themed meals', as these have proved so popular in the past. However, I can tell you the date which is Saturday 11th March. This may sound a long way off, but it will soon be upon us so, please, put this date in your Village Calendar now and be sure to keep it free.

Talking of the Village Calendar, there has been an excellent take-up, which has meant that we have now more than covered our costs, but a few remain. If you would like a copy (which this year features historic views of the village and local area compared to current views) you can still get one from the Village Shop for just £5.

That's it for this month. May I wish you a happy and healthy 2017, and I look forward to seeing you at The Hall on 11th March – for something!

Grafty Gourmet

Happy New Year ! This is a very short and yet again, a very simple recipe.

Sweet Chilli Chicken with Noodles

350g Chicken Breast Fillets
1 medium Free Range Egg, beaten
75g Breadcrumbs
1 tbsp toasted sesame oil

1 large carrot, cut into matchsticks
4 spring onions, sliced
140g Sweet Chilli Sauce
300g pack of Medium Egg Noodles

1. Preheat the oven to 200°C. Toss the chicken in the egg and then roll in the breadcrumbs to evenly coat. Transfer to a greased baking tray and bake for 20 minutes until golden and the chicken is cooked throughout with no pink meat.
2. Heat the sesame oil in a frying pan and fry the carrot and salad onions for 2-3 minutes, add the sauce, noodles and 50ml water and cook for 1 minute to heat through.
3. Serve the noodles topped with the chicken.

January Music notes

January is in all respects an anticlimax from Christmas; the musical scene conforms to this picture. Many music groups are immersed in a new regime of rehearsals following a Christmas concert, and certainly most singers are resting their voices after an excess of carols. Nevertheless I have been able to find some concerts for you to enjoy:

- Tuesday 6th January, 7.30pm at The United Reformed Church, Week St., Maidstone: In the last of the Christmas festivities, Maidstone Choral Union present a 12th Night Concert. More mulled wine & mince pies afterwards! Free entry, with a retiring collection. No tickets required.
- Sunday 15th January, 2.30pm at Sutton Valence School, the Sutton Valence Music Society have arranged a concert by award-winning soprano Raphaela Papadakis and pianist James Sherlock. Programme includes works by Strauss, Debussy, Schubert and Mozart. Tickets at the door or contact 01622 863002.
- Saturday 28th, Not a concert, but something special for lovers of church music; at 3.30pm at Canterbury Cathedral there will be an evensong service led by the joint choirs of Rochester and Canterbury Cathedrals.
- Saturday 4th February, 7.30pm at Mote Hall, Maidstone, Maidstone Symphony Orchestra's concert includes MSO President and world-famous pianist John Lill performing Beethoven's Piano Concerto No.3. Not to be missed. Tickets 033 616 3366(booking fee applies) or at the door.

For January radio and TV it has to be the New Year's Day concert from Vienna, BBC radio 3 at 10.15am (you should be just about recovering from New Year's Eve by that time). Also on TV BBC 4 at 7.00pm.

Christian Message January 2017

Someone once told me that "true friends make you feel good about yourself and leave you wanting to go back for more". In a world filled with conflict and suffering, it might sound simplistic and trite to talk about friendship and love, but it is precisely because of so much evil that the subject needs addressing and revisiting regularly.

When we hear people ask us leading questions using the phrases of a mutual associate, the tittle-tattle, or back-stabbing, that has taken place in our absence can be all too easy to recognise. It's so tempting to react to curt or jeering retorts by lashing out and retaliating in order to defend ourselves, or retreating into a world of hurt isolation. How much harder it is to break the chain, to show love to our friends, casual acquaintances and even our adversaries, and set an example to all those we meet.

It may be hard, but it is essential if our society is to progress. In fact Jesus insisted on it:

"A new command I give you:
Love one another.
As I have loved you,
so you must love one another." John 13 verse 34.

He suffered misunderstanding, prejudice and hatred on a considerable scale, but responded in love and made the ultimate sacrifice for us all. He underpinned all that he did in prayer and by doing likewise, we have all the tools we need.

'Tit for tat' attitudes need to be left in the gutter where they belong, so that bigotry, fear and anger, have no chance to fester and grow. We may not be able to wipe out conflict and suffering on an international scale, but as individuals we can ensure that we care for those around us, rise above any hurt or resentment, and open our doors to welcome others in, however we feel they may treat us.

If we put misunderstandings to rest and truly love our enemies, they will have no cause to respond negatively and may even be left "wanting to come back for more". Better still, they may reciprocate with friendship.

'Let us love one another, for love comes from God.' (1 John 4:7).

Many of us make resolutions at the start of a New Year. This would be a good one for all of us in 2017.
