Details

See attached, had to get up and shut the window as the smell was coming in.

Vile TT odour on and off all afternoon on 7th May, worse 8.20pm onwards

On the Friday 7th May I detected an unpleasant odour at around 2.43 in our garden. The wind was in a SW direction so clearly directing the stench towards the village. The 9.51am & 12.41pm on the road into the village

Sunday 9th May, vile TT stench 10.30am driving past site and 1.30pm with odours drifting to Misson, still stinking at 3.30pm

Very bad odour from 4pm and still smelling now

Vile TT odour along Misson Road and driving past site 11.05 am to Bawtry - still a stink at 12.40pm.

Was walking around village at 5pm and the smell was horrendous. Earlier driving past the site around 4pm again the stench was horrendous.

Thurs 23 May - vile TT stench 9.10am driving past site to Bawtry, & still a stink from Newington area to Misson 11.50am.

Thursday 13 May - vile TT stench 9.05am driving past site, still a stink Newington area to Misson 11.50am.

12:11pm & 1.44pm on road into the village

4.02pm on road into village & 5.47pm & 6.15pm outside house.

Whilst driving past TTN on Sunday 23rd May 2021 around 4.00pm the stench was very strong and very unpleasant. The wind was in a Southerly direction and hence missing the village but someone else was suffering.
