

The village hall have had a good year, our committee is made up from many different people who work hard and are committed, for this I'm very grateful.

We have put the base in place for the Late Brian Mortimer's bench, we have gained planning permission and work has started on our disabled loos, this will also have an outside loo for events.

We're pleased to be working well with the parish council and we thank them for all their help.