

Staplehurst Parish Council

PARISH COUNCILLOR HELEN MILLER

WRITTEN STATEMENT

I was born in the village and grew up here. I remember it as a community where everyone knew each other regardless how old they were.

Over the years this kind of contact has diminished to such a degree that we have little understanding of what a village connection really means.

I would like to see more village interaction with the Parish Council encouraged; including a steady stream of positive updates and feedback.