Road Safety Issues

The Parish Council have been informed that the white lines at the bottom of West Street will be repainted shortly.

Members of the Parish Council have received some serious road safety concerns from residents regarding young people in the village on bicycles. Cyclists must stop and ensure that the road is clear at junctions. Please can we ask all parents to talk to your children about the potential dangers on the roads.

ACTION: Clerk to contact NYCC Highways regarding the offer of sweeping the village roads to prepare for the white lines to be painted.
