News from St. Nicholas Church

Morning Prayers will be held at St. Nicholas Church on Tuesdays at 9.30am. All Saints, Ulcombe will join us while their building works are in progress. Do come and join us at these sessions.

Coffee Morning will be held in the Village Hall Grafty Green at 10.30am until 12.00. 11th June. We would love to have more people join us; so please come along. We serve fresh coffee or a cup of tea, if you prefer; homemade cakes and scones. There is a lot of chat and laughter and no charge. (We would be glad to have a donation which will be sent to Zambia to help with the Tearfund project for clean water to be put in place in four small villages. This is part of the Connected church project.)

APCM meeting was held on 30th April, 2014 at which the Churchwardens agreed to stand again, there being no other nominations. The Wardens are Mr. Kenneth Alexander of Bowley Oast East, Sandway and Mrs. Joan Davidson of Ivy House Farm, Liverton Hill, Grafty Green. The Treasurer is Mr. John Collins of the Homestead, Grafty Green. Members of the PCC remain the same - they being Mrs. Sally Alexander, Mrs. Sylvia Close, Mr. Dominic Goodwin, Mrs. Christine King, Mr. John Millen and Mrs. Diana Parker.

The position of Secretary is currently vacant. If anyone would like to take on this job we would be most grateful. It is not necessary to be a PCC member to do this task - just come along and take the Minutes, write them up and answer a few letters under guidance. Please get in touch with Kenneth Alexander on 01622 859549

Plant Sale, Cake Stall was very successful raising £92 for Church Funds and we must thank Sue Burch and Rosemary Smith for suggesting that we might like to raise money by selling cakes at this event. I hope they did as well with the plants.

Cream Teas We will be starting the Cream Tea season on the 6th July 2.00pm-5.00pm at St. Nicholas Church - in the churchyard if fine and in the Nave if rainy. Do come and support this project.

We had a very good year last summer and the money raised went towards our percentage of the Parish Share, which has to be paid to Canterbury. So far we have managed to pay in full the due amount which, for a small community, is very good indeed. We are looking forward to welcoming old friends and new on our Sunday afternoons in July and August.

We are looking for people who might be able to help on the odd Sunday here and there allowing members of the team to have a week off. Please get in touch with Sylvia on 01622 858919 or Joan on 01622 850210 if you can help.

Archdeacon, Stephen Taylor dedicated our new kitchen and toilet facilities on Sunday 25th of May at which he presided with the Rev: Millie Hart. Members of Lenham and Ulcombe choirs joined our choir. It was a Benefice Service of Holy Communion and refreshments were served afterwards. Members of all four congregations came and joined us and there was a lovely friendly atmosphere.

Men's Breakfast will be on Saturday 28th June at the Dog and Bear in Lenham where a full English Breakfast will be served at 8.00am, followed by a talk. The cost is £8.50 and if you would like a place reserved for you ring Dick Venn on 01622 858195.

A Ladies Breakfast was held on 10th May at 8.30am at the Community Centre in Lenham where a Continental Breakfast was served. A Speaker followed. It was very successful, but a decision has been made not to run it every month but perhaps once quarter - so watch this space for a further date.

Ken Hobbs is coming to the Benefice to talk about church growth. His title is 'How to grow a Church'. He will tell us how he managed to increase a congregation with numbers much the same as we have, by four or five times. This will take place on 14th June at 10.00am for 10.30am in Harrietsham's Hall and will finish about 3.00pm.

Neighbourhood Watch Schemes

What are they?
Have we got one?

These are questions I've been asking myself lately – in fact ever since I attended a Community Safety event at the village hall last month and met the couple who co-ordinate these schemes for the Maidstone District. You may be as curious as I was to know the answers, in which case, read on...

Neighbourhood Watch is a charity supported by the police and run by local volunteers but it manifests itself in different ways in different places, which makes it a bit confusing.

Its aims are to encourage people to be alert to the possibility of crime in their area and in their daily lives, and to do what they can to prevent it. This might range from taking basic home and personal security precautions (on which advice and help can be offered) to reporting anything they think might be suspicious.

Neighbourhood Watch encourages local people to do this as a community rather than as individuals but, as it relies on volunteers to organise things at the grass roots level, and as we don't all have a great deal of spare time, the nature of the schemes varies. They can be as big or small as you like, both in geographical area and in the scale of their ambition; some have strict boundaries, some are much more nebulous.

For some years, Judith Woodbridge and Jennifer Butler have operated a scheme for the residents of Liverton Hill and Elmstone Hole (to the north of Grafty Green) that has involved collating names and telephone numbers, organising informal gatherings, disseminating information and generally keeping a look-out for each other.

Meanwhile, at the southern end of the Parish, Sue Burch works virtually alone receiving the same information from the police and trying to make us aware of anything relevant by, for example, displaying notices in the village shop (for which service we should also thank Robert and Hazel, the proprietors).

But that's about the extent of it in Boughton Malherbe – as far as I know! – because no one person has any responsibility for encouraging, promoting, co-ordinating or supporting schemes across the Parish. I've been asked if I will do take on that task. So, how about this for starters:

Is there anybody out there who would like to get involved in a NW scheme in any way?

This could mean anything from just signing up to receive periodic information to starting a new scheme. (A new scheme could, for example, just encompass a short stretch of your road or a small group of houses where you live, and could involve anything from you simply acting as a contact person for the passing of information to and from your neighbours, to co-ordinating wider activities in the way Judith and Jenny do on Liverton Hill).

You might ask 'Do we need NW schemes in our quiet rural area?' Well, in the past, houses have been burgled, tools have been stolen from sheds, oil has been extracted from tanks, and, more frighteningly, the village shop has suffered raids with the threat of violence and at least one serious sexual assault has been committed within our Parish. Add to that the e-mail and telephone scams we are all prey to and the door-step con-men who can relieve vulnerable people of their life savings over time if allowed to, and I think you will agree that we certainly do need to be vigilant – not just for ourselves but for others in our community who are less able to look after themselves.

That's exactly what Neighbourhood Watch is all about and that's why I would urge you to get in touch if you would like to be any part of any scheme of any sort. If you're tempted, just give me a ring or send me an email to let me know and we can have a chat.

Free security marker pen for everyone who makes contact! (And there's a lot more useful stuff like that which can be provided in the future if we can get something off the ground!)

Defibrillator And Emergency Help

By the time this edition of Malherbe Monthly reaches the doorstep the newly acquired 'Public Access Defibrillator' courtesy of local funeral director A W Court will have been installed in a locked cabinet in the porch of their premises in Headcorn Road and available 24/7. 999 callers to the ambulance service in appropriate cases will be given the 'lock code' to access the defibrillator (please note this is the only way to get access to the defibrillator and control its whereabouts).

Again for 999 ambulance callers I am willing (if available), independent of the ambulance service, to provide voluntary emergency first aid help including defibrillator prior to the arrival of paramedics. You can contact Chris Wheal after calling 999 on 07979 864929.

Again by the time this article is read many local residents will have taken advantage of the short training sessions and although there are no further dates at this stage you can register to be advised when further sessions can be offered. Call Chris Wheal on 01622 858100.

Ulcombe Pre-School

It is with great regret that I have to announce that Ulcombe Pre-School will be closing in July, at the end of this academic year. Unfortunately we have been unable to increase our child numbers, despite a huge push on advertising over the last year.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone in the local community who have supported us in all our fundraising activities, as without these we would have had to close a great deal earlier.

We know that many villagers have had dealings with the Pre-School over the years it has been open (since the 1960's we believe!) and we are sorry that it has to end this way. We can only assure you that this decision has not been taken lightly, as it truly feels like the end of an era.

Many thanks

Lenham Valley Business Association

Networking is about . . . Getting more

This is what one member said about LVBA:

"We have been attending the monthly LVBA meetings for nearly 2 years now. In that time, I have found the guest speaker presentations extremely informative and useful for my business. In addition, we have also secured a number of new clients, either fellow members or their contacts, which we simply would not have secured without being a member of the association. All in all, I consider LVBA to be one of our key partners." Simon Hammond The Hammond Consultancy.

Below are the events scheduled for the next few months:

- Tuesday 1 July speaker Emily Chapman from Loud Monkey Social network update.
- Tuesday 5 August at The Oak in Charing. Speaker to be confirmed.

- Tuesday 2 September at The Dog & Bear, Lenham. Our speaker is Deborah Turner from You - Image Consultancy, telling us we only get 7 seconds to make a first impression.
- Tuesday 7 October at The White Horse. Speaker Helen Topliss, Business Advisor at Mid Kent College.

LVBA member or not you can come along for free . . . you just have to register.

New members and one off visitors welcome or you can try it out for free we are sure you'll like networking with LVBA. Please register on our website, on the online registration page.

Events are organised and presented by Alan Reading who has been networking from before it was called networking!

Grafty Geeks – What is Pinterest?

Recently I've become aware of a website for people interested in crafts, baking, dress making, designing or anything on the internet they come across of interest but haven't got time to read at the time so want to save it for later reference.

Pinterest is a free website in which people can upload, save, sort and manage images, known as pins, and other media content through collections known as pinboards.

Pinterest acts as a personalized media platform, whereby peoples' content and the content of others can be browsed on the main page. People can then save individual pins to one of their own boards using the "Pin It" button, with Pinboards typically organized by a central topic or theme.

People can personalize their experience with Pinterest by pinning items, creating boards, and interacting with other members. By doing so, the peoples "pin feed" will display unique, personalized results.

Content can also be found outside of Pinterest and similarly uploaded to a board via the "Pin It" button which can be downloaded to "the bookmark" bar on a web browser. People also have the option of sending a pin to other Pinterest users and/or email accounts through the "Send" button.

There are several ways to register a new Pinterest account. Potentially you could receive an invitation from a friend already registered or you could request an invitation directly from the Pinterest website. An account can also be created and accessed by linking Pinterest to Facebook or Twitter profile.

Type Pinterest in Google and then select the best option for you.

Have fun, I've heard great things about this new way of pinning down the things you are interested in.

Grafty Gourmet

This is a fine dish using asparagus spears. Just remove the tougher base stalks and throw the rest in the pan.

Asparagus Frittata with Soft Cheese & Chives - Serves 2

200g asparagus, trimmed
1 tbsp olive oil
Salt and cayenne pepper
Nutmeg, freshly grated
3 large eggs, beaten

125g soft cream cheese
30g parmesan, finely grated
2 tsp chives, chopped
Butter, for frying

1. Thinly slice the asparagus spears on the diagonal. Warm the olive oil in a non-stick frying pan, add the asparagus and season with salt, cayenne pepper and a pinch of nutmeg. Cook gently over a low heat until the asparagus is tender and lightly coloured. Tip out on to a plate, set aside and wipe out the frying pan.

2. In a mixing bowl, beat together the eggs, cream cheese, parmesan and chives until smooth. Return the frying pan to a moderate heat, add a little slice of butter and heat until it is just beginning to froth. Pour in the egg mixture, turn down the heat to low and begin bringing in the frothing edges to the liquid centre of the pan using a spatula.

3. Tip the cooked asparagus into the pan and disperse evenly. Continue to gently lift the more cooked parts of the frittata, allowing the liquid egg to slip underneath them until cooked. This should take around 2 minutes.

4. Slide the frittata on to a plate and allow to cool a little before serving.

Heart Of Kent Hospice Event

Put on your checked shirt, polish your boots and join in the fun at the Heart of Kent Hospice's 'Wild West Walk' on Saturday 19th July .

Taking over from the hugely successful Moonlit Walk, the Wild West Walk is a twilight walk around Maidstone suitable for all the family. Offering an all new circular 10 mile route and a new mid-Summer date, our walk starts and finishes at Aylesford Rugby Club . A 5 mile route is also available ending at the Heart of Kent Hospice shop in King Street from where a bus will run you back to Aylesford Rugby Club.

We encourage fancy dress with this year's theme being Cowboys and Cowgirls and your registration fee includes a free cowboy hat! With a line dance warm up at 6 pm prior to the walk (which commences at 7 pm) and entertainment en route you will have a great evening of summer fun while supporting a good cause.

Pre-registration by 18th July is £17.50 per adult. Registration on the day is £25.00 per adult. Children under 16 will be charged £5.00 but must be accompanied by an adult.

For further information or to book please contact fundraising@hokh.co.uk phone 01622 790195 or visit www.hokh.org

Music Notes, June 2014

An interesting choice of local concerts this month. As some magazines take a little while to circulate I would also draw your attention now to the excellent selection of music offered by the Egerton Music Festival, which runs from 4th-13th July. For information tel 01233 756775. Meanwhile here is the June selection:

- Sunday 8th June, 7.30pm at All Saints' Church Maidstone – Maidstone Singers are in concert with the South Circular Orchestra, performing works by Handel, Tavener, Vivaldi and J S Bach. Information 01622 664108
- Saturday 14th June , 7.30pm at St. Nicholas Church, Leeds – The Cameo Opera sing light opera and music from the shows. Tickets 01622 861280.
- Saturday 21st June, 7.30pm at Mote Hall, Maidstone - Maidstone Choral Union perform a concert version of Bizet's Carmen. Tickets 01622 726193
- Sunday 29th June, 3.00pm at Mote Hall, Maidstone – Maidstone Youth Music Society (MYMS) perform their 40th anniversary concert. Tickets 07802-425022

On TV, watch out for a 90 minute documentary "Inside Glyndebourne" to be broadcast on BBC4 during June.

Saddle up for Air Ambulance bike ride

Life-saving charity Kent, Surrey & Sussex Air Ambulance is appealing for cyclists to sign up for this year's Double 100 Cycle Challenge and help save lives at night.

The 100-mile or 100km bike ride is to be held on Sunday, September 28th, to mark the first anniversary of the launch of the night flying service.

Last year's annual event raised more than £12,000 and organisers are aiming to double its success this year with two starting points at the helicopter bases at Marden and Redhill.

Both new circular routes will include all counties covered by the Air Ambulance and this year's Double 100 has kindly been backed by main sponsor Fidelity Worldwide Investment.

Corporate Citizenship Manager Vicki Haxton said: "Fidelity is delighted to be supporting the Double 100 Cycle Challenge and helping to raise money for this incredibly worthy cause.

"The air ambulance is a vital service in this area and we recognise the significant contribution they make towards saving lives in our community. We are looking forward to many of our employees participating in the event."

Kent, Surrey & Sussex Air Ambulance launched its night flying service last September in a move expected to benefit a further 400 to 500 patients a year.

The charity now has to raise an extra £1million a year to fund the cost of a 24-hour service, up from £5million to £6million.

The 2014 Double 100 has also been sponsored by Howard Cundey Chartered Surveyors and Estate Agents, and supported by the Asda Foundation, Warburtons and Southern Water.

The ride is open to regular and occasional cyclists including individuals and teams with feeding stations along the scenic route. The first 200 riders to sign up will receive a special Air Ambulance jersey.

To register go to www.kssairambulance.co.uk/involved/double100 and for more information call Julie Clare on 01622 833833, or email juliec@kssairambulance.org.uk

Christian Message - June 2014

As I write there are a number of major items in the news that are making me think seriously and deeply about the job that I do. It's not that my job is particularly unusual or that it is rare to hear about it in the media. In fact, it is almost constantly that what I do is commented on. In fact, it is one of those topics that is almost constantly in the spotlight for one reason or another.

I work in a school.

It is a Church of England secondary school, closely linked to two Church of England Primary schools by being part of a Multi Academy Trust of around 1700 children from age 4 to 18. We share a common Board of Directors, as well as a wide range of organisational matters and all 250 or so adults are employed by the same Trust.

In the last week the violent death of Ann Maguire in a school and Leeds has rocked us all. A much loved and respected career teacher who was killed with only a few months to go before her much deserved retirement in the school where she had spent decades making positive contributions to the lives of generations of young people. This tragic event at Corpus Christi Catholic College brought such a profound sense of sadness on so many levels that has been almost impossible to shake.

The second major news item has been the comments of the Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby, defending faith schools. He said,

"People seem to choose these schools in large numbers. They are often in the poorest parts of the country, we seek to love and serve people, as we should, through these schools - and have done for hundreds of years."

For me, his comments go to the very heart of the mission of Church of England schools and of our belief, particularly his phrase 'we seek to love and serve the people'. Christ's message of loving one another, especially his love of children, is lived out every day in schools up and down the country.

What exactly does that mean in our schools? It would be wonderful to be able to say that every child and adult had a strong Christian faith. They don't. It would be comforting to say that there were no quarrels, no lying or deceit. It isn't true, far from it.

Our faith in the teachings of Jesus Christ makes our job more, not less, difficult. To manage conflict by love, to treat wrong doing with forgiveness and to live by a commitment to giving not one last chance but 7 x70 chances isn't easy! What is essential though, is that everything we say and in everything we do the Christian values of the school are there for all to see. The crosses on the wall of every classroom and office are not just pieces of wood but symbols of the strong spiritual dimension in all aspects of school life.

Ideally, all students would embrace Christ as Lord and know Him in their heart. Just as important, perhaps, is that they understand that there is a spiritual part within each of them and that they can, when they are ready to, explore and come to faith. In a practical sense, this means that Baptism and Confirmation take place in school for those ready to take those momentous steps. For others? I want to make certain that a church is not a place to be afraid of – that when they go to a wedding, Christening or funeral they understand the services. More than anything, when Christ does knock on the door of their heart when they are 26 or 56 – whenever – I want them to know where to look, to whom they can turn to begin the journey.

So, to return to the Archbishop, the Church of England may be in conflict with itself over a range of issues, find it difficult to reconcile different views of its priests and might seem on the decline to some outsiders. All I can say is that up and down the country there are committed Christians trying to do God's work in the corridors and classrooms of our schools.

And Ann Maguire was a wonderful example of just that. May she Rest in Peace.

Ian Collins

LAMIDORE is a choir which was founded in 1960 and has its roots in Torhout (Flanders, Belgium). The 4 part choir of 62 singers is led by Geert Steelant and supported by pianist Filip Jaques.

The spirit and philosophy of the choir can be found in the logo and the name:

La-mi-do-re: we want to sing and make music

L'ami doré: our friendship means everything

Amore: the music speaks to our hearts

Some of our last concerts:

Beautiful Noise (2012)

Christmas concert: "Tussen donker en licht" (2012)

Smaakmakers (2013)

Christmas concert "A time for peace" (2013).

Jazz concert (2014)

At the end of 2014 a large project will be conducted with 3 different choirs: 'The armed man' by composer Karl Jenkins. This concert is a reminder of the Great War, and will be performed in November 2014.

Every year Lamidore makes a 3-day trip. This year they have chosen to visit the beautiful region of Kent and East Sussex and will be in Lenham in August. On their trip Lamidore likes to enrich the community with their music and give a free concert.

We hope you will enjoy our music. Our concert will take place on Friday 15/08/2014 at 7PM in Lenham church. Please come!
