Violence Reduction Challenge

Dear Resident

I am writing to seek your views on, and assistance with, a substantial piece of work which I launched last month.

My Violence Reduction Challenge is a significant programme, bringing together individuals and organisations from across the county and beyond. It will involve examining, in detail, issues related to violent crime in all its forms.

I will be asking the Violence Reduction Challenge to look at the whole of the journey; including early intervention and prevention, education, enforcement and rehabilitation.

The first step I have taken is to ask residents, victims, charities, public sector organisations, and others to submit to me their thoughts on violent crime in Kent through my all for evidence.

I would very much appreciate it if you were able to respond from your own perspective; whether you have been a victim, supported someone who has, or have not but have something else to suggest.

No ideas are off the table as part of the Violence Reduction Challenge.

You can submit any responses via my website at: www.kent-pcc.gov.uk/VRC.

Thank you in advance for taking the time to share this call for evidence and I look forward to hearing your views going forward.

Yours sincerely

July Church Draw Winners CONGRATULATIONS!

theWI
INSPIRING WOMEN

1915 FOR 100 YEARS 2015

Stockbury W.I.

Five of our ladies (plus one husband), went to the Madginford WI Pie Lunch held a few weeks ago which was well attended with about 50 diners. Everyone obviously enjoyed their meal and the atmosphere was light hearted and jovial. All in all this was a very enjoyable outing.

Our display of 3 poppy curtains which we have been working on, was taken to the Kent Showground by Ann and Wendy, to create, with other displays contributed by many others, a memorial to mark the 100 years since the First World War ended and to remember those who served in the conflict. Stockbury WI received a special mention from the organisers for all the hours of hard work that our members and Dee Stevenson put into the making and displaying of thousands of poppies on site. I know that it caused a few headaches and late nights for Ann and Wendy but the finished area looked amazing.

Eight members attended the Centenary Celebrations at The Friars, Aylesford on the 11th July. We had a picnic in the beautiful surroundings and saw displays of imaginative flower arrangements, photographs and up-cycled cushions which demonstrated the wealth of talent to be found among WI members. (Thank you Joyce for making our cushion).

On Thursday 12th July seven of us received a very warm welcome from our dear friends at Westwell WI, who entertained us for the evening and treated us to a very informative talk on the renovation and day to day running of Willesborough Windmill, with many anecdote's of life at the mill. Westwell WI was formed in 1918 and will be celebrating their centenary in November. We wish them well.

We are all looking forward to our summer meal at The Chiltern Hundreds during August.

Patrik Says ...

“You politicians ! ....” and this is usually followed by a barrage of abuse and misconceptions, which your local ‘Monkey’ has to endure.

MBC Councillor remunerations have recently been addressed by an independent panel. This panel found that we are working on average 12 hours per week and our remuneration should approximately reflect the minimum wage before tax. I can assure you that I spend easily twice that time and struggle to barely keep abreast of the basics. There is no extra pay, on the contrary, as the sole councillor of one of the biggest wards by area, I don’t even get paid travel expenses for ward visits nor parish council attendance. I easily spend £50 a month on diesel for those trips, while my urban colleagues can walk their ward in 20 minutes end to end; I couldn’t even drive across my ward in half an hour. If you feed peanuts, you get ..... councillors?

This last month I had an unusual workload of planning (and other legal) objections. Most of these issues stem from activities by “new kids on the block”. (These I define as residents who moved into the North Downs within the past six years.) Often there is the dream of living in the countryside, slowing down from the city life and utilising the potential of the new, big house and adjoining land. Those dreams are certainly not objectionable in principle but once LED floodlights go up and planning applications get filed, all sorts of alarm bells are being set off in the hamlet. If possible, your Councillor tries to double as counsellor in order to restore community peace. Administrative law is no substitute for a good neighbourly talk and early neighbourhood consultation.

You may have struggled recently to find certain items, like statutory documents, on the MBC website. This is being blamed (as usual) on the new website. I was told that during the next few months IT will be introducing a new site search tool, which is more powerful than the existing one, the new search function should make all documents far easier to find. Currently I find it more successful to use an external search engine like Google or Startpage to find hidden items on the MBC website.

The review of the Local Plan for 2021 is gaining pace: Regular readers may remember that I previously said that not much happens at MBC during August, not so in 2018: We will start the month with four consecutive evenings of members’ workshops, our party will also spend a whole sunny Sunday in a stuffy hall debating our policies. I am sure that the other groups may hold similar meetings too.

It may be fair to say that there is little appetite across the political spectrum for further dispersal of new housing across rural villages nor for urban expansion. Theoretically we could think outside the box and take the decision to regress Maidstone, turn the town into an unattractive dump where nobody in their right mind would want to live nor work. Somehow I cannot see a political mandate for such a position. Any other direction will unfortunately impose another 7,500 residential units upon us; this figure is derived from a national formula that is imposed upon local authorities by Central Government. Where will we put them? How will communities cope with even more ‘new kids on the block’? Interesting times ahead...

The Strategic Planning Committee agreed to put the draft Statement of Community Involvement 2018 out for consultation. I made sure that the 2013 SCI can be easily found on the MBC website via its search function. Watch this space for further announcements.

The town centre will soon become a Business Improvement District. A BID is a business-led and business funded body formed to improve a defined commercial area. Businesses will pay an additional levy based on the rateable value of their property, and this will generate an income of approximately £2.15m over its initial five-year term. The BID will promote Maidstone in new ways. Car parking, reducing crime and anti-social behaviour, finding a better synergy between the town centre and Maidstone’s heritage are some of their targets.

MBC are seeking views on the specific dog control measures to combat irresponsible dog-owner behaviour. In the North Downs this may be specifically relevant to Stockbury & Wormshill:

Stockbury Gardeners

Storms washing away roads, heat melting the roads, and brown lawns. I think 2018 will be a memorable year for these reasons alone. Apparently at the time of penning this we have more heat to come and talk of 35 degrees.

I know that this is a gardener's page, but I cannot resist poking fun at the Highways Agency and council. In this case the road to Hucking from Stockbury was badly damaged with the May storms, I am not sure too many of you have travelled the route recently but the repair team have laid what is probably the best road surface out side of Brands Hatch! Smooth, wide, flat and a pleasure to drive over. Ohh nearly forgot, pristine white lines and dotted ones at tee junctions. The tarmac team deserve recognition for the work. It's a big shame they were not employed to fill up the holes on our motorways and the A249. Gripe over.

During July some of our members entered exhibits in the Kent Show and they were very successful in coming home with some awards and prize money.

Our next village show is on Saturday 18th August and the hall will be open to the public at 2pm until 4pm. All are welcome. Any entries should be in to the Show Secretary by the end of 16th (Thursday).

The monthly meeting this month is a BBQ and viewing of the Chairman's garden from 7pm. Please advise any of the Committee if you can make it and get details of times and format from them.

Providing that you can keep the soil moist, planting fast growing Chinese leaves, Pak Choi, and salad leaves are all a current option and even basil and coriander will germinate in the ground now.

Recently seen in the garden Fritillary butterflies, slowworms, gold finches and a 5 foot frog.

Remembrance Day November 11th 2018

This year marks the 100th Anniversary of the end of the First World War.

Stockbury Parish Council would like to commemorate this significant anniversary with a community event to take place on Remembrance Sunday. We would like to involve everyone, villagers, clubs and societies.

Some ideas for the event have already been put forward but we would welcome further input from you.

We would love to hear from anyone :

- Who has ideas/suggestions for the event
- Who'd like to become involved, either before or on the day
- Who had an ancestor in the war, especially any whose name is listed on memorials in Stockbury Church.
- Who'd like to make a donation towards a permanent memorial.
- Who has any medals, keepsakes, mementos, letters, diaries or other items/stories from the war which could be displayed on the day.

Please contact:

BIG THANK YOU!

We would like to say a Big Thank You to Sam and his team at The Harrow for providing the bar and the food at our recent celebration held in the Village Hall. Nothing was too much trouble, and everything was organised beautifully. We had many comments about how good the food was, which included gluten-free and vegetarian options.

We would recommend that anyone having 'a bit of a do' in the Village Hall speaks to Sam if they would like catering for their event. He's very good ... and very reasonable!

CALLING ALL PASSENGERS!!
CALLING ALL PASSENGERS!!
CALLING ALL PASSENGERS!!

Hello All!

So here we are AGAIN with an additional trip – potentially number FOUR on our list.

Those of us on the visit to Tea-Pot Island will remember when we had finished ‘putting the world right’ we got to thinking of new potential trips and mentioned how nice it was to be so close to the river at Yalding; so I mentioned the ‘Kentish Lady’ which is a small glass enclosed cruise vessel which operates from the wet side of the Archbishop’s Palace and travels two or three locks up river through Allington and Yalding before turning around and coming back. What I was thinking is that we go on the three hour lunchtime cruise as it suits what we do, taking a leisurely cruise whilst having lunch on board; this can be a ‘Picnic Box’, fresh fruit tea/coffee/water or my particular choice, Fish & Chips, tea/coffee/water but we would need to determine how many of each when we book. The cost per person whether you have the Picnic Box or Fish & Chips would be £23.00, which includes lunch and travel on the boat, not forgetting an additional £5.00 for your bus fare for fare paying passengers, free for concessionary bus pass passengers.

The plan would be to start picking up to leave the village around 10:30 to have time to park in Maidstone as near as possible to the boat and make sure we are there in time according to their instructions. I would expect to leave between half three to four and be back in the village by five.

To get a booking on this popular boat we need to move fast and accept it would have to be THURSDAY 27th September, not the normal Wednesday! Don’t worry though; Fiona has kindly agreed to move the weekly Hempstead Valley run to Friday that week.

Don't forget to book for our Margate trip on Wednesday 29th August either.. Fish & chips, cockles & mussels and the Turner Contemporary are waiting for you ‘darn Margit’ as well as a trip down Memory Lane at Dreamland.

Free for concessionary bus pass holders or £5 per person for those without, payable as usual on the day and of course don't forget another quiz!

Why not join us for another good day out – 3 last year, hoping for 6 this year.

Stockbury Book Club

When choosing books to suggest for future reading in the group, it is inevitably always a gamble. As everyone knows, other people’s opinions, be them professional reviewers or just someone you know – often fail to coincide with someone else’s experience of that book; and so it was with this month’s choice. The book was called ‘Ragtime’ by E.L. Docrow. It was based on a stage play and as a group we pondered over how successful it was as a book.

People found it a disjointed book, which weaved a story around both fictional and real people. Set in the early 20th century (before the First world War), in the Northern states of North America, it centred on three families that were black, Jewish and white middle class. The ‘real’ characters woven into the story were as disparate as Harry Houdini, Sigmund Freud and Henry Ford. It covered issues of racism, immigration, fame and privilege to name but a few of its components. All these disparate threads do merge in the story, but at times it is hard to follow and many people found it too disjointed and too much of a slow burn! Most people that got to the end found it worthwhile but for some it was not felt to be worth the effort. I personally enjoyed it a lot and did wonder if the fact I listened to it on Audio (whilst driving up and down to Cornwall) made any difference. We gave it a score of 6 ½.

Incidentally whilst trying to work out in my head how to construct the review of this interesting but difficult book, I came across a definition of Ragtime music which said “Ragtime is a style of music which is based on the regularity of a march, but stresses the offbeat in such a way that the beat is intensified. Irregularity and regularity combine to give the excitement of this music’s overall effect”. That in itself is a complicated statement – so maybe no wonder the book felt a bit on the indecipherable side.

I guess it is up to the reader to decide if the title is a good fit to the book – but for me I just think of that famous Scott Joplin piano tune.....!

It was also BBQ evening for us and we were graced with a hot evening, wonderful food and good company.

Calling All Advertisers

Our annual rates for advertising are very reasonable and have remained unchanged for the 7th consecutive year :

Our advertising year starts in June and new adverts for less than 12 months duration will be charged on a pro-rata basis. Rates for ads smaller than a quarter page will be given on application.

If you would like to take out an ad, please email stockburyobserver@gmail.com The editor will confirm receipt and an invoice will be sent along with details of how to pay.

If you are a new customer, please also attach your ad, preferable in MS Word or Powerpoint. Please bear in mind when designing your ad that large solid blocks of colour may not look so good in the black and white paper edition of The Observer, despite looking good for our online edition.

This is a great opportunity to promote your business as The Observer is delivered to every household within the Parish of Stockbury as well as having an online presence.

It's never too late to advertise in The Stockbury Observer!

Stockbury Parish Council Minutes

The minutes for our Parish Council meeting will be approved at the following meeting and will then be published on www.stockbury.org.uk within 5 days of the meeting at which they are approved.
