

Bourton on the Water Youth Club – July 2019

SUMMARY (from Gemma – Project Manager):

The wind down to the summer holidays has finished and the young people are having a break from school while the youth workers are hard at work preparing for the relaunch of the Youth Hub at the cricket club in September.

Gemma has managed to book UPS RoadCode sessions for the senior group in September. This gives the young people the chance to use exciting technology to learn road safety as pedestrians, passengers and potential drivers. This will hopefully be an attention-grabbing activity that will get the new senior group off to a great start.

The Juniors will be having their own Great Bourton Bake Off. This is always a popular activity with the juniors and is often requested. We will be judging the young people's creations in several categories and would be very grateful if some of the councillors fancy them selves as a Paul Hollywood or a Prue Leith to help us with the judging.

The detached work continues on Wednesdays at 5:30 till 7:30. Tamara is handing this project to Ann who Leads the Monday youth club sessions. Ann will be publicising the relaunch as she and Huw do the rounds of the village.

The detached work has engaged with 6 young people in the two sessions so far in July there have been lots of constructive conversations, young people have been informed about youth club and pro social behaviour. It has been noticed that young people hang round with the play rangers, Gemma will make contact with them with a view to partnership working.

Gemma is still yet to hear from the local neighbourhood policing team about ASB in the area.
