Councillor A Backhouse
Councillor P Graves (from 6.35pm)
Councillor P Grimwood
Councillor R Parsons

1 member of public, Mrs J Marley (Clerk).

Absent: Councillor B Marley, P Tidd, County Cllr. D Bastiman.

108/21 APOLOGIES FOR ABSENCE Cllrs. Marley & Tidd (health), County Cllr. Bastiman (prior commitment).

109/21 DECLARATIONS OF INTEREST None.

110/21 MINUTES

Minute 107/21 was amended to read "1st February 2022" instead of "1st January 2022". The amended minutes of the meeting of 4th January 2022 were approved as an accurate record and authorised for signature by the Chairman.

111/21 PROCEDURAL MATTER Standing Orders suspended at 6.31pm to allow the Public Open Forum.

112/11 PUBLIC OPEN FORUM Member of public asked questions about the forthcoming devolution, what information/consultations had there been for parish councils and what (if anything) was the parish council likely to take on under the new authority.

113/21 PROCEDURAL MATTER Standing Orders resumed at 6.34pm.

Cllr. Graves arrived during the next item.

114/21 MATTERS RAISED IN PUBLIC OPEN FORUM Chairman, councillors and Clerk outlined the consultations which had taken place, the background to existing funding and functions carried out and the potential for additional functions to be carried out subject to mutual agreement with the emerging unitary authority.

115/21 REPORTS

- a) Police: No report to receive.
- b) County: Cllr. Backhouse reported NYCC's precept was likely to increase by 3.99% for financial year 2022/23.
- c) Borough: Cllr. Backhouse reported 1] the Structural Change Order to create the new unitary authority was now going through parliament; 2] SBC's precept was likely to increase by 2.09%.
- d) Clerk: Reported the seats and picnic tables had been ordered by SBC, those for behind the village hall had already been delivered, the remainder of the orders were likely to be delivered by the end of March.

116/21 PARISH COUNCILLOR'S REPORTS Cllr. Grimwood reported 1] most of the picnic tables and the seat on Prickybeck were now in bits (Cllr. Hill's offer to remove & dispose of gratefully accepted); 2] a tree branch from the Duchy side had come down across the Burniston Beck (Clerk to make Duchy aware); and 3] asked if it would be possible to get more/younger people interested in the parish council for the May elections. Cllr. Backhouse reported 1] half term activities at the village hall for youngsters were now fully booked; 2] the hall now had grants totalling £38,000 towards the improvements; and 3] he asked if the Parish Council was doing anything for the Queen's Platinum Jubilee (agreed no but Council was open to giving grant assistance for any connected events). Cllr. Hill reported parking around Lindhead School continued to be a problem – agreed Clerk to write to school with a request that something be put in a newsletter and also see if Police could help (the officers covering Scarborough North had an initiative ongoing with the Newby and Barrowcliff Infants/Junior Schools). Cllr. Parson reported 1] the problem with the tree root in the Overgreen View/High Street ginnel causing a trip hazard [Minute 100/21 refers] had been dealt with; 2] one of the VAS signs had not been working as expected and on investigation it had been found to be full of water – the sign had been replaced free of charge by the suppliers (signs were currently on Coastal Road and Limestone Road, data from previous locations being analysed by Cllr. Parsons).

117/21 MATTERS FROM JANUARY MEETING

Prickybeck [Minute 101/21 refers]. Noted Duchy had today emailed asking if Council had agreed to the reviewed rent – agreed increased rent of £50/year be paid, Clerk to raise online payment when invoice to hand, Cllrs. Hill and Parsons to approve the payment. Agreed discussion on the way forward be deferred to the July meeting (this would give time for the replacement picnic tables/seating to be installed).

118/21 ROOM HIRE, APRIL 2022 ONWARDS

Some councillors still not happy that the Parish Council did not meet within the parish. Agreed 1] Scalby Community Hub be booked for 5th April meeting; 2] Cllr. Grimwood to ask Burniston bowling club if their clubhouse was available and Clerk to ask Cloughton Church Rooms if their hall was available (both to report back to March meeting); 4] decision on location of meetings May onwards deferred to March Council meeting.
